

The Social Wanderer

Dear Reader:

With the passing of Holy Week today and the ever glorious Easter Day on the morrow our thoughts and actions turn to a brighter trend. Nothing of any social importance has transpired this week, naturally, and I have only news of future gaieties to relate aside from guests in town or those of us who will be visitors elsewhere.

As the time draweth nigh to Easter Monday night, more and more does the anticipation of and excitement over the Price Ewings' party increase. We hear everywhere that it is to be a grand affair and I'm certainly hoping that I won't break a leg or come down with measles or else in the meantime. So, I'll remember everything, and tell you about it when I see you. Our calendars are just filling up with engagements though, for on April 25th is the Easter dance at the Club, to be followed by card-parties on May 1st, 8th and 15th and Sunday afternoon teas on April 19th, May 3rd and 13th from 4 p. m. to 6 p. m. Isn't that a grand list of dates to jot down in your engagement book?

On Tuesday of next week, Mrs. James D. Bacchus will be the hostess at the April meeting of Our Garden Club which will take place at 2 o'clock. All of the members look forward to these monthly meetings which prove not merely to be a social pastime but have an instructive and constructive vein as well.

On Thursday and Friday evenings the play "Who's Wild?" under the auspices of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Hospital will draw large crowds. I'm hoping, and it should. Whether one enjoys amateur productions or not, the cause is certainly a worthy one, and should be attended by everyone who can possibly go.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hynson Rogers and Miss Harriett Louisa Rogers will spend the Easter week-end at the Ruxton home, outside of Baltimore, of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Webb. On Saturday, they will attend the point-to-point races at My Lady's Manor in the afternoon and Saturday evening the last of the Entre Nons dances at the Alcazar.

Mr. and Mrs. James Nicklin left on Thursday to spend Easter in Longport, N. J.

Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes will be hostess to a large family dinner on Easter Sunday in honor of her niece Miss Charlotte Partridge and her fiancé Mr. Olin. Miss Partridge is the daughter of Mrs. Daniel Partridge, of Washington, and the late Mr. Daniel Partridge. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Atherton, of Philadelphia came yesterday to spend the Easter holidays with Mrs. Atherton's mother and will be here for the dinner Sunday. Other out-of-town guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Partridge, III, of Alexandria, Va.

Easter is almost as much a home coming time as Christmas. Among the University and College young men here include Scott Beck, Jr., Lewin Wickes, Charles Chester Atwater, John Truslow, James Anthony and Gilbert Ingersoll. Of course lots were home for a Spring Vacation a few weeks ago, and as a result get no Easter vacation.

Other home-comers, are Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown, who came Thursday to remain over Easter with Mr. and Mrs. James G. Beck, Miss Alice Dole, visiting her mother, Dr. Esther M. Dole, and Miss Fredrica Metcalfe visiting her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Brown etc. etc.

Mrs. Edward Robinson and Mrs. Ramie Zeissel who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Seigenfuss at their home in Dumont, N. J., have returned accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Seigenfuss who in turn will be their guests over the holiday.

Mrs. H. M. Ward, of Wilmington, Del., and Mrs. Luther Saltzger, of Marlow, New Hampshire, are guests of Miss Palmer Carroll, at her home on Washington Ave.

Mrs. A. W. Steiner, of Clarendon, Va., and Miss Shirley Fox, of University of Maryland, are guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Fox. Misses Helen and Anna Welch who closed their house at New Year's to visit their cousin in New Jersey, have returned and reopened their home. Their niece, Miss Harriette Welch, of N. Y., is home to greet them on her Easter vacation.

Guests at Piney Grove, the home of Capt. Ned and the Misses Emory include Mr. and Mrs. Bernado Braga, of Alpine, N. J., Miss Margaret Atkinson and Mr. Robert Atkinson of New York.

Mrs. Ralph Keller and son, Ralph, Jr., of Boston, Mass., are guests of Dr. and Mrs. F. B. Hines, Mrs. Keller and son came on Monday, and will remain over Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Miller have returned from their trip to California and spent last week end at their country estate, Hinchingham.

Mrs. Rudolph Tull and Mr. Harvey Tull, of Cynara came yesterday to spend the Easter holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines.

So now wishing you a most happy and joyful Easter.
Yours a-hunt the golden egg.
THE WANDERER.

DR. DOLE ADDRESSES CENTRE-VILLE CLUB

Dr. Esther Dole, head of the history department of Washington College, was the guest speaker at the Woman's Club at their monthly meeting held Wednesday afternoon of last week.

Dr. Dole's subject was "Imperialism, Past and Present." She outlined the reasons why countries want other lands, and want to govern other people, and the means and methods by which a country annexes other lands and territories, such as by purchase, exploration, conquest and economic penetration.

UNION LADIES AID MEETS

The Aid Society of Union M. E. Church, Rick Neck, was delightfully entertained on Wednesday evening, April 1st, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Leverage.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to around 50 guests. An invitation was extended the Aid to meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Turner in May, at which time a "covered dish luncheon" will be held.
