The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

We rush from the unfailing success of our regattas, into a week of Horse Shows for there has been one this week already, and another is scheduled for to-day which always draws a large contingent of society. The third one is due next week, on Thursday, which is really the largest, and quite a crowd is expected. A portion of the proceeds will go to the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital. So, if you didn't take in the two previous, get out your little book and jot that date down right now.

Needless to say how perfectly swell was last week-end, but it's a good thing such a terrific pace isn't a weekly performance, for to use a bit of slang, I don't think 'we could take it.' Before I plunge into things present, for the sake of those, who might not have been here, I'll 'review the bidding' on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead, followed Friday's and Saturday's regattas with impromptu but delightful buffet suppers in honor of their house guests Mr and Mrs. Charles Mead, of Washington.

Miss Harriette Welch entertained at a large party prior to the dance on Friday. The dance was one of the nicest we've ever had, the music being splendid, all of the girls looking their prettiest, and everyone happy. Saturday, there seemed to be parties all day long, aboard one boat or another. Before the dance that evening, Mrs. C. Beck Jones entertained the younger set in honor of her cousin, Miss Anne Woolsey. The second night at the Club was, as usual, more crowded than the first, and if you were content in enjoying people and renewing old acquaintances, it was the chance of a life-time.

By Sunday, we were all pretty well tuckered out, but we all kept going past noon anyway. The regatta had to be talked over, you know. Mr. and Mrs. Morris Barroll gathered about them a few friends at the noon hour, another party went aboard the Liberty, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Crane, of Baltimore, and still a third group were guests, of Mr. and Mrs. John Charles Thomas, aboard the Masquerader. For what happened the rest of the day, I can not vouch, for like the little boy I was ready (and did) fall down on my cot and go bump, off into blissful quiet and rest.

Monday and Tuesday remained fairly peaceful, but by Wednesday, we were all quite recovered from the race and ready to start again.

Mrs. George Dana entertained at luncheon followed by bridge at her home on Washington Ave. while Mrs. Thos. Kibler had a few friends for luncheon with her sister, Mrs. Louis Skinner, of New York, who is her house guest. On Friday, Mrs. Kibler entertained another small group for luncheon.

Thursday evening, Mrs. H. Clay Brown entertained informally at bridge in honor of Mrs. James Woodburn, daughter of Mrs. Wm. Paca.

Tonight, Saturday, there will be two parties on foot.

One will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Jas. G. Beck and Mr. and Mrs. Gilpin Brown, which will take the form of a buffet supper and bridge, while the other will be a brdge party to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Roland Corey in honor of Mrs. Corey's brother, Lt. Harry Derringer, of Yorktown, Va., who is their house guest for a few weeks.

Now, let's glance at what these newspapers call personals. Mr. and Mrs. William Bryan and Mr. and Mrs. Mason Wood, with their son, Mason, returned to Baltimore after having occupied the apartment of Mrs. Raymond Humphreys for three weeks during her absence.

Dr. Esther M. Dole has joined her daughter and son at her apartment in the Wickes apartment, having been at Alfred University since July 1st, where she taught summer school.

Miss Ruth Rogers, sister of Mrs. Thomas Massey left this week for Porto Rico where she has accepted a position as a teacher there.

Mrs. William Gardner, of Baltimore, has been the guest this week of her sister, Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton.

Mrs. Harrison Cooke and daughter, Anne Washington, are guests of Mrs. Cooke's grandmother, Mrs. A. T. H. Harper. Mr. Cooke joined them for the week end yesterday. Mr. Thomas Perkins and Miss Adelaide Bond of Baltimore were guests last week end of Mr. and Mrs. Eben F. Perkins.

Mr. Morris K. Barroll is recuperating from a tonsil operation performed on Wednesday at the Kent and Queen Anne Hospital.

George Maxwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Maxwell is under observation at the same hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. John Colby, of White Plains, N. J., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Kreeger and daughters, Ann and Frances left on Sunday for a motor trip to Virginia.

Mrs. Arthur Bacon and Miss Harriett Skirven have returned from a trip to Ocean City, Md.

Mrs. John Sweetman and son, have returned from a visit to Bethany Beach, Del., where they were guests of Mrs. Robert Rudolph, of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Cooper, Misses Mildred Tryzno and Estelle Beaver left Monday for a motor trip to Canada.

Miss Edna Kirby is the guest of her parents having returned from a motor trip to Canada and a tour of the New England States.

Canada is the popular place in days like these, and still another Canadian tour was made by Prof. Louis J. Thibodeau, of Waterbury, Conn., and his daughter, Miss Betty Thibodeau, Prof. Thibodeau is now the guest of Mr. L. Bates Russell, having accompaned his daughter home.

News comes that Mr. Paul Pippin has been appointed Assistant Head Master of the Norfolk Military Academy.

Mrs. A. W. Hamilton, of St. Louis, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Allan Harris. Her daughter, Miss Emily Hamilton who has spent the summer here, will retura with her mother to the West, next week.

And now that about winds up the crop, but I always like to leave you with something to look forward to, and so on next Wednesday there's a party to be given by Miss Elizabeth Brown in honor of Mrs. Gilpin Brown, but more details later. Also, Miss Sara Speicher who with her mother, have returned from a visit to New York, will entertain at a dance on Tuesday evening for Miss Eleanor Beachley. Miss Beachley will be the house guest of Miss Marian Thomas next week.

However, more anon!

Yours-je ne sais quoi,

THE WANDERER
