DID YOU KNOW?

BY C. COX HOPPER

That hanging in the gallery of the Maryland Historical Society, Baltimore, is a fire place panel which should be of peculiar interest to every Kent Countian.

The panel was taken from Spencer Hall, near Rock Hall, the old home of Richard Spencer, Esq., the place where ships were built and formerly known as the ship yard.

The panel is painted in oils, is in a fair state of preservation, and represents the harbor of the then New Yarmouth, the original County seat of Kent County, but later designated as Grey's Inn.

A numerous fleet of ships are at anchor and, though the date of the painting is not definitely known, the fact that every vessel carries the English, or British flag discloses the fact that the date was prior to the Revolutionary war. The panel which is 7 feet long b y20 inches wide was taken from above the mantel of the dining room of 'Spencer Hall' at the suggestion of the late lamented Rev. C. T. Denroche, Rector at the time of old St. Pauls Church, Kent County, Maryland, and placed in the Maryland Historical Society. The donor was Mr. James P. Wickes.

TAKES TRIP TO FLORIDA
