WOMAN'S COLUMN

A STRING OF PEARLS

There is nothing that our country tries harder to break up than the evil of smuggling. But although she has her custom officers at every port there are many things that escape their vigilant eyes.

Eva Morland has been saving up year after year for a trip to Europe. When finally she had a sum sufficient she embarked in one of the smaller steamships where she met numbers of congenial people.

How she did enjoy the trip over! The lovely ocean, the feeling of comradeship and the freedom from care and worry. After seeing the British Isles she went to Paris, the shopping place for Americans.

But Eva passed the pretty things by knowing that her means were limited. It was on the day before sailing that she saw an exquisite string of pearls, something that she had always longed for. The shop keeper urged her to buy them. "You may wear them, and there will be no question of duty if you do," he said.

Eve was tempted. She bought the pearls, knowing that she did not have enough money left to pay the duty.

And so she went aboard wearing the pearls.

"What beauties! said the chamber maid, "why you did not have them before?" Though Eve was silent she felt perhaps the chamber maid did know, and she was annoyed by the familiar manner that the servant assumed towards her afterwards.

From that time the pearls were concealed about her dress.

At dinner that evening the talk turned on smuggling and the many penalties that it incurred. Eve got up from the table pale and trembling. Though she was never sea sick she pretended to be then and for three days she lay in her bed, worried almost to death. There was a Mrs. Capel, whose chair was next to hers on the deck. One day as Eve came out of her stateroom she staggered to her own chair, Mrs. Capel's place was empty and Eve knew that she was engaged in a game of bridge, but her lounge coat was lying on the chair. Then an impulse seized Eve. She got out her needle and thread and quickly ripping the fur collar, she sewed the pearls underneath. Mrs. Capel came up just as she had finished and Eve saw she was watching her.

Poor girl had learned truly that the way of the transgressor is hard. She had so looked forward to the homeward trip with her pleasant companjons. Now it was nothing but worry and anxiety and she avoided the merry gatherings in the evening.

When the ship docked and her things were looked over she went away feeling like a guilty creature.

But the pearls were in Mrs. Capels coat so Eve went to see her. "You have something that belongs to me" she said and she told Mrs. Capel the story. "You mean thing, did you want me arrested" screamed Mrs. Capel. "Oh, I knew that they would not suspect you," faltered Eve. "Well you are too late for I have just sent the coat down to the Salvation Army," rasped Mrs. Capel, so you will never get them." And then Eve went away knowing that Mrs. Capel had kept the pearls but as she could not go to law she had no redress.

NOW AND THEN

The river and I are congenial friends;
It shares all my moods with me;
When I'm sad it seems quiet and gray.
When glad it dances in glee.

And when I sit on its pebbly shore,
By thoughtful mien imbued;
The water, purling at my feet,
Seems to share my pensive mood.

Again when in storms its waves rise high;
As they dash away to the sea;
My heart is thrilled when I behold;
Its regal majesty.

A RIVER IN HEAVEN

One of the lovely things that is spoken of in that land which is far off is the River of Life. The old Hebrew poets, living in those dry lands speak continually of the rivers of water in a dry place.

And the old heathens, who worshipped Nature in all her forms used to think especially well of their river gods. The Romans adored the river Liber, its out let to the sea.

The people of Chestertown have reason to love the broad Chester that flows so peacefully along her channel undisturbed by little traffic of any kind.

WHY DON'T YOU . TRY IT? ..

After more than three months of suffering from a nervous ailment, Miss Glivar used Dr. Miles Nervine which gave her such splendid results that she wrote us an enthusiastic letter.

If you suffer from "Nerves." If you lie awake nights start at sudden noises, tire easily, are cranky, blue and fidgety, your nerves are probably out of order.

Quiet and relax them with the same medicine that "did the work" for this Colorado girl.

Whether your "Nerves" have troubled you for hours or for years, you'll find this time-tested remedy effective.

"Anthony Adverse" Stars

Fredric March and Olivia de Havilland come to the New Lyceum Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 5, 6 and 7, in the Warner Bros. production of "Anthony Adverse," based on Hervey Allen novel which has been read by more than three million people. With a cast of more than 2600 players and taking two and one-quarter hours to unreel, "Anthony Adverse" is said to be the predominant screen achievement to date.

"ANTHONY ADVERSE" . . . .

Hervey Allen's monument literary classic, "Anthony Adverse," brought to the screen with all its wealth of color and dramatic fire, has been booked by Manager Russell for the New Lyceum Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 5, 6 and 7.

Fredric March has the stellar role, with beautiful and talented Olivia de Havilland playing the leading feminine role.

In order to give this sweeping panoramic story the magnificance and magnitude it merited, Warner Bros., the producers, are said to have spared neither time, nor effort, nor cost. In fact more than two years were spent in preparing the script, in research work to make perfect the atmospheric settings, and in the actual filming of the many and intricate scenes.

There never has been a cast to approach this one in size, and few that will equal it in talent. There are ninety-eight principals with speaking parts, 2,550 bit players and extras, and nearly 3,000 artisans and technicians worked behind the cameras to make the picture letter perfect. More than 1,000 scenes were "shot" for the production on 131 mammoth sets.

