The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer

'Twas the week before Christmas,
And all through the town
Every creature was stirring
First up and then down.

Well, all of those who have been dreaming and singing of White Christmas will probably have those wishes fulfilled.

But before I plow through snow and holiday activities, we have a wedding to relate which is of much interest:

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Smith announce the marriage of their daughter, Suzanne to Mr. Albert Tylden Nicholson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Nicholson, of Chestertown.

The ceremony was performed on Friday, December 14th at 6 o'clock P. M. in Christ Methodist Church by Rev. Dr. W. P. Roberts.

Miss Kathryn P. Smith, sister of the bride, was the bride's only attendant, while Mr. William B. Nicholson, served as his brother's best man.

After January 1, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson will be "at home" at Fancy Farm.

Turning toward the gaieties of the season, each mail along with Christmas cards, seems to have an invitation tucked in the pile, and up to the moment, we might say the season is already under way.

Last Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stenger entertained a large number of friends at dinner at their home on Queen St.

The tea, which was to have been given by Mrs. A. C. Dick and Mrs. W. Dorsey Hines on Wednesday afternoon, due to the storm, has been postponed until to-day, Friday.

Saturday evening—listed last week is the Toulson-Speicher's Christmas carol party. The same evening, Mr. Harrison Vickers, Jr., and Mr. Howard Strong, Jr., will be hosts at an egg nogg party, which will be given at the home of Mrs. C. R. Humphreys in Quaker Neck.

Then skipping over till after Christmas, one of the largest parties for the younger set will be held Wednesday, night Dec. 26, by Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Truslow for their daughter, Miss Nellie Truslow, at the Country Club.

Naturally, the younger set will probably be gayer than usual this year, and I'll try to have a list of their activities next week. The Junior Dance will be on Friday, Dec. 28 at the Club.

On Saturday, Dec. 29, Mrs. J. S. Wm. Jones, and Misses Miriam and Virginia Jones have issued invitations to a cocktail party at the Country Club from 5 until 7.

Sunday, Dec. 30, Captain and Mrs. Hugh Sease will be hosts at an egg nogg party at their home in Quaker Neck.

For the same day invitations have been received in this community, to a buffet luncheon to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clendaniel at their home in Easton.

Glancing at the school and college list, we see their bright young faces among us again. Among them are:

Jane Kibler from St. Margaret's; Genifer Kingsley, Mackey Metcalfe, Hannah More; Peggy Metcalfe, Stuart Hall; Betty Truslow, Skidmore College; Peggy Truslow, Mary Washington; Anne Wilmer, St. Catherine's, and Page Wilmer, Hannah More.

Included among the boys are: Waldo Barroll, Gilman's; Lou Harris, Dartmouth; Al Lieber, McDonogh; David Massey, St. Andrew's; Sam Massey, U. of Md.; Rolph Townshend, Staunton Military Academy, and Bill Wilmer, McDonogh.

Going away to spend the holidays will be Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Burris and their daughter, Miss Anne Burris, who will visit in Elmira, New York.

Mrs. J. Kennard Aldridge will visit Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dudley in Alexandria, Va.

Mrs. Adair McKoy and her children have already arrived from Beaufort, S. C., to spend the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Tilden Brice at Arcadia Farm. They will be joined by Mr. McKoy for Christmas.

Mrs. Wm. P. Ellington and her son, Porter came this week from Alexandria, Va., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton. They will likewise be joined by Mr. Ellington for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Kirkus Dugdale, of the Cambridge Arms, Baltimore, Lt. Comdr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Dugdale with their two young sons, of Annapolis, and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Prudden of Long Island, are spending the Christmas holidays at Wyndemere Farm, near Quaker Neck Landing.

Miss Helen Hutchins, of New York, will visit Mrs. Carl Melamet and her brother, Mr. James L. Bacchus over Christmas.

Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes is a visitor in Chestertown and will remain here until January 2nd, when she will return to her home in Riverton, N. J.

Miss Elizabeth Brown, of the faculty of Garrison Forest School, near Baltimore, returned to her home here this week to spend the holidays.

Holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Brown Metcalfe will include: Mr. and Mrs. George S. Cooper, of New Canaan, Conn., their two sons, George S. Cooper, Jr., a student at Colgate, and Douglas; Mrs. Olin Smith of Chevy Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Olin Smith of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald McDorman of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Hurd, Jr., and their young daughter, of Alexandria, Va., and Mr. and Mrs. Eliot P. Hurd, and their young daughter, of Bel Air, Md., will be holiday guests of Mrs. Edward A. Hurd, Sr., at the Reward Farm.

Mr. and Mrs. William Buckingham, of Baltimore, will come on Saturday to visit Mrs. John Speicher.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Tull with their two young sons, of Cynwyd, Pa., will spend the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Tull.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hines, Jr., left on Sunday for Swanton, Ohio, where they will visit the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Eger.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis H. Mead and their son, Michael, who have been visiting with Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead since Lieut. Mead returned to inactive status in the Coast Guard Reserve, left on Sunday for Chicago and Green Bay, Wis.

Dr. and Mrs. Winton Tolles of New York were visitors in Chestertown this week. Dr. Tolles, who is on terminal leave as Lieut.-Commander, USNR, returned recently from the Pacific. He will take up his work at Washington College, from which he has been absent on leave since 1942, at the beginning of the second term.

Come now, let's deck the hall with boughs of holly—for 'tis the season to be jolly. And time to say once again To You and—

Yours, A Merry Christmas.

VETS HAVE PRIORITY ON ARMY SURPLUS

The Third Service Command today outlined procedure by which veterans operating or opening small businesses may obtain, through retail or spot negotiated purchses arranged by the Smaller War Plants Corporation, Army surplus property available at the Service Command Property Disposal Depot in Philadelphia.

The negotiated sale policy was adopted by Major General Philip Hayes, commanding general, to help veterans procure such property as orchestra and band instruments, building materials, and automobile parts to use in their enterprises. Without this advantage, they would be required to purchase on the competitive bid basis normally provided for by War Department disposal regulations.

Here is the procedure:

Veterans apply first to a SWPC office (in Baltimore, Washington or Philadelphia), where their discharge papers and requests are cleared.

Then they submit a specific list of items desired, and SWPC learns from the depot whether the materials are in stock, the quantity available, and approximate condition of the goods. The request may be for a single item only.
