

San Francisco, May 14th—Success of the nation-wide canned California peach sales drive was assured today, as the third week in the unique experiment in marketing surplus crops through the cooperation of 34,000 chain grocery stores removed the threat of a disastrously glutted market to peach growers of the Golden State.

A phenomenal increase in canned peach sales throughout the country, in one instance as high as 706 per cent, was shown by figures released by the California Canning Peach Stabilization Committee, organized by leading growers in March to stimulate the consumption of the product.

A substantial reduction already has been made in the surplus pack of last year's California peach crop, although sales reports from the principal chain store organizations, which went to the aid of the growers at their request, cover only the first week of the campaign.

H. C. Merritt, Jr., chairman of the stabilization committee, in expressing gratification over the results of the drive to date, pointed out that in merchandising efforts of this nature sales gather momentum and said he expected the figures for the first week would be exceeded by later returns. The fourth and final 'California Canned Peach Events' begins May 25th.

'It is apparent from the figures furnished the committee by the chain stores,' said Merritt, that these retailers have brought the thought of canned peaches before more people during a single period than ever before in the history of the industry.

'Other chain organizations have reported equally encouraging increases. Newspaper advertising in considerable volume, store displays, peach recipes and emphasis by employees of chain stores in the food value of canned peaches, have combined to make this a merchandising campaign of unprecedented proportions.

'The showing to date has convinced our committee that these measures will make the campaign a success and that when the last of the 'California Canned Peach Events' begins May 25th.

AT THE MOVIES NEXT WEEK

FLORIDA SPECIAL

Comedy, melodrama and romance are mixed lavishly in 'Florida Special' newest contribution from the Paramount Studios, which comes on Monday, and Tuesday, May 25, and 26 to the New Lyceum Theatre, with Jack Oakie and Sally Eilers in the leading roles.

Oakie plays the role of a devil-may-care newspaper reporter. Shaghaied by Kent Taylor, wealthy playboy accompanying on a train bound for the sunny South, he is forced to desert his newspaper to accompany the youth, who thinks his heart is broken by a blighted romance. On the trip, Oakie accidentally runs into a sensational story that proves the scoop of the year for his newspaper.

On board the Florida flyer are an eccentric millionaire, his crooked secretary, and his niece. Chained to the secretary is a box of uncut diamonds worth a vast fortune which are wealthy man is taking both with him.

Rival gangs of crooks learn of the splendid haul possible on the train and they board it, murder the secretary, and are preparing to fly away with the niece when Oakie prevents them from carrying out the act. He is not soon enough to prevent the jewels from being stolen, however, and they disappear.

The million dollars worth of gems are turned up only to disappear again; the millionaire vanishes, and in the general consternation a romance is developed that proves a life-saver for the young playboy, who turns detective to save the reputation of the train's hostess, accused of complicity in the plot to steal the diamonds.

FOR THOSE WHO REMAIN

When death visits a home, the first concern is to perform the last service to the loved one in a becoming manner. What ever is done must express all the reverence and affection that is felt at such a time. But in addition to this a further responsibility rests upon the funeral director. It is his privilege and duty to lessen as far as lies with in his power, the burdens laid upon those who remain. By countless little acts of thoughtfulness he can make the way easier for them.

We consider this part of our work as important as any other. Our highest aim is to have our patrons look upon us as trusted friends, ready and anxious to render sympathetic assistance to those who remain behind.

hates frightening people and retains an eye for feminine beauty. Donat also plays Donald Glurie, the young heir to the haunted castle, who sells it to an American millionaire named Martin, who has the edifice razed and transported to America stone by stone. Stewart, Wendy Barrie, Una Merkel, Unknown of Donald, the ghost goes along.

A series of side-splitting situations develops when the ghost turns up on the transatlantic liner and all his antics are credited to Donat, whom he closely resembles. The film reaches a surprise comedy climax at the re-uptis which Martin holds in the restored and modernized castle to publicize his line of Martin's Fine Foods, and introduce the ghost to the press.

The love interest is provided by the romance which develops between Donat and Martin's pretty daughter, Peggy, played by Jean Parker, Eugene Pallette plays Martin.

'The Ghost Goes West' is released through United Artists.

Appropriately titled 'Speed,' the picture which comes to the New Lyceum Theatre on Friday and Saturday, May 29 and 30, effectively mirrors the breakneck pace of the modern generation.

Produced by Lucien Hubbard for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, 'Speed' was directed by Edwin L. Marin, with James Stewart, Wendy Barrie, Una Merkel, Weldon Heyburn, Ted Healy, Ralph Morgan and Patricia Wilder.

The story by Lawrence Bachman and Milton Krims, definitely captures the tense atmosphere of a typical American automobile plant, at a moment when highly important experiments promise the failure or success of the product.

It is an unusual scene and an extraordinary narrative. The direction is distinguished and the cast presents a striking portrayal of an interesting group in the modern American scene.

Miss Barrie as the daughter of an executive working incognito in the publicity department of the company, provides the romantic interest. James Stewart, in the role of the daredevil test driver who loves her, gives the finest performance of his promising career.
