WOMAN'S COLUMN

COLOR

Color has a great influence over children, therefore physicians are urging parents to have plenty of color in the nurseries and bedrooms of their offsprings. Yellows blue, green and orchid shades are always pleasing, and they shed a brightening influence around. Red, while it is bright and warm has not the same effect, and those who study child psychology say it is not so pleasant to have around so constantly.

There is another thing that has a pleasing effect, not only on children, but grown people as well and that is the sweet scent of flowers. To have a vase of fragrant flowers on ones desk has a most quietning effect on those who work there.

Perhaps in all the world there is nothing more pleasing than music. It calms even the savage breast of man and beast. In the old fable of the building of the walls of Troy it tells of Arion playing on his flute, while the stones one by one took their places being so influenced by the music until the famous wall was built.

THE ANTHEM LADY

At some point during thousands of U. S. Protestant church services every Sunday, the choir rises, renders an anthem. The words are usually from Scripture; the tune unpretentious—nothing so difficult as Bach or Handel. Majority of the anthems which plain church goers like, and which their choirs sing, come from the industrious pens of some 20 U. S. anthem-writers. Of these the most prolific is Mrs. Carrie Belle Adams. In Portland, Ore. last week Mrs. Adams sent off to her publishers four new anthens, baked a jelly cake, celebrated her 77th birthday.

Carrie Belle Wilson, daughter of a choir-leader, turned out her first anthem, He That Dwelleth in the Secret Place, at 16. She had already grown to love Allyn Groves Adams, 23-year-old bass in a Paris, Ill. church choir. They married when she was 21 and Mr. Adams went into the hominy business. In 1906 Carrie Belle Adams became associate editor of the Choir Herald, for which she was since written an article or an anthem every month, year in, year out. Her total out-put: 4,000 compositions. Mrs. Adams has made more money from high-school operettas and church cantatas than from anthems. Selling the latter outright, she got only $10 for her most popular one, Remember Now Thy Creator.

Though her unceasing outflow of tunes has made her the friend of all U. S. choir-leaders, Mrs. Adams does not drive herself. Tall bespectacled and dignified, she seats herself at her grand piano from 8 a. m. to 2 p. m. every day, says: 'I just write what I know I can write.' Words come to her from her unerring memory of Holy Writ. The anthems appear finally in a neat, vertical hand, a delight to music engravers. Her work done, Carrie Belle Adamas devotes herself to her large colections of cream pitchers and quilts.

It is a good thing to let a child's imagination have full play, but in the case of the little boy, who was imagining that he was a horse and ate poison ivy it s rather a dangerous experiment. Thanks to the skill of his physician the boy's life was saved. Poison ivy affects different people in different ways.

Some people are immune, even handling the plant without being inconvenienced at all which others are poisoned by simply passing the place where it is growing.

It s a beautiful graceful plant that twines its way up the trees and turns a brilliant red in the fall. So like the apolopsis that it is well to remember that poison ivy has only three leaves to each stem while the apolopsis has five of them.

Surely weather is no respecter of persons.

Last week when the King of England had a garden-party and they invited guests donned their finest clothes and their new shade hats, the rain came and spoiled the affair.

There were many that shed many tears at their disappointment, not being able to bow to the King.

TOMATOES STUFFED WITH KIDNEY BEANS

1 1-2 cups Kidney Beans (1 small can)
1 cup celery, cut in pieces
6 tomatoes
6 tablespoons India relish (or catsup)

Put kidney beans in strainer and pour boiling water over them. Cool them, then mix them with celery, india relish, and salt. Moisten with mayonnaise, let stand in refrigerator until chilled, fill tomatoes from which centers have been removed. Serve on crisp lettuce leaves with dot of mayonnaise.

NOW AND THEN

Kiss and Make it Well

I sit at my window and sew and dream,
While my little boy at play
Beguiles my thought from hem and seam
As he frolics the livelong day;
But time and again he comes to me
With a sorrowful tale to tell,
And mother must look at the scratch or bump,
Then kiss it and make it well.

So I kiss his head, and his knee, and his arm,
And the dear little grimy hand;
And who can fathom the magic charm.
And who can understand
For I even kiss when he bites his tongue,
And love works its mystic spell,
For there's never a cut for a scratch nor a bump
But a mother can kiss it well.

'Tis a foolish whim ,do you say? Ah, yes!
But the foolish things of earth
Have taught the wise, since a little child
In Bethelem had His birth.
And we know that many an older heart—
We know but we do not tell—
Will never be free from the bitter smart
Till kisses have made it well.

