WOMAN'S COLUMN

LAURA JOHNSON KNIGHT

She is the first and only woman who has been allowed to become a member of the Royal Academy of England. She has just published her autobiography in the United States.

She tell of coming from a family of stern English stock who had a great contempt for the masculine gender.

In spite of her severe surroundings she had a great love of beauty and begun at a very early age to draw pictures of what pleased her.

Then her mother, perceiving that the child had real talent, encouraged her to draw the portaits which she copied from the magazine.

As she was a woman she was not allowed to copy from life, when she went to Art School, but was put to copying plaster cast.

She was self supporting at an early age as the local burghers thought her portraits wonderful, and she had many to do. Then she taught art classes while she attended the Nottingham Academy. There she met a young student as poor and as talented as she was. His name was Harold Knight, and in 1903 she married him. Then together they struggled and won, she being elected a member of the Royal Academy in 1927 and he was elected the next year.

Laura Knight is 59 now, and is still painting vigorously.

Her favorite attire is a velvet jacket and a sombrerro with her hair arranged in two buns over the ears.

The new way of teaching children who wish to learn to play at home is much more pleasant than it used to be.

Modern teaching methods capitalize on whatever feeling for music, no matter how slight, you may have. They are designed to help you learn because they'd be when summer came; no matof your affection for music rather than in spite of it. Old-style teachers gave you piano lessons. Modern ones give you music lessons on the piano.

You don't spend week after week with fingers lame frm excessive scales and exercises. You begin learning simple pieces at the start, taking on more difficult numbers as the accompanying exercises give you the manual skill necessary to play them properly. A little theory, harmony, and so forth, comes along the way to give you the background you couldn't assimilate as a child. The plan is to hold your intelligent interest in music, your affection for it, to widen these painlessly by gaining the ability to play even a simple tune expressively.

Back in the old days you might spend months of practice before you saw a piece.

Is The Painting Of Faces Really 'Going Out'?

From the Manchester Guardian

Is it possible that the fashion of smearing women's faces with all sorts of pigments is going out? There have been rumors that the youngest generation is revolting, and now comes the news that among the demands of a group of Paris midinettes on strike was that the management should no longer require them to make up their faces when on duty. If this requirement really exists it would be going one better (or worse) than that of the ladies in an old Punch who, upon a change of fashion, stood in their straight skirts indignantly asking of their cook: 'What have you done with your crinoline, Mary Jane? Go and put it on at once.'

If the Parisian ladies are giving up painting their faces the class-conscious midinette will not want to be behind the fashon. So we go 'round and 'round, and the beauty of one decade is the disgust of the next.

Blowing Hot And Cold

Louis Gaves, in the Chapel Hill Weekly

Some of my neighbors, swearing at the heat, declare that hot weather is far worse than cold and that they were more comfortable in the freezing days of last winter than they have been this summer. Six months ago I heard these same people saying how happy they'd be when summer came no matter how hot it was, it would be better than flendish winter.

THINGS WELL TO KNOW:
Table Tops

Scratches on the dining room table can easily be removed by using a nut meat—a Brazil or English Walnut. Rub nut meat on the scratches and the marks will disappear almost instantly.

For hot water marks, make a paste of olive oil and salt to cover the stain. Leave on for half on hour and then rub off with acloth. If the first application fails, try a second one.

Mashed Potato Patties

When left-over mashed potatoes have cooled, form into a roll as for ice-box cookies. Chill thoroughly, and when ready to reheat, simply slice the roll into inch thick pieces and brown in butter. This is a much easier way to make potato pattes, than forming them by hand. And by preparing the roll beforehand, there is less waste of dried crumbs in the dish.

NOW AND THEN

The Hills Of Life

In the hills of life,
Two trails are found—
One leading upward,
One to lower ground.
One gathers shadows
Long ere day is done;
One climbs to beauty
With the setting sun.

One leads to darkness,
One trails the light—
Each has its ending,
Wrong road or right.
Yours for the choosing—
Sunlight or gray shade;
Yours for the climbing.
Where stars never fade.

Emma V. Haupt.

Climbing hills is more difficult than walking on level ground, just as all struggling up is more difficult, but when one has reached it, the freedom the purer air!

In the cities where there are elevator apartments the rents are much more as the tenants go higher up. Light, sunshine and breezes are apt to attend them and therefore they are considered much more desirable.

The Psalmist of old loved the hills. 'I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help.

Do not give your child the name of a great man, for, it is likely to cause him a great deal of embarrassment. One William Shakespeare, writes the above warning to parents.

