MUD INSTEAD OF FEARED HIGH TIDE

While waterfront residents and watermen were preparing for an extremely high tide last Friday, during the hurricane that visited the Atlantic coast, the wind which had been blowing northeast shifted to north and then northwest causing the lowest tide in a number of years in Chesapeake Bay.

The Tolchester ferry was unable to land at its Kent County Wharf due to the low tide and in Chester River boats which normally floated in five feet of water were sitting on the mud. At Crisfeld crab buyers suffered losses when the tide left their sluffing boxes high and dry.

It is customary for south and southwest winds to follow strong northeast blows which drives the water, that has been banked in the capes up the bay for record high tides. The shift of the wind in a counter-clock-wise direction, however, reversed the order and an extremely low tide resulted.

FIRST GAME AWAY OCT. 3RD

Washington College athletic field is the scene of much activity these afternoons with thirty two students out for the foot ball team including a number of first year men.

In predicting the prospects of a good team anyone's guess is as good as another this early in the season although it will take good material to replace Nicholson and Berry in the back field and Lignor and Bilancioni in the line who were lost from last year's team throgh graduation.

The arrest following a shooting affair during a crap game in the up-town section of Chestertown Saturday night in which witnesses stated that Green shot at a woman.

It will be remembered that last Monday night Green was on the offense when he had his son arrested for stealing his bons money car. This week it was a different story. His life has been full of woes since he received his bonus bonds and now he won't be able to carry out his boast that he was certainly going to vote for Mr. Roosevelt for giving him his bonus.

Editor Of The Transcript:
Dear Sir:

If it is the purpose of the State Police to prevent accidents on the highways and threby help protect the lives and property of motorists, why isn't omething being done to force the large overhanging tomato trucks to hold to their half of the road at night when passing other motor vehicles.

Although the State laws regulate the width of trucks, the maximum width on the narrow Kent County roads necessitates these truck to pull well to one side in order to assure safe passage. If the State Police will travel the roads more at night they will find that automobile are compelled to pull off the road to avoid a collision. The small lights on the truck bodies showing the width of the overhanging cannot be seen in the glare of headlights and the safety of motorists at nights will continue to be very much imperaled unless those with power enforce the traffic laws to compel trucks to take only their half of the road when passing.

Yours for road safety,
A MOTORIST.

ONLY ONE LOCAL OFFICE ON BALLOT

SCHOOL PROGRAM TO BE SUBMITTED TO VOTERS

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS

T. ALAN GOLDSBOROUGH

The two candidates for Congressman from the First Congressional District of Maryland will be the only local names which will appear on the ballot in November.

Congressman Goldsborough who has ably held that office for a number of years, is opposed by State Senator Lloyd, the Republican candidate.

From the present indications, Congressman Goldsborough has the support fo the entire Democratic party in every county on the Shore and a number of large Democratic rallies have been held in his honor. He was unopposed in the primary and is therefore the Democratic candidate without opposition.

Presidcnt Roosevelt is daily increasing his lead in the Maryland poll being conducted by the Baltimore Sun and at this writing is leading Governor Landen, his Republican opponent, by 36,164 votes. The poll shows that with only one sixth of the voters of Kent County having returned their poll votes, President Roosevelt is leading in this county by 314 votes.

Will Vote On New Schools

Included on the ballot which will be voted in November will be a referendum vote on a large school building program. Each of the following school programs will be voted on separately.

Enlargement of the Rock Hall School so as to include a combination auditorium and gymnasium.

Enlargement of the Galena High School so as to include a combination auditorium and gymnasium.

Enlargement of the Chestertown High School.

Construction of a new colored high school in Chestertown.

The bill providing a bond issue for this program was passed at the 1935 Legislative session although the bill included a referendum to the voters of the county.

SHE KNOWS

'You ought to brace up and show your wife who is boss around your house.'

'I don't have to. She already knows.'

AUTO INSPECTION STARTS THURSDAY

ALL CARS AND TRUCKS MUST PASS INSPECTION TO RECEIVE TAGS

Warning to Maryland motorists that the ninth annual Save-A-Life Inspection Campaign of all motor vehicles registered in the State would be conducted from October 1 to October 31. was issued yesterday by Walter R. Rudy, Commissioner of Motor Vehicles.

The inspection is a prerequisite to the registration of motor vehicles for 1937 a nd owners will be unable to obtain new license plates unless their machines bear the official sticker certifying the inspection has been made, Mr. Rudy asserted.

With the cooperation of all automobile distributors' service stations, general repair garages and other automobile shops in communities throughout Maryland, about 1500 inspection stations will be appointed where motorists may have their machines examined free, the Commissioner said. Every automobile and truck in the State must by inspected by a mechanic or service station, meeting the approval of the Commissioner appointed for that purpose by him.

The salient points of examination will be brakes, lights, horns, sterring machanism, windshield wipers, mirors, license tags, windshields and bumper guards. The inspection of bumper guards will be made to see that they do not obstruct the license plates.

Last year 336,431 automobiles were examined; of this number it was found 73,000 had unsafe brakes, 124,000 headlights were adjusted or replaced and 16,000 steering mechanism were placed in safe condition.

