The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

With Labor Day over, the death knell of summer, we settle back in our chairs and begin to pick up the loose ends of things we ought to have done and perhaps unravel some of the knots of things we ought not to have done. However, the last big week-end of the Summer was a beauty, and everyone made the most of it, including the some twenty-three young people who had a cottage at Rehobeth for the holiday week-end and part of this week. This crowd included the very young married set, some of those soon to be married, and others fast on the way of becoming on the betrothed list anyway. It must have been a good party and I hear they had a marvelous time. Back here at home, we of the older generation made what fun we could, and had a nice time doing it. On Sunday, Col. H. S. Brown entertained at a picnic in his grove of trees at Godlington Manor, while others went to Fox Point to the Bob Wilson's farewell Sunday night open house of the season, as they returned to their home in Lansdowne on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Newcomer, of Baltimore, cruised to Chestertown on Saturday on their yacht from Gibson Island, and were house guests over the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Morris K. Barroll. Mr. and Mrs. Barroll entertained friends at noon on Monday in their honor, before the horse show in Centreville.

Mrs. William T. Dixon has had a continuous house party for the past week or so. Over Labor Day, there were several boys, friends of Bill's from Gilman Country School there, while at the same time Mr. and Mrs. Pearce Crisfield, and Mr. George Crisfield, her father, mother and brother, of Savannah, Ga., and Miss Mary Crisfield, of Nw Yorek, wre guests. I was rather interested and amused at a conversation between Mr. Crisfield, who has not been here for some time, and Mr. Horace Beck; reminiscing over old times, and the pranks they played as boys. Times haven't changed so much after all. The big boys to-day are still the little boys of yesterday, and the old adage 'boys will be boys' is as good now as then.

Miss Bessie Dixon will have as guests this week-end, Misses Cleire Ober and Connie Franchot, of Baltimore, school friends at St. Timothy's.

While her sister, Miss Josie Dixon will visit Miss Clara Beirne in Baltimore and while there attend one of the Fortnightly Dances.

Mrs. Edward Fennimore has returned to Handy Point, after several weeks' visit at a camp in the Adirondacks.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bradley, of Baltimore were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. Scott Beck.

Miss Rebecca Wickes, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes.

Mr. John Meade, son of Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead, is recuperating from a minor operation at the Church Home in Baltimore.

Mrs. Louise B. Dutcher, and Miss Anne Pippin have returned from a motor trip to Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where they were guests of Mrs. Dutcher's sister.

Mrs. T. Blackiston Perkins, Miss Frances Perkins, and Mr. Blackiston Perkins, of Germantown, Pa., were guests of Misses Grace and Jennie Wilkins and Mr. Edward Wilkins at the Maples, last week-end. Capt. and Mrs. Albert Leiber, of Dover, Ohio, are guests of the Misses Emory and Capt. Ned Emory at Piney Grove.

Mr. Raymond Simpers has entered the Easton Hospital for treatment of six or eight weeks due to an infected blood stream

Last evening, Mrs. Roland Corey and Mrs. Jack Stenger entertained a large number of friends at bridge at Mrs. Corey's home.

Birthdays among the boys seemed a popular thing this week, for two were the recipient of congratulations. One was on Tuesday, when Mr. Will Collins marked 80 on his calendar, and the other yesterday, when Mr. Horace Beck chalked off 71 years. At this time we extend our wishes for many more happy anniversaries.

Accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines, Mrs. C. Beck Jones and Miss Leonora Harris Springer, Mr. Frank Hines, Jr., left yesterday for New York from where he wll sail to-day for Buenos Aires to be gone for three years.

Miss Kitty Anthony, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Rumsey Anthony has entered a business school in Wilmington, Del.

Mrs. Paul Sipala was operated on for appendicitis last week at the Kent and Queen Anne Hospital.

Other visitors in town over last week-end included Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Messina and son of Upper Darby and Miss Louise Poore, of Elkton, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Reed; Mr. William Waddell, who has returned to Goldey College after having been the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Waddell; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hyde, of Washington, D. C., guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin E. Coleman; Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Smith, of Baltimore, guests of their parents; Mr. Wilmer Coleman and children, guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Wm. B. Coleman; Mrs. Charles Brown, of Wilmington, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Brown; Mrs. J. Hydie Thompson, of Philadelphia, Mrs. Ray Sparks, and son, of Florida, guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sparks; Mrs. Harry Lindsey, of Media, Pa., guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bacon; Mr. and Mrs. John Benjamin and daughter, of Collingswood N. J. and r. and Mrs. Joe Tarbutton, of Chester, Pa., guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Benjamin, Misses Dora McIntire, of East Orange, N. J., and Madge Wilkinson, of Philadelphia, guests of Mrs. Maggie R. McIntire and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar McGinnis and son of Philadelphia, guests of Mrs. Ralph Barnett. Mr. and Mrs. G. Bates Chaires and daughter ,of Oakland, Md., are here now visiting friends and relatives. Mrs. Paul Adams, and daughters accompanied by Miss Ethel Smythe spent the week-end at Atlantic City, N. J.

Dr. and Mrs. S. Holt Wright are leaving Saturday for a short visit to their home in Fairmont, W. Va. Dr. Wright will attend the Maryland State Dental Society meeting in Cumberland on Monday.

Miss Lillie Hossinger, of Lynch, is a patient at the Kent and Queen Anne Hospital.

Mrs. DeCoursey Ruth, of Newark, New Jersey, is the guest of Mrs. Thos. Wroth. Dr. Backiston Wroth leaves to-morrow for Atlanta to resume his professorship at Georgia Tech.

Mrs. A. T. H. Harper has returned from a visit to Elizabeth, N. J., where she spent two weeks as the guest of her granddaughter, Mrs. Harrison Cooke.

On Thursday evening, Miss Martha Speicher entertained at a supper-bridge party in honor of Miss Elizabeth Westcott who leaves next week for the University of North Carolina which she will attend this winter.

Miss Lucy Walke Cruikshank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cruikshank, of Galnea, Md., and Mr. John Gorge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph George, of Sudlersville, will be married on Tuesday, September 22, at the parsonage of St. Denis Church at Galena at 6 o'clock. A reception will follow at the home of the bride's parents at 7.30.

Mrs. John K. Flick and her daughter Miss Ellen Flick, of Baltimore, were guests last week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Fisher. Mrs. Flick will sail soon to join her husband at Sam Jose, Costa Rica, where he is now located, while their daughter, has accepted a position at the Girls Latin School. Miss Flick gradauted from Washington College in 1934.

Mr. Kent Lambert, Jr., of the Canal Zone is visiting his father near Chestertown.

But I'm running over my allotted space now, and as we are settling back into routine for the Fall, I must not be.

Yours amiss,
THE WANDERER.

FOR THOSE WHO REMAIN

When death visits a home, the first concern is to perform the last service to the loved one in a becoming manner. What ever is done must express all the reverance and affection that is felt at such a time. But in addition to this a further responsibility rests upon the funeral director. It is his privilege and duty to lessen as far as lies with in his power, the burdens laid upon those who remain. By countless little acts of thoughtfulness he can make the way easier for them.

We consider this part of our work as important as any other. Our highest aim is to have our patrons look upon us as trusted friends, ready and anxious to render sympathetic assistance to those who remain behind.

R. R. FELLOWS,
ar27 Funeral Director.