He is hampered always by his name. He tells of his various experiences and how much he hated to tell who he was. Being among the wounded soldiers at Mt. Alto, the soldiers' hospital near Washington, he was invited with the others to visit the White House by President Hoover. As the President went around shaking hands with the wounded he came to him and asked his name. When he replied, 'William Shakespeare,' Hoover passed on, but the owner of that name heard him whisper to one of the attendants, 'Are they many like that?'

And so he tells of many amusing experiences, amusing to others, but embarrassing to him. He found out that if any believed he was telling the truth, that they were comparing him to the great man who made that name famous.

She was a beautiful women with a high sounding Spanish name. Her sweet personality, her lovely clothes and bewitching manner made her one to be remembered by her many admirers. There was one who found her haunting dark eyes ever present with him though the ocean rolled between. On hearing of the war in Spain, he crossed the Atlantic and after many difficulties, found her.

But oh how changed: Instead of luxurious clothes she wore a fustian jacket, her eyes were full of fire, while they glared with hate for the rebels, and she carried a gun across her shoulder, ready to shoot them down with impunity. 'War is hell' Sherman said, and it means too, hatred and revenge.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Mrs. Ethel M. Hunter, Home Economist

'LEFT-OVERS' VEGETABLE CASSEROLE

1 1-2 cup cooked diced carrots
4 hard cooked eggs (sliced)
4 tbsp. flour
2 cups milk
1 tsp. salt
4 tbsp. butter
1 1-2 cups cooked spinach
1-4 cup grated cheese

Combine butter and flour, add milk slowly, stirring constantly. Cook on low heat or double boiler, until thick and smooth. Add salt and cheese. Arrange carrot, spinach, eggs, and white sauce in layers in a well greased baking dish. Bake 400 degrees 20 to 30 minutes.

CULL THE HERDS

With a threatening feed shortage and with feed prices higher than in recent years which means higher cost for producing milk with relatively little prospect of being able to sell it at an increased price per quart or hundred weight, makes it imperative that Kent darymen consider every means of producing milk more economically.

In spite of common practice there is every evidence to support the contention that the well fed cow is the economical producer of milk. Such cows produce a much larger volume of milk than a poorly fed animal.

Farmers knowing they are short of seed would do well to cull their herds carefully, eliminating the low and unprofitable producers, then feeding well the animals retained.

Now that the T. B. test has practically cleaned up that dread disease, attention is centered on Bangs Disease which offers a splendid opportunity to sort out reactors and at the same time to receive liberal allowance for salvage and indenity. The blood tested herd has decided advantages over the untested herd so that people desiring to sell surplus stock and also wishing to cull their herds, should look into the details of the Bangs Disease program which can be explained to them by the County Agent.

Easy Pleasant Way To LOSE FAT

How would you like to lose 15 pounds of fat in a month and at the same time increase your energy and improve your health?

How would you like to lose your double chin and your too prominent hips and abdomen and at the same time make your skin so clean and clear that it will compel admiration?

Get on the scale to-day and see how much you weigh—then get a bottle of Kruschen Salts that costs next to nothing and which will last you 4 weeks. Take one half teaspoonful in a glass of hot water in the morning—cut down on pastry and fatty meats—go light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar—and when you have finished the contents of this first bottle weigh yourself again.

After that you'll want to walk around and say to your friends, "One bottle of Kruschen Salts is worth one hundred dollars of any fat person's money."

But refuse imitations—safeguard your health—you loose fat SAFELY the Kruschen way.

NOTE—Many people find that the only diet change necessary while taking Kruschen regularly is TO EAT LESS.

AT THE MOVIES NEXT WEEK

RHYTHM ON THE RANGE

Bng Crosby, Bob Burns, a blooded bull, a box car and a crazy crosscountry pilgrimage; hot 'swing' tunes and songs of the old West; Frances Farmer, Martha Raye and her clock-stopping face; a rodeo, songs, gags and songs.

Those are a few of the ingredients f Paramount's "Rhythm on the Range,' romantic an hilarious musical scheduled to show at the New Lyceum on Monday and Tuesday, August 24 and 25. Others, no less important, include the thuggery of Warren Hymer, James Burke and George E. Stone; the Russian cowboy antics of Leonid Kinsky, the skilled acting of Samuel S. Hinds and Lucille Webster Gleason, and the subterranean urges of Charles Williams.

Tunes Are Varied

Music in 'Rhythm on the Range' varies everywhere from the sepulchral melodies of the famous Bob Burns 'gazooka' to tunes by Louis Prima's worldfamed swing band. It launches six song hits, all of them already popular; 'I Can't Escape From You,' 'The House That Jack Built For Jill,' 'If You Can't Sing It You'll Have To Swing It,' 'Empty Saddles, 'Roundup Lullaby' and 'I'm an Old Cow Hand From the Rio Grande.' 'Rhythm on the Range,' a seventh hit, was inspire dby the picture.

