RULES FOR FISHING FAIR CONTEST

To make your angling interesting the following simple rules are given:

1. Any kind of tackle or bait except mechanical hooks may be used.
2. All fish entered must be caught in Maryland waters of the Chesapeake Bay and its tributaries.
3. Maryland fishing laws must be observed as to weight—no license required for the bay angling.
4. The largest fish in the several classifications, caught by members of the fishing party, will be eligible to enter the monthly contest.
5. All Asociation members will have entry blanks which should be filled out by the angler and witnessed by the boat captain.
6. Entry blanks must be made up in triplicate, one for the captain, one for the angler, and the original must be mailed to the Association Headquarters at Easton, Md., within 24 hours after catch, is made as soon as the boat docks. In no case later than the second of the month.

Prizes will be awarded for the largest fish of each variety caught during each thirty day period. Also a grand prize for the largest general classification. A booby prize will be awarded for the largest toad.

Great Gathering Of Water Craft

There will be a great gathering of gaily bedecked Chesapeake Bay water craft of all descriptions both on the Fishing Fair Grounds and cruising nearby. President Roosevelt is expected and other nationally known leaders will be aboard the Fishing Fair Flagship and hundreds—perhaps thousands—of ardent sportsmen will try every pisatorial trick in ther repertoire to get a prize winner into the boat. You'll hear the Floating Firemen's Band and the sailing Bay Billy Band.
