The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

My friend replied, 'amazed at so much activity,' and 'was it an unusual week?' Now between you and me, we know that they are not all that gay, for many a week in those odd months here and there, have you been very kind and patient while I talk of the weather, chew the end of my pencil scratch my head and stare into space, wondering just what to write about. But on the whole, we keep going, pretty well, I'd say, and so I agreed to send her the paper, and let her read my letter to you each week.

If you have any out-of-town friends who are interested in our news, why not call me up, and give me their names? Your birthday, or Christmas gift problem is all solved.

The Junior Dance was a huge success, I'm told, in fact, so much so, that the young blood of the community is promised another one, soon after the Regatta, which is drawing closer and closer. A week from to-day, it will be in full swing. Speaking of regattas, a crowd from here will journey or have journeyed, sailed or motored to the Miles River affair at St. Michael's.

But to continue, where I became side-tracked on nautical doings, the younger set on Sunday were entertained in numbers and in goodly fashion by the Moyer boys, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Tilghman Moyer, at their parents' summer home, down on the Chester, by a swimming party and picnic supper. With such a moon as was last Sunday night, and at the delightful age as they are, I'm sure many a heart pounded a little faster with such a romantic setting.

Misses Grace and Jenne Wilkins entertained at the third and last of a series of delightful luncheon-bridge parties at their home, the Maples, on Wednesday.

Miss Vrginia Jones, who will spend the remainder of August in Chestertown, will return on Monday from a week's visit to New York. On Wednesday, Miss Jones will entertain at luncheon-bridge in honor of Mrs. Stanley Giraitis, of Jacksonville, Fla., who with Mr. Giraitis, is spending two weeks here.

Miss Mary Louise Dicken, of Pittsburgh, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines. On Thursday, Mrs. Hines entertained at bridge followed by a swimming party in honor of her guest.

Mr. James Bacchus will entertain what is known as the 'bridge crowd' at dinner this evening, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bacchus.

Miss Elizabeth Brown left on Wednesday for a week's visit to the Pocono Lake Reserve, where she will visit Miss Ellen Adair, at her cottage there. During her absence, Mrs. H. Clay Brown has as her house guests, Mrs. J. E. Gilpin and Mrs. Frank Poe, of Baltimore.

Mr. Clarke Fontaine left on Monday for Ocean City, Md., where he will remain throughout the month of August.

Mrs. James G. Metcalfe and Mrs. Browne Metcalfe with their young daughters will leave Monday for Rehobeth, Del., where they will occupy the cottage of Mrs. C. H. Metcalfe for a few days.

En route and on return from a visit to the lower shore, Mrs. Ben LeSeur, of Baltimore, but who formerly lived here a few years, was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan A. Harris are expected to return to-morrow from their tour of the West, and their visit in Los Angeles, Cal.

Mr. Thomas W. Perkins, of Baltimore, was the week-end guest at the home of Mrs. A. T. H. Harper.

Miss Elizabeth Bond, of Baltimore, joined her mother over last week-end, as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Eben F. Perkins. Mrs. Bond and Miss Bond returned to Baltimore, Sunday.

Mrs. Rebecca Patterson, of Baltimore, formerly Miss Evans, of Chestertown, was the guest last week end of Miss Anne Smith.

Mrs. Earle Burky, of Baltimore, was the guest of Mrs. Robert Thomas this week. Mrs. Thomas returned with Mrs. Burky to Baltimore on Wednesday, for a few days visit. Mr. Thomas returned to Hartford, Conn., last Sunday.

Mrs. James G. Beck will return today, from a week's visit to Washington, where she visited her aunt, Mrs. Harry B. Slaughter, known to many of us as 'Aunt Nettie.'

Mrs. J. R. Goodwin was the guest last week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Emory. On Monday, Mrs. S. Scott Beck entertained at luncheon for Mrs. Goodwin. On Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Emory drove their guest to Philadelphia, and remained there, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. John Colbourn. Later in the week, they returned bringing Mr. Emory's daughter, Mrs. Ellwood Houser and her two children, who will be their guests for while.

On Tuesday, the August meeting of 'Our Garden Club' will be held at the home of Mrs. John Speicher and Miss Mabel Toulson. On that occasion, a part of the meeting will be in the nature of a musicale when Miss Paca, noted soprano, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Paca, of Quaker Neck, will render several selections famous on her concert program.