For once the radiance of the moon was unwelcome to the star gazers for its brilliance made it almost impossible to see the comet which reached its nearest point to the earth on Aug. 4th. Those who did see it by the aid of field glasses saw the comet though its tail was driven off from it by the radiation of the sun.

Autumn in America is one of the most beautiful times of the year. Then the leaves of the trees change their dresses and the whole landscape is one blaze of color.

With England it is not so, the trees keep their green leaves until they put on their winter uniform.

Thomas Cole one of our first artists who painted at the beginning of the 19th century was born in the Catskill Mountains, and he gloried in the rich colors of the fall leaves, and painted them on many of his canvases.

When he went to England, with his paintings, he was severely criticized and laughed at 'Did any one ever see a tree with such colors?'

America was not well known to the Englishmen at that time. It was only after they had grown familiar with our country and seen the brilliant colors of autumn that they could appreciate the true art of Thomas Cole.

The newspapers carry a story of a young man, who was arrested just as he was thrusting his hand in some man's pocket.

On examining him, he was found to have six fingers on each hand, so they could not accuse him of being light fingered.

The Sportsmen tells of a contest between the horse shoe pitchers down in Talbot Co. What has become of the Team that used to pitch them in the lot on Riverside Terrace?

The passers by were impressed by the pitchers' keen enjoyment of the game.

Perhaps there is no sadder event told in History than the expulsion of the French Canadians from their home, Grand Pre. They were scattered everywhere these poor exiled families, being divided from one another. Many of them were landed in Louisana. The descendants of these latter, are coming to Maryland to visit the descendants which settled in Maryland, and the Maryland Historical Society is busy looking up the descendants of those who came to Baltimore.

MISS PACA SINGS

Miss Dorothy Paca, of Boston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Paca, of Quaker Neck held an audience practically spell bound on Tuesday afternoon, when she was the guest soloist at the August meeting of 'Our Garden Club,' of which Miss Mabel Toulson was hostess.

Miss Paca, a concert artist of note, has an unusually beautiful soprano voice. Complete master of her technique ,her range was wide, and her presentation in the rendition of her selections was most charming. Folk songs are a specialty in Miss Paca's repertoire and her program yeterday consisted of the following:

Cherry Ripe-Old English by C. E. Horn.
When the Roses Bloom by Louise Reichardt, (1778-1825).
Who'll Buy My Lavendar? by Edw. W. German.
Philosophy, Wards-anon, by David Emmell.
Canterbury Bells, by Maurice Besly, from a group of 3 Fairy Songs.
The Chrysanthemum.
Spanish Song- from a folk dance, Clavelitos. 'Carnation,' by Valverde.
Jewel Song, from Faust Gounod.

Miss Mabel Toulson who beautifully accompanied Miss Paca was particularly complimented by the artist, as well as the circle present.

AT THE MOVIES NEXT WEEK

SPENDTHRIFT

Top-notch entertainment, provided by some of the screen's best talent in a story neatly combining romance and humor, marks the new offering of the New Lyceum Theatre, Walter Wanger's 'Spendthrift,' comes their on Monday and Tuesday, August 17 and 18.

Chief roles in the screen play of a millionaire youth who had to lose his fortune to find the right girl are carried by Henry Fonda, young Paramount star; Pat Paterson, petite ashblonde English actress who plays her first part under a new Wanger contract in the film, and Mary Brian, cast for the first time in her screen career as a vixenish 'heavy,' in the rloe of a Southern belle who is revealed as a gold-digger and fortune hunter.

George Barbier, veteran character actor who played his last screen role in 'Spendthrift' as the crochety uncle of Fonda, is aided by Halliwell Hobbes, Richard Carle and J. M. Kerrigan in packing the story with skilled comedy.

The story introduces Fonda as a polo-playing socialite who has run through $23,000,000 by his happy-go-lucky habit of always footing the bill. Broke, he sells a string of polo ponies to get to the Kentucky Derby, hoping to make a recoup by winning the race with his fast filly. At the Derby he is spotted and landed by Miss Brian.

The horse loses; Fonda's bride shows herself as a fortune hunter and deserts him after she has spent what is left of his fortune. The youth sets out to make a success by getting a job, and the means through which he accomplishes the end and finds romance close to home—with Miss Paterson—make the plot.

'Spendthrift' was directed by Raoul Walsh from a screen play by Walsh and Bert Hanlon, taken from an original by Eric Hatch.

