

The Social Wanderer

Dear Reader,

Another holiday gone and how long it seems from Christmas till Easter. But from Easter till the celebrating of the Declaration of Independence by these United States of ours, will more than likely be a rapid succession of pleasant days. There's just Summer and I doubt if any of us will find time hanging heavy on our hands from now on.

True to forecast, the Ewing's party came off with a bang, and everyone had a perfectly swell time. It just couldn't have been any more fun. Among the out-of-town guests who were visiting here for Easter, and who remained over for the dance included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shaughnessy, of Emmitsburg, Md., who spent the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kratzer; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schaffer and their attractive daughter, of Westfield, New Jersey, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Simon Westcott; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, of Lansdowne, Pa., who came Monday, and remained over night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Metcalfe. Mr. and Mrs. Metcalfe entertained at a small party before the dance.

Since last writing to you, I have learned of still more holiday guests who were with us over Easter, so I mention them now, due to lack of knowledge of their arrivals last week:

Miss Virginia Jones, of Baltimore, a guest of Dr. and Mrs. J. S. W. Jones; Mrs. J. H. Clendaniel, Jr. and sons, Jack and Bill, of Towson, Md., guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Nicholson; Miss Cora Moffett, of Baltimore, guest of Mr. Robert Moffett, her father; Mr. and Mrs. Irving Sparks and daughter, of Baltimore, guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sparks; Mrs. Delma Draper and son, Mr. Tom Dyck, of Baltimore, guests of Mrs. Belle P. Smith; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilkison, of Baltimore, guests of Mr. John W. Barnes; Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Simpson, of Washington, D. C., guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Cooper; and Mrs. Willis Goodfellow and son, Harold, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dell Henderson.

Miss Minnie Day, of Washington, is the guest of Miss Minnie Massey at her home on Maple Avenue.

Now for those who spent Easter away from here, were: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Strong and daughter, Helen, who visited Mrs. Strong's parents in Harrisonburg, Va., and Mr. and Mrs. David Ford who were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Louis Whiting in Baltimore; Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Wright and daughter Rosemary visited Dr. and Mrs. Ray Bawter, in Hyattsville, Maryland. They also visited in Washington where they attended the egg rolling at the White House. They were accompanied home by Dr. Wright's mother, Mrs. James Wright of Baltimore.

On Monday, quite a little party left for Baltimore and remained over night attending while there are President's speech and the dance at the Fifth Regiment Armory. Among those who attended include Ex-Senator S. Scott Beck, Mr. William B. Usilton, Mr. and Mrs. Margaret Jefferson and Mr. Wilbur Ross Hubbard.

Mrs. Walter Harris gave a very interesting talk on Artistic Arrangement of Flowers at the meeting of "Our Garden Club," held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James D. Bacchus. Following the talk, the ladies were invited to a delicious repast and to a view of Mrs. Bacchus's lovely gardens on the water front.

Last Saturday evening, Miss Miriam Newcomb has hostess to a number of young friends at an informal dance given at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Newcomb.

On Wednesday afternoon quite a few ladies from town motored over to "My Lord's Gift Manor," Queen Anne's County, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Marsalis and heard an interesting talk on rose culture given by Mr. Pyle.

On Friday, Mrs. Herbert Skipper entertained a number of friends at luncheon-bridge at her home on Queen St.

Miss Alice Craikshank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Craikshank, has selected Saturday, April 25th as her wedding date when she will become the bride of Mr. Marvin V. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Williams. The ceremony will take place at the rectory of St. Dennis Church, Galena, with the Rev. John Walsh officiating. Only the immediate family and close friends will be present at

Returned the Bond

The maiden lady, very proud of her cooking, had occasion to send a boy on an errand. On his return she rewarded him with a piece of her home-made shortcake smeared liberally with jam.

The boy returned a few minutes later, and to the old maid's surprise said: "Here's your bit of board back!" —Tit-Bits Magazine.

Not Too Loud
Mother—David, what did you buy those red earrings for?
David—I bought them to give to Aunt Minnie for her birthday.
Mother—Don't you think they're pretty loud for Aunt Minnie?
David—Oh, no. She's deaf, you know.—Pathfinder Magazine.

the wedding and the reception following, at the home of the bride's parents. Tomorrow, Sunday, the first of the Sunday afternoon teas from 4 to 6 P. M. will be held at the Country Club. All members and their guests are cordially invited to be present. These teas are always delightful, and it is hoped that a good crowd will be present to usher in the first of the Spring entertainments at the club. Mrs. James G. Metcalfe and Mrs. W. Dorsey Hines will be joint hostesses.

Hoping to see you,
Yours for a cup of tea,
The Wanderer
