WINS 2 GAMES FROM KENNEDYVILLE

Victories Over Week End Give Locals Series

Chestertown won a pair of games from Kennedyville over the week end to take the three-game series from their upper county rivals, two games to one. Behind the seven hit pitching of Bill Loller, Chestertown won the Fourth of July game, 6-5, and romped to an 8-2 victory, with Cornell on the mound, on Sunday.

The lineup and summary of the two games:

HOLD ROUND-THE-WORLD TELEPHONE CONSERVATION

TWO MEN IN NEW YORK CONVERSE OVER 23,000 MILES

The first compite telephone call to circle the globe 23,000 miles in length was made over 19,3000 miles of radio channel interlinked with 3,700 miles of wire. This employed practically every type of circuit known to telephone engineers underground and aerial cable, open wire, carrier, radio and submarine cable.

Walter S. Gifford, president, and T. G. Miller, vice president, the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, talked from two different rooms in the long distance building of the company in New York, pril 25, 1935. This round the world conversation was made possible by the A. T. & T. Company engineers in cooperation with engineers of the British Post Office and the Netherlands Telephone Administration.
