CHURCH NOTES

RADIANT LIVING

The Paradise of Fellowship

By Rev. C. M. Griffeth
Pastor Calvary M. E. Church
Sudlersville

Men have been fascinated by the charms of the shaggy Ozarks with their rich embracing ozone, their spirelike pines, and their woodland trails.

They have been captivatd by the imposing splendor of the Yosemit,e the Garden of the Gods, with its massive cags, its leaping waterfalls, and its enchanting vales.

Men have been awed to silence by the vast sweep of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, resplendent with the glories of the rainbow.

They have been enchanted by the paradisiacal valleys of California, basking in mellow sunshine, dotted with vineyards and orchards, and perfumed by the orange blossom.

But what are all these paradises of earth in comparison with the indescribableness of that Paradise of God into which the redeemed man enters when he comes into an intimate fellowship with Deity.

In this Garden of God there dwells an Infinite Peace into which the glamors of a godless world can not penetrate. Here the soul enjoys a bliss that is skin to heaven.

To know God, to enjoy His presence, to be at one with Him in purpose of life, to rest in His love, to exult in His joy, is to enter into an experience that that is akin to heaven.

You may travel East, or you may travel West,
But to travel with God, to travel best!