Briefly, the story casts Crosby as a cow hand who t akes part in a New York rodeo, buy a prize bull, and starts for his home range in a box car with the animal. His buddy is Burns.

Society Stowaway

Frances Farmer, a society girl scheduled to marry a man she has no interest in, stows away in the box car. Halfway across the continent, girl, bull and cowpuncher are left behind by the train; they have to make their way as best they can.

Meanwhile Burns has been beset by the mad Miss Daye, and their comedy romance has got off to a flying start, also while they are traveling from New York to the ranch.

Hymer, Burke and Stone enter the story when they begin trailing Crosby and Miss Farmer across several states, with the idea of kidnapping the girl and holding her for ransom.

George Raft and Doloes Costello Barrymore are co-starred n 'Yours for the Asking,' comedy-romance of a gambler who decides to learn the ways of society, coming on Wednesday and Thursday, August 26 and 27 to the New Lyceum Theatre. The picture goasts a supporting cast of such screen favorites as Ida Lupino, Reginald Owen, James Gleason, Lynne Overman, Richard 'Skeets' Gallagher and Edgar Kennedy.

Gleason, Overman and Kennedy appear as the right-hand men of Raft in his gambling operations. The star meets Miss Barrymore, a society girl, decides to make his gambling place 'an upper-crust layout,' and gets her assistance. The trio of henchmen begin to fear that their boss is falling for Miss Barrymore. To prevent such an eventuality, they arrange to have Ida Lupino, beautiful adventuress, try to win him.

She succeeds, for a time; so well that Raft, who believes her a member of the Four Hundred, begins taking Emily Post lessons from Miss Barrymore.

Comedy situations are built up by the three aides. Miss Lupino, and a wandering salesman of ten-cent gadgets, Owen, who poses as Miss Lupino's aristocratic uncle for purposes of the plot.

'Yours for the Asking' places Raft in a story similar in some respects to that of one of his greatest hits, 'Night after Night.' It marks his return to the type of role which the movie public likes best for him; the tough egg with the smooth manner.

Miss Barrymore, who stepped immediately back into her former lead ing place in filmdom after a five-year absence, in 'Little Lord Fauntleroy,' is also given a role exceptionally suited to her unusual talents.

GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION PROPOSING AMENDMENTS

1936

PROCLAMATION OF THE GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND PROPOSING AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE

WHEREAS, at the January session of the General Assembly of Maryland, held in the year 1935, an Act was passed, to wit: Chapter 426 proposing an amendment to Section 21 of Article 4 of the Constitution of the State of Maryland, title "Judiciary Department," subtitle "Part III-Circuit Courts" providing for an additional Judge in the Sixth Judicial Circuit of Maryland, and to provide for the submission of said amendment to the qualified voters of this State for adoption or rejection; and

WHEREAS, at the January session of the General Assembly of Maryland, held in the year 1935, an Act was passed, to wit: Chapter 584 proposing an amendment to Section 13 of Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Maryland, title "Legislative Department," providing for the appointment of persons by the Governor to fill vacancies in the House of Delegates or in the Senate of the General Assembly of Maryland and providing for the submission of said amendment to the qualified voters of the State for adoption or rejection; and

WHEREAS, at the Extraordinary session of the General Assembly of Maryland, held in the year 1936, an Act was passed, to wit: Chapter 151 proposing an amendment to Section 39 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Maryland, title "Legislative Department," so as to strike out the provision therein to the effect that the General Assembly shall grant no charter for banking purposes, nor renew any banking corporation now in existence, except upon the condition that the stockholders shall be liable to the amount of their respective share or shares of stock in such banking institution, for all its debts and liabilities upon note, bill or otherwise; and providing for the submission of said amendment to the qualified voters of the State of Maryland for adoption or rejection; in words and figures as follows:

CHAPTER 426

AN ACT to amend Section 21 of Article 4, title "Judiciary Department," sub-title "Part III-Circuit Courts" of the Constitution of this State, and to provide for the submission of said amendment to the qualified voters of this State for adoption or rejection.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two houses concurring, that the following section be and the same is hereby proposed as an amendment to Section 21 of Article 4, title "Judiciary Department," sub-title "Part III-Circuit Courts" of the Constitution of this State, and if adopted by the legal and qualified voters thereof as herein provided, it shall supersede and stand in the place and stead of Section 21 of said Article 4.