A stirring drama of small town bigotry and intolerance, the Warner Bros. production, 'I Married a Doctor', opens at the New Lyceum Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday, August 19 and 20.

The picture is based on a novel by Sinclair Lewis which caused a furor throughout the country by exposing the cruelties resultant from the attitude of self righteous small town people who judge others by their own narrow standards. It is said to be filled with pathos and tragedy and dynamic scenes, enlivened by romance, sparkling dialogue and comedy.

Pat O'Brien and Josephine Hutchinson have the romantic leads, he being a country doctor who takes his city bred bride to his small home town where she immediately arouses a jealous and bitter antagonism among the women because their husbands and sweethearts are attracted by her beauty and wit.

Unwittingly she creates a scandal by taking under her patronage a country youth with artistic aspirations. Encouraging his ambitions, she does not realize that he has become desperately infatuated with her, until he begs her to run away with him. The tongues of gossip, long wagging, clack with venom when the youth, mad with disappointment, is killed in a wild automobile ride.

Believing everyone in town to be petty, mean, int olerant and cruel, she flees from her home and husband, returning to the city. But in a surprising climax she and her husband are reunited.

There is a talented cast playing in support of O'Brien and Miss Hutchinson, which includes Ross Alexander, Guy Kibbee, Louise Fazenda, Olin Howland, Margaret Irving, Alma Lloyd and Robert Barrat.

Archie L. Mayo directed the picture from the screen play by Casey Robinson, adapted from a dramatization of a Sinclair Lewis popular novel by Harriet Ford and Harvey O'Higgins.

PROCLAMATION OF THE GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND PROPOSING AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE

WHEREAS, at the January session of the General Assembly of Maryland, held in the year 1935, an Act was passed, to wit: Chapter 426 proposing an amendment to Section 21 of Article 4 of the Constitution of the State of Maryland, title "Judiciary Department," subtitle "Part III-Circuit Courts" providing for an additional Judge in the Sixth Judicial Circuit of Maryland, and to provide for the submission of said amendment to the qualified voters of this State for adoption or rejection; and

WHEREAS, at the January session of the General Assembly of Maryland, held in the year 1935, an Act was passed, to wit: Chapter 584 proposing an amendment to Section 13 of Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Maryland, title "Legislative Department," providing for the appointment of persons by the Governor to fill vacancies in the House of Delegates or in the Senate of the General Assembly of Maryland and providing for the submission of said amendment to the qualified voters of the State for adoption or rejection; and

WHEREAS, at the Extraordinary session of the General Assembly of Maryland, held in the year 1936, an Act was passed, to wit: Chapter 151 proposing an amendment to Section 39 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Maryland, title "Legislative Department," so as to strike out the provision therein to the effect that the General Assembly shall grant no charter for banking purposes, nor renew any banking corporation now in existence, except upon the condition that the stockholders shall be liable to the amount of their respective share or shares of stock in such banking institution, for all its debts and liabilities upon note, bill or otherwise; and providing for the submission of said amendment to the qualified voters of the State of Maryland for adoption or rejection; in words and figures as follows:

CHAPTER 426

AN ACT to amend Section 21 of Article 4, title "Judiciary Department," sub-title "Part III-Circuit Courts" of the Constitution of this State, and to provide for the submission of said amendment to the qualified voters of this State for adoption or rejection.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two houses concurring, that the following section be and the same is hereby proposed as an amendment to Section 21 of Article 4, title "Judiciary Department," sub-title "Part III-Circuit Courts" of the Constitution of this State, and if adopted by the legal and qualified voters thereof as herein provided, it shall supersede and stand in the place and stead of Section 21 of said Article 4.

