

The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

One of the Spring accessories, besides house cleaning, is moving. Always, at this time of the year we hear of two or more, at least, changes of residences, and this week I have jotted down three who are about undergirding their undertakings. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Thomas have bought the Jim Beck's home on Maple Ave. and will move shortly, if not already, by the time this reaches you. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Massey will follow the act soon thereafter when they will move to the lovely old red brick house on the County Club road which they have just bought, formerly owned by Mrs. Spranklin, and known as Radcliffe Manor. The third change occurs when Mr. and Mrs. Massey Hines will move into the former Strong home on Queen St., in a very short while, so if you see them of furniture going here and there in the next few days, you'll know what it is all about.

Guests in town recently have been comparatively few. However, I have a couple of memos on my pad. Mr. and Mrs. Maurice G. Wilkins and son were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Thomas. Mr. White Relief Administrative Assistant and Board of State Aid and Charities.

Miss Grace Nickerson, of Baltimore, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Nickerson, over the week end, and Miss Lucie J. Frazier, of Washington, was a guest of friends here. Mrs. Karl Melamet has returned from a visit to Baltimore where she was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schmidt at their home in Mt. Washington. She was joined over the week end, by her son, Master Karl Melamet.

Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead spent last week end in Washington and while there visited Mr. and Mrs. John Mead. Mrs. John Mead returned with them to Chestertown on Sunday, remaining here until Wednesday.

Mrs. Lewin Wickes spent last week end in Annapolis, and while there witnessed a performance given by the Dramatic Club of St. John's College in which her son, Lewin had one of the leading roles. Afterwards, she attended a reception given to members of the cast.

CHAIN STORES AIDING PEACH GROWERS

More than forty companies operating 33,000 chain grocery stores in forty-eight states and the District of Columbia are united today in a nationwide movement to dispose of the surplus pack of California canned peaches within the next month, at the request of The California Canning Peach Stabilization Committee.

Responding to an appeal from California peach growers to assist in stabilizing their industry, chain grocery stores of the country have joined to stage four "California Canned Peach Events" to focus housewives' attention on the food values of canned peaches. The dates for the peach sales are the weeks beginning April 13, April 27, May 11 and May 25.

This large scale experiment in cooperative marketing of agricultural products through mass distribution is unique. It is the first time in history that the disposition of an entire crop surplus on a direct line producer-to-consumer basis has been attempted. The idea originated with the growers, rather than the canners, when it became apparent that the demand for the 1936 peach crop would be affected seriously unless the 1935 pack were sold. But while the campaign was launched, primarily, to benefit the peach grower, it gives promise of being highly beneficial to other agricultural and business interests as well as the ultimate consumer.

PREAKNESS QUEEN TO BE HERE MAY 6

In the interest of encouraging tourists to tour the State on their visit here to witness the Preakness at Pimlico on May 16th, the Baltimore Association of Commerce has arranged a tour of the State by the Preakness Queen together with her Court and Chestertown has been selected as one of two places on the shore where they will stop.

They will be accompanied by Mayor Jackson and a staff of newspaper correspondents. Mr. A. S. Turner, Jr., has been named chairman of the reception committee and will arrange for a visit to the outstanding places of interest here and a luncheon.

Literature is being broadcast all over the Eastern part of the United States in an effort to make the Preakness one of the outstanding events of the year in the State and the visit to Chestertown will include this town in the publicity. There will be approximately fifteen persons in the Queen's party.

CONTRARY
A curious boy watching a car being loaded at the station later inquired: "Why do they call it a shipment if it goes in a car and a cargo when it goes in a ship?"

Dog Taxes Must Be Paid At Once

All persons who own or keep a dog in Kent county must pay a dog license for same. These taxes are past due.

If you have not paid your dog license this is to warn you to do so. If not paid the owner will be arrested and fined.

It is much better to pay the license than to have to pay costs of arrest and fine. See your dog constable and pay your license on or before May 1st.

KENT CO. COMMISSIONERS
Marian C. Price, Clerk.

Mrs. Harrison Cooke, of Elizabeth, N. J., accompanied by her father, Mr. Thomas W. Perkins, of Baltimore, will spend the week end at the guests of Mrs. A. T. H. Harper.

Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead, Dr. and Mrs. J. S. W. Jones, Dr. Robinson and Miss Louise B. Russell attended the annual dance and card party of the Washington Alumni Chapter of Washington College in the Capital City last Friday evening.

Professor Robert Pippin, of Severn School, is the guest of friends here over the week end.

Miss Alice Cruikshank, whose wedding to Mr. Marvin V. Williams takes place today, was the guest of honor on Monday evening at a bridge party and miscellaneous shower given by her sorority, the Kappa Gamma, at the home of Mrs. J. Thomas Kibler. On Wednesday evening, Mrs. Raymond Humphreys and Mrs. Browne M. Roe entertained in Miss Cruikshank's honor at a buffet supper given at Mrs. Humphreys' apartment in the Riverside Apartments.

Mrs. H. Stockton Startt who has been ill with pneumonia at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital for the past few weeks is getting along very nicely. We are glad to say, and soon will be able to return to her home.

Word has been received this week that Frank B. Hines, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines, who has had a position with the DuPont Company in Old Hickory, Tenn., will be transferred to Buenos Aires in the Argentine in August. This is quite a promotion and we congratulate him highly. He will spend about a month here in the late summer before leaving for South America.

The dance at the Chester River Country Club tonight for members and their guests is waxing in enthusiasm with the prospects of a fine orchestra from Baltimore, and maybe a surprise or two during the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, of Lansdowne, Pa., will open up their summer home, Fox Point, for the week end, bringing with them their friends who frequently visit here in the summer, the Haven and the Hoovens.

And here the week's news ends, so with a fond fare ye-well.

Yours for a dance,
THE WANDERER.

Word has been received this week that Frank B. Hines, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Twenty lambs and three sheep disappeared one night last week from the farm tenanted by Mr. Raymond Long. The owner suspected the thief and without mentioning any names let it be generally known that he had good grounds for his suspicion.

A few days later while working in a field the mothers of the lambs started racing across the field toward a branch and Mr. Long followed. The ewes led him direct to seventeen of the lambs huddled together. Time was called out for a general feast after which all went home in perfect contentment. Tracks through the branch pointed to the fact that Mr. Long's suspicions were well founded and the lambs were returned.

If lambs could talk it would have made a more interesting story but like the sheeps of Little Bo Peep, they left their (tales) behind them.