The colorful and picturesque backgrounds are set in five countries on three continents. The scenes open in France, in the beautiful countryside and a great chateau, sweep through the Swiss and Italian Alps to the quaint city of Leghorn, Italy. then to Havana, Cuba, on to Afirca and the great slave marts of other days, back to Italy and again to France to the court of Napoleon Bonaparte.

The presentation of portions of two operas adds to the magnificence of the production. Number one was written especially for the picture by Aldo Franchetti, former conductor of the Chicago Opera Company. The second is the famous "L'Orfeo," and is produced on a mammoth scale in a replica of the Theatre de La Opera of Paris.

Fredric March, who proved himself a dashing hero in "The Barretts of Wimpole Street," "Smilin' Through," "Dark Angel" and many other big productions, has the title role.

The leading feminine part is played by Miss de Havilland, who startled the film world by her exceptional performances in "A Midsummer Night's Dream" and "Captain Blood."

Steffi Duna has the part of the half white, half African sweetheart of Anthony's at the time he is conducting a slave market on the Dark Continent. The role of Anthony's grandfather's sensuous housekeeper is played by Gale Sondergaard. The grandfather, a rich Scottish merchant doing business is Leghorn, Italy, is portrayed by the noted English actor, Edmund Gwenn.

Anthony's mother, married under pressure of her father to a Spanish nobleman, and who dies at her son's birth, is portrayed by Anita Louise. Claude Rains plays the role of the grandee of Spain who slays his wife's lover in a duel. The latter part is enacted by Louis Hayward.

Billy Mauch plays the part of Anthony when he is a boy of ten.

Mervyn LeRoy directed the picture from the screen play by Sheridan Gibney.

GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION PROPOSING AMENDMENTS

1936

PROCLAMATION OF THE GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND PROPOSING AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE

WHEREAS, at the January session of the General Assembly of Maryland, held in the year 1935, an Act was passed, to wit: Chapter 426 proposing an amendment to Section 21 of Article 4 of the Constitution of the State of Maryland, title "Judiciary Department," subtitle "Part III-Circuit Courts" providing for an additional Judge in the Sixth Judicial Circuit of Maryland, and to provide for the submission of said amendment to the qualified voters of this State for adoption or rejection; and

WHEREAS, at the January session of the General Assembly of Maryland, held in the year 1935, an Act was passed, to wit: Chapter 584 proposing an amendment to Section 13 of Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Maryland, title "Legislative Department," providing for the appointment of persons by the Governor to fill vacancies in the House of Delegates or in the Senate of the General Assembly of Maryland and providing for the submission of said amendment to the qualified voters of the State for adoption or rejection; and

WHEREAS, at the Extraordinary session of the General Assembly of Maryland, held in the year 1936, an Act was passed, to wit: Chapter 151 proposing an amendment to Section 39 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Maryland, title "Legislative Department," so as to strike out the provision therein to the effect that the General Assembly shall grant no charter for banking purposes, nor renew any banking corporation now in existence, except upon the condition that the stockholders shall be liable to the amount of their respective share or shares of stock in such banking institution, for all its debts and liabilities upon note, bill or otherwise; and providing for the submission of said amendment to the qualified voters of the State of Maryland for adoption or rejection; in words and figures as follows:

CHAPTER 426

AN ACT to amend Section 21 of Article 4, title "Judiciary Department," sub-title "Part III-Circuit Courts" of the Constitution of this State, and to provide for the submission of said amendment to the qualified voters of this State for adoption or rejection.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two houses concurring, that the following section be and the same is hereby proposed as an amendment to Section 21 of Article 4, title "Judiciary Department," sub-title "Part III-Circuit Courts" of the Constitution of this State, and if adopted by the legal and qualified voters thereof as herein provided, it shall supersede and stand in the place and stead of Section 21 of said Article 4.

21. For each of the said circuits, excepting the eighth and the third and the sixth, there shall be a chief judge and two associate judges, to be styled judges of the Circuit Court, to be elected or appointed as herein provided, and for the third circuit and for the sixth circuit, there shall be a chief judge and three associate judges to be styled judges of the Circuit Court, to be elected or appointed as herein provided. And no two of said associate judges, for any of the said circuits, except the third and sixth circuits shall, at the time of their election or appointment or during the term for which they may have been elected or appointed, reside in the same county. If two or more persons shall be candidates for associate judge in the same county in any of the circuits, except the third and sixth circuits, that one only in said county shall be declared elected who has the highest number of votes in the circuit. In case any two candidates for associate judge in any of the circuits, except the third and sixth circuits, residing in the same county shall have an equal number of votes greater than any other candidates for associate judge in the circuit, it shall be the duty of the Governor to order a new election for one associate judge; but the person residing in any other county of the circuit and who has the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. The said judges shall hold not less than two terms of the Circuit Court in each of the counties composing their respective circuits, at such times as are now or may hereafter be prescribed to which jurors shall be summoned; and in those counties where only two such terms are held, two other and intermediate terms, to which jurors shall not be summoned; they may alter or fix the time for holding any or all terms, until otherwise prescribed, and shall adopt rules to the end that all business not requiring the interposition of the jury shall be, as far as practicable, disposed of at said intermediate terms. One judge in each of the above circuits, including the third and sixth circuits, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business; and the said judges or any of them may hold special terms of their courts, whenever in their discretion, the business of the several counties renders such terms necessary. The additional associate judge for the third circuit herein provided for (shall be elected by the qualified voters of Baltimore and Harford Counties, at the first election that shall be held in said counties subsequent to the adoption of this amendment, and the judge so elected) shall be subject to the same constitutional provisions, hold his office for the same terms of years, receive the same compensation and have the same powers as are herein provided for the other associate judges in the third circuit.

