The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

Summer officially enters, and tomorrow is by all scientiests proclaimed the longest day of the year. So now you can shed your woolies if you haven't already, look over your bathing suits and see if Mr. Moth has wrecked them or not, polish and clean the golf clubs, get the boats in perfect working shape, put the fishing tackle in first class order, and be not slow in action, for this season has wings as no other. Make the most of every minute. For the less energetic in the sports line, this is the time to get hold of all those good books you've been wanting to read all winter, and spend these lazy afternoons in far away lands, or solving a detective mystery, or weeping until the heroine finds her true hero.

So far, I have said nothing of the prominence of entertaining in this season, but for one who tries to give you a bit of interesting news each week, this is a joyous season for me, for from now on, until days grow cold, I am pretty well stocked up.

First of all, in case you haven't guessed or heard, here is the prophesied engagement. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Downs Wilson, of Lansdowne, Pa., are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Margaret Bradley Wilson and Mr. Charles Raymond Humphreys, of Wilmington, Del., son of Mrs. Charles Raymond Humphreys, of Chestertown, Md. There now, that's that. "Peggy and Bus," as they are known to their friends, are planning their wedding for October, but other than that, I can tell you no more at this time. Mrs. Humphreys entertained at a buffett supper last Sunday evening the bride-elect and her family, and members of the groom to-be's family.

Another dinner-party given over last week end was one by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Emory on Saturday evening, at their lovely old home on Lankford Bay.

While I am on the subject of dinner parties I might as well finish them all up here. On Thursday evening, Mrs. H. Clay Brown entertained at a small dinner. Her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Hiram S. Brown.

Col. H. Staunton Brown is entertaining a number of friends to-night at dinner in honor of his mother, Mrs. Hiram S. Brown. Whether the dinner will be indoors or of a picnic nature wi nthe lovely woods overlooking the river has not been determined in view of weather conditions.

To-morrow, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Tull and Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines are entertaining a large number of friends at noon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hines, Riverside.

The younger set, however, come in for a paragraph or two, right here, for they are having a very gay time, almost equal to any debutante. On Wednesday, Emily Hamilton, who is visiting Mrs. C. Beck Jones for the summer, entertained at a swimming party, followed by a picnic supper. On Friday evening, Frances Kreeger, gave a dance for a number of boys and girls at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Kreegr. Mary Jean Strong will entertain at a luncheon. next Wednesday, to be followed by a dance in the evening given by Marian Thomas. These last three parties are in honor of Eleaonr Beachley, who will leave with her parents, July 1st for Abington, Va., where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shaunghessy, of Emmittsburg, Md., are guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kratzer. Mrs. Shaunghessy will spend the summer here, while her husband will visit for the week-nds.

Mrs. Henry Kratzer and Mrs. Charles Shaughnessy will entertain next Wednesday at a luncheon bridge party.

Mrs. Karl Melamet and son ,Karl, left on Monday for Charlottesville, Va., where they are guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Cash. Mrs. Cash is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Melamet's.

Mr. William Baker who is taking a post-graduate course at Princeton, is spending the summer with his parents Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Baker in Quaker Neck.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas and family, of Hartford, Connecticut, are spending this week-end at Centreville and will probably be in the vicinity of Chestertown for a large part of the summer.

Prof. Blackiston Wroth, of Georgia, is spending his summer vacation with his mother, Mrs. Thomas Wroth. Mrs. Wroth received congratulations on her 80th birthday on Monday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Chapman, 3rd, of Sandy Point, Maine, has been visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank V. Simpers. Vannort Simpers, her brother, will return with them to Maine, to-day, for a visit.

Mrs. William T. Dixon and family are spending this week-end at Atlantic City where they are enjoying a family re-union.

Mrs. E. Waldron, of Baltimore, formerly Mss Bertie Constable, of Chestertown, is spendng some time at the Misses Welch's home on Maple Ave.

Mrs. Wilbur Gill, her son, Wilbur, and Miss Bascob, of Indiana, were guests of Mrs. Gill's sister, Mrs. Hynson Rogers, and Mr. Rogers over last week-end.

Mr. James Collins, of Denton, is the guest of his son, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Collins.

Miss Mary Scott, of Baltimore, was the week-end guest of Mrs. Rosa A. Howard.

Mrs. Jane Chaires, of Oakland, and Mrs. Mary Pellett, of New York, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hayward Kennard for several days.

Mr. Earl Willis, who is teaching at Oakland, is spending the summer at home with his parents.

Mr. Paul Pippin, who taught last winter at Randolph Maon, is planning to spend the summer abroad.

Mrs. Whithier Copper, Mrs. Virgil Kendall, and Miss Mary Trew attended the wedding of their nephew, Mr. Joseph S. Trew, Jr., in Newark, N. J.

Mr. William R. Maul received congratulations on his 89th birthday on Wednesday Many more, Mr. Maul.

Dr. and Mrs. Lewis B. Whitting, of Baltimore, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter born at St. Agnes Hospital, on June 13th. Mrs. Whitting was Miss Katherine Ford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David B. Ford of Chestertown.

Soon the camp exodus begins, and among those boys and girls who expect to leave us about the 1st of July include Jimmy Metcalfe and Jack Kibler who will go up to Camp Red Cloud in New York State; Betty Beck, who will go to one in the mountains of North Carolina, where, incidentally, Miss Lucille Rasin will be a counsellor again this summer, and Mary Jean Strong who will go to another camp in that state.

Now here's some good news for the young crowd of boys and girls and I'm going to ask them,as well as their parents, to read the explanation with care. I have just been informd that the delightful Cinderella Dances of last summer will be given again this year. This idea of subscription dances has proven so popular in Baltimore and other cities for many years and I hope the young people here are going to take advantage of this form of entertainment not only for themselves but their guests during the summer. The committee in charge consists of: Mrs. W. Clarke Grieb, Mrs. H. Norris Harrison, Centreville, Mrs. J. Browne Metcalfe, Mrs. C. Haydon Metcalfe, Sudlersville, Mrs. Howard Wood, Jr., Centreville.

These ladies, who have rented the Chester River Yacht and Country Club for the dances have made up a list of young people from which, no one has knowingly been excluded unless by their own action or lack of response last year—or because they are beyond the age limts decided upon. The subscription price is four dollars for the 5 dances and in view of this, they are not allowing residents to attend one or two dances only, but must subscribe to the whole series. Every person to whom an invitation to subscribe is sent, pays the same amount.

Anyone who receives an invitation and not subscribing is not eligible to come either by paying him (or her) self or as the guest of a subscriber.

If there are families where one member is away and should want to come, the committee decided that he would count as an out of town house guest and pay 1 dollar for each dance he or she attends, which leaves it to him whether he pays $4 for a full subscription or $5 in case he gets to every dance.

The idea of asking the girls to subscribe as well as the boys is with no thought of placing them in an embarassing position, rather, that it makes them independent. First, they can come alone, knowing that they have far more boys than girls on the list and that they are not obligated to any one boy. Second, they can ask several of the other subscribers to dine and go in a group, thus entertaining easily and inexpensively, since the dance is all paid for by each guest beforehand. It is also a very nice and quick way to have your out-of-town house guests meet your friends.

I hope I have made this clear and further information may be received by any of the committee above named.

Next week, I will not be with you, but I will be back in time to wish you a bang-up 4th of July.

Yours on vacation.

THE WANDERER.