21. For each of the said circuits, excepting the eighth and the third and the sixth, there shall be a chief judge and two associate judges, to be styled judges of the Circuit Court, to be elected or appointed as herein provided, and for the third circuit and for the sixth circuit, there shall be a chief judge and three associate judges to be styled judges of the Circuit Court, to be elected or appointed as herein provided. And no two of said associate judges, for any of the said circuits, except the third and sixth circuits shall, at the time of their election or appointment or during the term for which they may have been elected or appointed, reside in the same county. If two or more persons shall be candidates for associate judge in the same county in any of the circuits, except the third and sixth circuits, that one only in said county shall be declared elected who has the highest number of votes in the circuit. In case any two candidates for associate judge in any of the circuits, except the third and sixth circuits, residing in the same county shall have an equal number of votes greater than any other candidates for associate judge in the circuit, it shall be the duty of the Governor to order a new election for one associate judge; but the person residing in any other county of the circuit and who has the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. The said judges shall hold not less than two terms of the Circuit Court in each of the counties composing their respective circuits, at such times as are now or may hereafter be prescribed to which jurors shall be summoned; and in those counties where only two such terms are held, two other and intermediate terms, to which jurors shall not be summoned; they may alter or fix the time for holding any or all terms, until otherwise prescribed, and shall adopt rules to the end that all business not requiring the interposition of the jury shall be, as far as practicable, disposed of at said intermediate terms. One judge in each of the above circuits, including the third and sixth circuits, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business; and the said judges or any of them may hold special terms of their courts, whenever in their discretion, the business of the several counties renders such terms necessary. The additional associate judge for the third circuit herein provided for (shall be elected by the qualified voters of Baltimore and Harford Counties, at the first election that shall be held in said counties subsequent to the adoption of this amendment, and the judge so elected) shall be subject to the same constitutional provisions, hold his office for the same terms of years, receive the same compensation and have the same powers as are herein provided for the other associate judges in the third circuit.

The additional judge for the sixth circuit herein provided for shall be elected by the qualified voters of Frederick and Montgomery Counties at the first election that shall be held in said counties subsequent to the adoption of this amendment and none shall be appointed before that time. The judge so elected shall be subject to the same constitutional provisions, receive the same compensation and have the same powers as are herein provided for the other associate judges in the sixth circuit. The Chief Judge may be elected from either Frederick or Montgomery Counties, but when the Chief Judge is elected from Frederick County one of the associate judges shall be a resident of said County and the two remaining associate judges shall be residents of Montgomery County and when the Chief Judge is elected from Montgomery County one of the associate judges shall be a resident of said Montgomery County and the remaining two associate judges residents of Frederick County. In case any candidate or candidates for associate judge at any judicial election held in the sixth judicial circuit shall receive sufficient votes to cause such candidate or candidates to be declared elected, but the election of such candidate or candidates would cause more associate judges than herein permitted to reside in any county of said circuit, then and in that event only that candidate or those candidates, as the case may be, residing in said county in the order of the votes received shall be declared elected whose election would provide the permitted number of associate judges from said county and the candidate or candidates as the case may be, residing in the other county, and not similarly disqualified, who shall have the next highest number of votes in said election shall be declared elected. If, by reason of such a condition or by reason of an equal vote for two or more candidates a sufficient number of associate judges duly qualified as to residence as above set out should not be elected at any election in said sixth judicial circuit, then it shall be the duty of the Governor to order a new election for such unfilled office or offices.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the aforegoing section hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of this State shall be, at the next general election to be held in this State in the year 1936, submitted to the legal and qualified voters thereof for their adoption or rejection in pursuance of directions contained in Article 14 of the Constitution of this State, and at the said general election, the vote on the said proposed amendment shall be by ballot, and upon each ballot there shall be printed the words "For the Constitutional Amendment" and "Against the Constitutional Amendment," as now prescribed by law, and immediately after said election, due returns shall be made to the Governor of the vote for and against said proposed amendment as directed by said Article 14 of the Constitution.

Approved: May 17, 1935.

In case of death, disqualification, resignation, refusal to act, expulsion, or removal from the county or city for which he shall have been elected, of any person who shall have been chosen as a Delegate or Senator, or in case of a tie between two or more such qualified persons, the Governor shall appoint a person to fill such vacancy from a person whose name shall be submitted to him in writing by the State Central Committee of the political party with which the Delegate or Senator, so vacating, had been affiliated in the County or District from which he or she was elected, provided that the appointee shall be of the same political party as the person whose office is to be filled; and it shall be the duty of the Governor to make said appointment within fifteen days after the submission thereof to him. In the event there is no State Central Committee in the County or District from which said vacancy is to be filled, the Governor shall within fifteen days after the occurrence of such vacancy appoint a person who is otherwise properly qualified to hold the office of delegate or senator in such District or County. In every case when any person is so appointed by the Governor, his appointment shall be deemed to be for the unexpired term of the person whose office has become vacant.