The additional judge for the sixth circuit herein provided for shall be elected by the qualified voters of Frederick and Montgomery Counties at the first election that shall be held in said counties subsequent to the adoption of this amendment and none shall be appointed before that time. The judge so elected shall be subject to the same constitutional provisions, receive the same compensation and have the same powers as are herein provided for the other associate judges in the sixth circuit. The Chief Judge may be elected from either Frederick or Montgomery Counties, but when the Chief Judge is elected from Frederick County one of the associate judges shall be a resident of said County and the two remaining associate judges shall be residents of Montgomery County and when the Chief Judge is elected from Montgomery County one of the associate judges shall be a resident of said Montgomery County and the remaining two associate judges residents of Frederick County. In case any candidate or candidates for associate judge at any judicial election held in the sixth judicial circuit shall receive sufficient votes to cause such candidate or candidates to be declared elected, but the election of such candidate or candidates would cause more associate judges than herein permitted to reside in any county of said circuit, then and in that event only that candidate or those candidates, as the case may be, residing in said county in the order of the votes received shall be declared elected whose election would provide the permitted number of associate judges from said county and the candidate or candidates as the case may be, residing in the other county, and not similarly disqualified, who shall have the next highest number of votes in said election shall be declared elected. If, by reason of such a condition or by reason of an equal vote for two or more candidates a sufficient number of associate judges duly qualified as to residence as above set out should not be elected at any election in said sixth judicial circuit, then it shall be the duty of the Governor to order a new election for such unfilled office or offices.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the aforegoing section hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of this State shall be, at the next general election to be held in this State in the year 1936, submitted to the legal and qualified voters thereof for their adoption or rejection in pursuance of directions contained in Article 14 of the Constitution of this State, and at the said general election, the vote on the said proposed amendment shall be by ballot, and upon each ballot there shall be printed the words "For the Constitutional Amendment" and "Against the Constitutional Amendment," as now prescribed by law, and immediately after said election, due returns shall be made to the Governor of the vote for and against said proposed amendment as directed by said Article 14 of the Constitution.

Approved: May 17, 1935.

Section 13. In case of death, disqualification, resignation, refusal to act, expulsion, or removal from the county or city for which he shall have been elected, of any person who shall have been chosen as a Delegate or Senator, or in case of a tie between two or more such qualified persons, the Governor shall appoint a person to fill such vacancy from a person whose name shall be submitted to him in writing by the State Central Committee of the political party with which the Delegate or Senator, so vacating, had been affiliated in the County or District from which he or she was elected, provided that the appointee shall be of the same political party as the person whose office is to be filled; and it shall be the duty of the Governor to make said appointment within fifteen days after the submission thereof to him. In the event there is no State Central Committee in the County or District from which said vacancy is to be filled, the Governor shall within fifteen days after the occurrence of such vacancy appoint a person who is otherwise properly qualified to hold the office of delegate or senator in such District or County. In every case when any person is so appointed by the Governor, his appointment shall be deemed to be for the unexpired term of the person whose office has become vacant.

Easy Pleasant Way To LOSE FAT

How would you like to lose 15 pounds of fat in a month and at the same time increase your energy and improve your health?

How would you like to lose your double chin and your too prominent hips and abdomen and at the same time make your skin so clean and clear that it will compel admiration?

Get on the scale to-day and see how much you weigh—then get a bottle of Kruschen Salts that costs next to nothing and which will last you 4 weeks. Take one half teaspoonful in a glass of hot water in the morning—cut down on pastry and fatty meats—go light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar—and when you have finished the contents of this first bottle weigh yourself again.

After that you'll want to walk around and say to your friends, "One bottle of Kruschen Salts is worth one hundred dollars of any fat person's money."

But refuse imitations—safeguard your health—you loose fat SAFELY the Kruschen way.

NOTE—Many people find that the only diet change necessary while taking Kruschen regularly is TO EAT LESS.

FOR THOSE WHO REMAIN

When death visits a home, the first concern is to perform the last service to the loved one in a becoming manner. What ever is done must express all the reverance and affection that is felt at such a time. But in addition to this a further responsibility rests upon the funeral director. It is his privilege and duty to lessen as far as lies with in his power, the burdens laid upon those who remain. By countless little acts of thoughtfulness he can make the way easier for them.

We consider this part of our work as important as any other. Our highest aim is to have our patrons look upon us as trusted friends, ready and anxious to render sympathetic assistance to those who remain behind.

Funeral Director.