The Commissioner suggests that motorists have their machines inspected early in the campaign and avoid as much as possible the congestion which usually occurs at the close of the period.

The Roosevalt Caravan, under the command of S. Scott Beck, Jr., Chairman of the First Voters League, is on a tour of the State in the interest of the re-election of President Roosevelt. The caravan is equipped with a powerful amplifying equipment and a collapsible platform for the speakers. It will be met by prominent Democrats in each county who will accompany it on a county-wide tour.

Will Be In Kent County October 1st

Coming to Kent from Cecil county, October 1st, the Roosevelt Caravan will make its first stop at Galena. It is expected to arrive there about two o'clock. With the loud speaker system a program of music will be presented and the accompanying speakers will make brief addresses. Then proceeding down through Kent, the Caravan is scheduled to be in Kennedyville about two-thirty.

Local leaders of the young Democratic movment in Kent will join the Caravan at Kennedyville and will follow it to Chestertown, where it is expectd to arrive about three-fifteen. The group will parade through the streets here and will stop at the public square for a brief program of music and talks.

At the conclusion of the Chestertown program the entire calvacade will proceed to Rock Hall, arriving there about four-hirty. Local Democratic leaders will be on hand to greet the group and a similar, as staged in Chestertown, will be presented.

LIBRARY SCHEDULE CHANGES NEXT THURSDAY

The winter schedule at the Chestertown Public Library will go into effect next Thursday, October 1st.

Under the new schedule the library will be open in the afternoons, Tuesdays and Saturdays from 2 to 5 o'clock. Under the summer schedule the library was open in the mornings.

REGISTRATION STARTS NEXT TUESDAY

Registration of new voters and those with removal certificates will be held in the various precincts of Kent County next Tuesday, September 29, and the Tuesday following, October 6. Those not registered who are entitled to vote must apply in person on one of these dates in order to the coming national election. Those who are already registered here and are on the registration books do not have to reregister.

The registration will include county voters just come of age or not previously registered, citizens from outside Maryland who have declared their intention at least a year ago and those who have moved into Kent county from other counties in Maryland, or Baltimore city.

Voters from elsewhere who wish to transfer to Kent County will be registered provided they have lived in this county six months preceding the election and present a certificate of removal or transfer from the county from which they come. Transfer voters from Baltimore city or Frederick or Garrett counties do not have to present a certificate this year due to the act that there is a general registration in those counties. They must, however, present themselves at the places of registeration on one of the above dates and take oath as to their residence in this county.

The ruling of Attorney General Herbert O'Connor covering this point follows:

In Part 1 of the Attorney General's instructions on page 239 of the 1936 Election pamphlet, there appears an instruction titled 'Certificate of Removal', commonly called a transfer, providing that such a certificate is necessary before an applicant may change his place of voting. This year there is a general registration in Baltimore City and in Frederick and Garett Counties. In view of this situation you are instructed as follows: Where there is a general registration in the place from which an applicant has removed, no certificate of removal, or transfer, will be necessary.

ORGAN RECITAL AT WASHINGTON COLLEGE

JOHN H. ELTERMAN AT CONSOLE

Th New Hammond Electric Organ was most admirably demonstrated in a recital at William Smith Hall, Washington College on Wednesday evening, to a large audience. Mr. Eltermann a foremost organist in Baltimore presented the following program:

Handel ..... Largo
Callerts ..... Intermezzo
Bach ..... Aria (G'String)
Rubenstein ..... Russian Patrol
Guilmant ..... Pastorale
Wagner Evening Star from 'Tannhauser'
Bach, Toccata and Fugue (D. Minor)

The electric organ is capable of 253 million different tones. Pipeless, it can match in volume of sound the greatest pipe organs. Without reeds or trumpets it can simulate an infinite variety of musical instruments. The tone is pure and lovely beyond description. Synchonized by alternating current, the organ can never be out of tune. There are two key boards, with four harmonic control groups which can be so manipulated into millions of different relative positions to produce a tone color. Certain pre-set keys are arranged to produce qualities of the flute, diapason, string and reed families or any musical instrument. Besides the five-octave manual keyboards there is a pedal clavier of two octaves. The organ is unaffected by temperature or humidity; it can be easily moved, weighing only 275 pounds, and furthermore it requires no structural installation—it's ready to play wherever there is an electric outlet.

In the first number of Mr. Eltermann's program the qualities of the harp were brought out in Handel's Largo, while in Callerts' Intermezzo, the wind or reed instruments were accentuated. In the Russian Patrol the brass family and instruments of percussion were dominating and in the Guilmant's Pastorale the reed instrucmnts distinguished themselves with the English horn, oboe and flute as the principals. Wagner's Evening Star, the general favorite of the program, was beautifully rendered by the combination of reeds and strings outstanding with the exquisite diapason tones upporting. In the final number—Bach's Toccata and Fugue (D. Minor) only the diapason was heard. A stirring encore 'The Argonne 14' brought into play all the sounds of the battlefield an original composition of Mr. Eltermann's.

For those who missed the recital, to hear the organ someday will be a treat in store, but for those who heard it, to hear again, will be a treat once more.
