CIRCUS HERE NEXT THURSDAY

RICE BROS. CIRCUS TO PERFORM IN CHESTERTOWN

The late Thomas A. Edison once said 'A laugh a day will keep all the doctors away', and with this phnosopny in mind Ray Marsh Brydon, general manager of Rice Bros. Circus which was founded in 1852 by his great grandfather the famous Dan Rice, has for this season ransacked America and Europe for the greatest array of funsters ever seen with any circus.

The result is that a veritable Niagara of contagious mirth and merriment with be turned loose when Rice Bros. Circus comes to Chestertown on Thursday, August 20 for two performances. While the three rings, stages and hippodrome track are constantly filled with famous stars of the sawdust arena an army of clowns will provide funfast and furious thruout the entire show. Entering fully into the spirit the dancing elephants will stage their version of 'And the music goes 'round and around' which is the most hilarious act ever presented by these monster pachyderms.

The circus will open with a dazzling spectacle 'Fiesta Days in Spain' in which performers and animals take part, with beautiful dancing senoritas cavorting to the strains of three circus bands and the Spanish castanets.

Two performances will be given at 2 and 8 p. m. Doors to the main entrance will open an hour earlier in the afternoon as well as at night so that the public will have ample time to see the mammoth zoological collection in the menagerie, which includes the largest lioness in captivity, as well as a strange creature called Hamadryas, which is a cross between a dog, hog and gorilla and which, in its native state, lives on live lions.

A monster street parade is promised at one o'clock.

KENT NINE WINS TWO MORE GAMES

Chestertown-Rock Hall Combine Sets Fast Pace

The Chestertown-Rock Hall combination added two more victories to its growing list over the week end by scoring wins over a pair of Baltimore clubs.

Playing at Rock Hall on Saturday the Kent nine defeated the Baltimore Athletic Club by a 10-6 score and at Chestertown on Sunday the combine swept over the Stephen Seth outfit by a 15-2 score.
