

The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer,

There seems to have been a lot to do this week and yet, when I glance at my notes and start to write, I wonder what it's all been about. We seem to go on and on, but when someone stops to ask you "What is going on?" or "What have you been doing?", have you realized how hard it is to say enough to hold their interest very long? I'll go one better, it's harder to write it.

Of course, the luncheon at Chester River Yacht and Country Club and reception at the college for the Peasack Queen, her court and other officials, was the outstanding event of the week. No doubt, you've read much about it, but it was all a very delightful occasion and greatly enjoyed by those who attended. Mrs. Wallace Lanahan, a most gracious queen, was attired in a smart blue suit, with a hat of blue trimmed in white and small veil. Our Duchess, Mrs. W. B. Usilton, 3rd, wore a trim gray tweed suit and gray felt hat matching. The Country Club never looked prettier, the red tables set with white lace doilies, decorated with silver bowls of red tulips and bridal wreath, gave a festive air to the occasion.

Every year, people are becoming more and more garden conscious, and this week, as you know, has been proclaimed Maryland Garden Week. All over the State, in order to celebrate, pilgrimages have been made to historic homes and gardens. On Thursday, Miss Helen Schellinger, took a large party of ladies throughout the County where old homes and gardens were given inspection and interest.

"Our Garden Club" will hold its May meeting on Tuesday, May 12, at which Mrs. Clarke Grieb will be the hostess. The second of the series of card parties was held last night at the Country Club, boasting of even a larger number present than the Friday evening previous. Do keep the next Friday night open in your date book for the third and last of the series.

The large yacht, Invader IV, belonging to Mr. Jack Harrison anchored near the bridge most of the time, makes us constantly feel very nautical. Tuesday evening, Mr. Harrison entertained friends aboard at dinner. His guests from town including Mayor and Mrs. Philip G. Wilmer.

Mrs. William T. Dixon, who has been spending the winter in Savannah returned to Chestertown last Sunday, and has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Morris K. Barroll at their home Byford Court. Mrs. Dixon is preparing to open her summer home, Green Point, and will return here, having left for Savannah again on Wednesday, May 25th accompanied by her daughter.

The official Board of the M. E. Church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Hadaway, Monday evening, May 4th with a good number present. Plans were laid for the coming year. Mrs. R. P. Williams was elected Secretary and Mrs. George Patrick, press correspondent.

A mothers day program will be held at the church next Sunday afternoon. Everybody welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Hadaway and Mrs. Ethel Cooper spent last Thursday in Wilmington.

Miss Josie Dixon, Miss Bessie Dixon, another daughter, will spend the summer abroad.

Mrs. Richard Collins, Sr., left yesterday for a trip to Mount Hope, West Virginia where she will visit her son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Collins for about three weeks or more.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown will be guests of Mrs. H. Clay Brown this week end. Returning on Sunday to their home in Overbrook, Pa., they will be accompanied by Mrs. Jas. G. Beck who will remain away until Wednesday. On that day, quite a few ladies from here will motor to Philadelphia, to attend a luncheon given by Mrs. Edward W. Elliott which will be held at the Aromatik Country Club. Mrs. Elliott is a frequent visitor here of Mrs. Scott Beck.

On Thursday, Mrs. L. M. DeMeritt, of Baltimore, will come to visit Mrs. H. Clay Brown. As always, Mrs. DeMeritt's visits are responsible for a great many parties, she being one of our most popular out of town guests.

On Sunday Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines will leave for Old Hickory, Tenn., where they will visit their son, Frank B. Hines, Jr.

And were you concerned in me, I might say I'll be resting over the week end, but that in itself lacks interest, for I'm Yours with spring fever.

THE WANDERER.

The 1936 edition of the DRAGON has at last been completed to the last written page and is now awaiting the set-ups to be done by the printer. The year book always requires much work and time of the staff's and from the present looks on all their faces, I take it that they are happy to see its completion.

We are glad to congratulate Anna Hadaway upon winning the essay contest conducted by the W. C. T. U. on "Why We Should Not Drink." Anna won the first prize of $3.00 and Kemp Bordley placed second, winning $2.00. Another from Chestertown High who submitted a high paper was Doris Savington.

The last meeting of the Press Club was very important in that it presented the candidates to be voted upon by the members for the award of Press Club Pins. Each year a nominating committee composed of the President, the Editor of the TRANSCRIPT, Miss Riches, and a person elected at large (Dora Patrick was elected this year) select six to eight people in the club who they think have done most for the organization. This may be in the way of writing, helping, discussing, and generally taking part in meetings. The week after the names are put before the club, the voting takes place, with four being elected by secret ballot. Last Monday Owen Anderson, Charlotte Russell, Ralph Thornton, Miriam Newcomb, Paul Poetzsch, Gerson Bonnett, Wayne Pote, and myself were the eight picked by the committee to be worthy of a pin. Next week, I'll tell you the four that were chosen for this honor.

The date of commencement, which was originally scheduled for June 12th has been tentatively changed to the earlier date of June 10th. This revision has been due to the fact that the State meet in Baltimore begins the twelfth. Most of the other events occurring in June week will consequently be a little before the date originally set.

As a member of the school, I am happy to introduce two new members of the Senior Class who have just enrolled in C. H. S. They are Hilda Belle Fields who comes from Easton, and Jacelyn Branthorn from New Rochell, N. Y.

The typists for the next year's REceptor have recently been appointed by Miss Riches by recommendation of Mr. Martin, the commercial teacher. They are Martha Wessell and Merritt Robinson, who have already proven themselves very efficient typists.

The nominations for President of the Press Club for the next school year and the Secretary for the same time were made. Of the former, Gerson Bonnett, Catherine Newton, Louis Anthony, Ruth McVean and Nina Ford, are running. The nominees for Secretary were Betty Beck, Kitty Bringham, Estelle Beaver, Mary Lan Russell and Jeanette Sutton, and as time permitted, the elections for this office were held. Kitty Bringham won by a large majority and her efficient work will more than fill the position.