21. For each of the said circuits, excepting the eighth and the third and the sixth, there shall be a chief judge and two associate judges, to be styled judges of the Circuit Court, to be elected or appointed as herein provided, and for the third circuit and for the sixth circuit, there shall be a chief judge and three associate judges to be styled judges of the Circuit Court, to be elected or appointed as herein provided. And no two of said associate judges, for any of the said circuits, except the third and sixth circuits shall, at the time of their election or appointment or during the term for which they may have been elected or appointed, reside in the same county. If two or more persons shall be candidates for associate judge in the same county in any of the circuits, except the third and sixth circuits, that one only in said county shall be declared elected who has the highest number of votes in the circuit. In case any two candidates for associate judge in any of the circuits, except the third and sixth circuits, residing in the same county shall have an equal number of votes greater than any other candidates for associate judge in the circuit, it shall be the duty of the Governor to order a new election for one associate judge; but the person residing in any other county of the circuit and who has the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. The said judges shall hold not less than two terms of the Circuit Court in each of the counties composing their respective circuits, at such times as are now or may hereafter be prescribed to which jurors shall be summoned; and in those counties where only two such terms are held, two other and intermediate terms, to which jurors shall not be summoned; they may alter or fix the time for holding any or all terms, until otherwise prescribed, and shall adopt rules to the end that all business not requiring the interposition of the jury shall be, as far as practicable, disposed of at said intermediate terms. One judge in each of the above circuits, including the third and sixth circuits, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business; and the said judges or any of them may hold special terms of their courts, whenever in their discretion, the business of the several counties renders such terms necessary. The additional associate judge for the third circuit herein provided for (shall be elected by the qualified voters of Baltimore and Harford Counties, at the first election that shall be held in said counties subsequent to the adoption of this amendment, and the judge so elected) shall be subject to the same constitutional provisions, hold his office for the same terms of years, receive the same compensation and have the same powers as are herein provided for the other associate judges in the third circuit.

The additional judge for the sixth circuit herein provided for shall be elected by the qualified voters of Frederick and Montgomery Counties at the first election that shall be held in said counties subsequent to the adoption of this amendment and none shall be appointed before that time. The judge so elected shall be subject to the same constitutional provisions, receive the same compensation and have the same powers as are herein provided for the other associate judges in the sixth circuit. The Chief Judge may be elected from either Frederick or Montgomery Counties, but when the Chief Judge is elected from Frederick County one of the associate judges shall be a resident of said County and the two remaining associate judges shall be residents of Montgomery County and when the Chief Judge is elected from Montgomery County one of the associate judges shall be a resident of said Montgomery County and the remaining two associate judges residents of Frederick County. In case any candidate or candidates for associate judge at any judicial election held in the sixth judicial circuit shall receive sufficient votes to cause such candidate or candidates to be declared elected, but the election of such candidate or candidates would cause more associate judges than herein permitted to reside in any county of said circuit, then and in that event only that candidate or those candidates, as the case may be, residing in said county in the order of the votes received shall be declared elected whose election would provide the permitted number of associate judges from said county and the candidate or candidates as the case may be, residing in the other county, and not similarly disqualified, who shall have the next highest number of votes in said election shall be declared elected. If, by reason of such a condition or by reason of an equal vote for two or more candidates a sufficient number of associate judges duly qualified as to residence as above set out should not be elected at any election in said sixth judicial circuit, then it shall be the duty of the Governor to order a new election for such unfilled office or offices.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the aforegoing section hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of this State shall be, at the next general election to be held in this State in the year 1936, submitted to the legal and qualified voters thereof for their adoption or rejection in pursuance of directions contained in Article 14 of the Constitution of this State, and at the said general election, the vote on the said proposed amendment shall be by ballot, and upon each ballot there shall be printed the words "For the Constitutional Amendment" and "Against the Constitutional Amendment," as now prescribed by law, and immediately after said election, due returns shall be made to the Governor of the vote for and against said proposed amendment as directed by said Article 14 of the Constitution.

Approved: May 17, 1935.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland (three-fifths of all of the members of each of the two Houses concurring), That the following amendment is hereby proposed to Section 13 of Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Maryland, title "Legislative Department," the same, if adopted by the legally qualified voters of the State as herein provided, to become Section 13 of Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Maryland.

Section 13. In case of death, disqualification, resignation, refusal to act, expulsion, or removal from the county or city for which he shall have been elected, of any person who shall have been chosen as a Delegate or Senator, or in case of a tie between two or more such qualified persons, the Governor shall appoint a person to fill such vacancy from a person whose name shall be submitted to him in writing by the State Central Committee of the political party with which the Delegate or Senator, so vacating, had been affiliated in the County or District from which he or she was elected, provided that the appointee shall be of the same political party as the person whose office is to be filled; and it shall be the duty of the Governor to make said appointment within fifteen days after the submission thereof to him. In the event there is no State Central Committee in the County or District from which said vacancy is to be filled, the Governor shall within fifteen days after the occurrence of such vacancy appoint a person who is otherwise properly qualified to hold the office of delegate or senator in such District or County. In every case when any person is so appointed by the Governor, his appointment shall be deemed to be for the unexpired term of the person whose office has become vacant.
