The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

Mid July, and the old thermom still doing curly-ques around the 100 mark. Too hot in fact to go in for writing fan mail or any other kind of letters, but what's that old saying about duty calls? Well, don't expect any epistle, but the same brief note as of last week will have to suffice. It does seem like the irony of fate that when it's cool enough to sit down and have a friendly chat, news is so scarce, and when summer is here and I could dig out some, it's too hot for the exertion..

The Bob Thomas's and their guests have been much entertained during the past week, starting with a little affair given by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Thomas last Sunday afternoon. Then on Tuesday, Mrs.. Will Beck and her sister, Miss Elise Beck, of St. Louis came, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Thomas entertained for them in the late afternoon of that day. On Wednesday, Mrs. Phil G. Wilmer entertained them at luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Beck at supper in the evening, and Mrs. Thos. Kibler at luncheon on Thursday.

Miss Madeline Baxter spent last week visiting in Philadelphia, Pocono Mountains and the Delaware Water Gap.

But now the hour is mid-night, and the little bugs around my lamp are so thick, that I can see no more, and the arms of Morpheus call.

Yours dreaming,
THE WANDERER.

BALTIMORE TEAM IS WINNER

Chestertown lost a 6-4 decision to the Apache Athletic Club of Baltimore on the local diamond Sunday. The Apache outfit substituted for the Dickey A. C., originally scheduled as opponents of the local nine.

The contest was a benefit for Buck Hickman, Chestertown third sacker, who recently underwent an appendicitis operation. The crowd was small, however, the management feels because of the extreme heat.