Miss Ruth Gitt and Miss Estella Shaefer, of Baltimore, were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. L. Bates Russell, Jr.

Mrs. Clifton Rollison, Mr. George Pennington, Mrs. Howard Pennington, and Mrs. William Clayton, the latter from Chester, Pa., left on Sunday on a motor trip to Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gill and family, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Sewell and daughter, Miss Martha Crossley, Mrs. White and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Goss and children spent last week at Rehobeth, Del. Miss Dorothy Woodall and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Cooper are still enjoying the Beach.

Mr. Everett Sheats, of Baltimroe, is the guest of his mother, Mrs. James Sheats at the home of his sister, Mrs. Vernon Barnett.

Miss Eleanor Titsworth, of Passiac, N. J., has been the guest of Miss Cornelia Davis.

Mr. William Smith and daughter, of Louisville, Ky., are the guests of Mr. Smith's mother, Mrs. Belle Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Smith, of Baltimore, are the guests of their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Robinson have had a number of house guests from Baltimore for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Brown and daughter, Frances, have been visiting friends in Baltimore this week.

But now, I'm running over my space, and it's time for 'Lights Out,' so with best wishes for a happy week.

Yours for the Sardonyx,
THE WANDERER.

Dr. Francis W. Holden, of New York, is visiting friends at Kingston, on the Chester across the river from Chestertown.

Miss Myrtle Wilson and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Clarence Wilson is spending this week at Rehoboth, Del.

Mr. and Mrs. James S. Kreeger, Jr., are spending the week end with Dr. and Mrs. Howard Minnich, at Lititz, Pa. Mrs. Minnich was formerly Miss Margaret Anthony of Chestertown.

Among those spending the week end at the Regatta at St. Michaels are: Wm. S. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton, 3rd, Scott Beck, Jr., Irving Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Brown Roe.

SHORE DEMOCRATS TO MEET AUGUST 20

WILL OPEN CAMPAIGN FOR NATIONAL AND CONGRESSIONAL TICKET

Rival Democratc Factions on the Eastern Shore buried their hatchets this afternoon when plans were made here for a monster massmeeting to be held at Ocean City August 20 in the interest of the party's Presidential ticket and its Congressional candidates.

The meeting, which was held at the summer home of Senator George L. Radcliffe, chairman of the Roosevelt campaign in Maryland, was attended, among others, by Harding Tull and Wallace and Bert Quinn, leaders of opposing Somerset county factions. They promised Senator Radcliffe to work in harness' for the good of the party and the ticket, is was announced after the meeting.

Others who sat at the conference Senator Olin R. Higgins, Dorchester Harrngton, Thomas F. Johnson, State's attorney of Worcester County, representing the Young Democrats of the Eastern Shore, State Senator Milton L. Veasey, of Worcester county, State Senator Olin R. Higgins, Dorchester County, Hooper S. Miles, State Treasurer, Representative T. Alan Goldsborough and members of the State Central committees of Dorchester, Somerset, Wicomico and Worcester counties.

The Ocean City meeting is being sponsored by the State Central Committees of the nine Eastern Shore counties in cooperation with the Young Democratic Clubs of Maryland, the United Womens Democratic Club and all the local Democratic clubs on the Shore.

Senator Radcliffe is arranging to have one of the outstanding Democratice orators of the country address the meeting. He further states that he expects the meeting to be one of the largest of its kind ever held and it will be the formal opening gun of the Democratic campaign in Maryland. The meeting will be held at Ocean City but the exact place has not as yet been determined upon.

On the same day there will be a meeting of the editors of the Eastern Shore newspapers. At this meeting there will be discussion of the campaign and how the editors can help.

Senator Radcliffe says, 'I am delighted with the reports that have reached me from every section of the, shore. Factionalism has been set aside, old sores have been healed, party differences have been relegated to the rear and the Party on the shore is more harmonious than in decades. Everything is in fine shape.'

'Every Democratic leader on the shore knows that he must get out and fight, must work hard to roll up a big majority for the ticket. And, they have promised to do that very thing.'

Lady: 'You say your mother is ill today?'

Johnnie: 'Yessum, sumpin's the matter with her throat.'

Lady: 'Well, that's too bad. She was well when I visited her yesterday.'

Johnnie: 'Huh! It's your fault then. Ma said you always give her a pain in the neck.'—Clipped.
