The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

Foot-ball, weddings, fall suppers and the Presidential election in the offing, with the World Series over, the stage is really set for the entrance of the Autumn galeties. October 24 will be a big day on the calendar for residents of Chestertown and vicinity as well as graduates of Washington College. At this time there will be a dual celebration, for it not only marks the Homecoming Day at Washington, but the dedication of Hodson Hall, the college's new building. This ceremony will take place at 11 A. M. in the morning, the foot-ball game between Washington and Susquehanna following in the afternoon, with a reception to alumni and visitors in the new building at the conclusion of the game. The alumni dinner and dance sponsored by the Varsity Club will be the final feature of the day. So right now put a red circle around the 24th and keep the day closed to all else.

The earliest wedding of interest to take place will be that of Mr. Edward Hines, son of Mrs. W. D. Hines, of Baltimore, and brother of Mr. Dorsey Hines, and Miss Elizabeth Johnson which will take place at Mattapoisette, Mass., the home of the bride, on Saturday, October 17th. The future Mr. and Mrs. Hines will spend part of their honeymoon at Riverside, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines. As I told you last week, Miss Trilla Goheen and Mr. Frank Beck will be married the following week on Tuursday, October 22nd. Miss Dorothy Quarles has set Thursday, November 5th as her wedding date when she and Dr. Alexander Colclough Dick will be married in Houston, Texas, the home of the bride. Miss Elizabeth Brown, who will be one of Miss Quarles's bridesmaids will leave within a few days for Houston, where she will be her friend's house guest and participate in the many pre-nuptial events scheduled.

Mrs. Samuel Emory will be hostess on Tuesday to the members of "Our Garden Club." One of the features of the program will be an address by Miss Fannie Hartman and another address by Mrs. D. W. Ingersoll. Plans by the Club are fast under way for the Hardy Chrysanthemum show to be held in the parish house of Emmanuel Church on Thursday, October 29. The show is under the chairmanship of Mrs. Morris K. Barroll, and entries will be received at the parish house between 10 and 11.30 on that day.

Miss Susan Stam and Miss Ellen Nicholson of Washington, were guests in town last week, Miss Stam visiting Mr. and Mrs. Claude Truslow, and Miss Nicholson her uncle, Dr. J. R. Micou.

Mrs. William T. Dixon has returned from a week's visit to Baltimore, Princeton and Philadelphia where she was much entertained.

Mrs. Robert Wood has also been having a gay time and was the guest of honor at several luncheons and dinners in Emmittsburg in Woodbine, Howard County and in Washington, D. C., before returning on Tuesday to Chestertown. Mrs. Wood who is the house-guest of her mother, Mrs. H. A. Kratzer will shortly sail for Porto Rico where she and Mr. Wood are making their home now.

Others returning to town this week included Mr. Jack Barroll, who spent the latter part of the summer in Bethlehem, New Hampshire, and Mrs. Joseph Archbell who has been visiting in Cambridge, Mass., for the last ten days.

Mrs. H. Clay Brown and Miss Elizabeth Brown spent a few days in Philadelphia this week, visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. William H. Moyer with her young son, and accompanied by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Johnson, of Drexel Hill, Pa., will leave on Thursday to visit Mrs. Moyer's sister, Mrs. E. J. Stevens in Hammondsport, New York. This little town situated in the Finger Lake district is extremely beautiful at this time of the year and their motor trip up should be a most enjoyable one. Mrs. Moyer expects to be away a week or ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Deal Crooker and their small dauhter, Polly, of New York City will be week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines.

Miss Anne Boardman, of Baltimore, will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Collins, Jr., over the week-end.

Miss Margaret Jefferson, who entertained at a delightful luncheon-bridge party at the Lotus Inn on Tuesday, has had as her house-guest, Mrs. Robert Settle of Washington. With Mr. and Mrs. Settle and a party of friends, Miss Jefferson spent last week-end on a motor trip through Virginia via the Sky Line Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. James Banning, of Wilmington, were guests over night this week of Mr. and Mrs. Allan A. Harris.

Mrs. Ida L. Young, of Wilmington, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George N. Cooper on Campus Ave.

Mrs. Florence Fowler, of Elkton, Md., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Mamie Walters.

Mrs. Jean Goldthwaite, of Cuba, N. Y., was the week-end guest of Mrs. Ella P. Robinson, Kent Circle.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. Stam leave tomorrow for a visit with Mr. Stam's mother, Mrs. Annie H. Stam, in Washington, D. C.

Mr. William S. Collins and Mr. Ridgely Brown attended a meeting of the Chesapeake Bay Yacht Racing Association at Hampton, Va., last week-end, and while there witnessed the launching of the new airplane carrier, Enterprise.

As they say in the movies, after the funnies, "That's all folks", so till next week.

Yours ut infra,
THE WANDERER.

UNEMPLOYED INSURANCE EFFECTIVE IN MARYLAND

Approximately 25,260 needy men, women and children in Maryland are now covered by the public assistance and unemploymet compensation provisions of the Social Security Act. These figures were announced by Mr. Arthur E. Hungerford, State Director for the National Emergency Council for Maryland, and are based upon a report of the Social Security Board, summarizing the progress made under the Act in the eight months since it became operative.

Maryland has established public-assistance plans for aid to the needy aged, the needy blind, and dependent children, which with Federal aid, provide a regular income to individuals unable to provide for themselves. In September an estimated 11,000 aged, 560 blind, and 13,700 dependent children received assistance under these plans at a total cost of $326,600. Approximately one-half the cost of this aid to the aged and the blind and one-third the cost of aid to dependent children was paid by the Social Security Board.

Since the State began cooperation with the Federal Government under the terms of the Social Security Act, a total of $1,159,109 in Federal funds has come to Maryland to aid it in providing these benefits. It has received $630,222 for assistance to the needy aged, $33,075 for aid to the needy blind, and $495,812 for aid to dependent children in their own homes. Federal aid has made it possible for Maryland to provide much more adequately for its needy citizens than would be possible out of State and local funds alone.

In addition to these cooperative Federal-State features of the Social Security Act, Maryland citizens also come under the Federal old age benefit system provided by the Act.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our dear son, Dudley N. Sheltz died eight months ago today.

We have lost our darling son
He has bid us all adieu
He has gone to live in heaven
And his form is lost to view.

Oh that dear one how we loved him
Oh how hard to give him up.
But an angel came down for him
And removed him from our flock.

We had a darling treasure once
He was our joy and pride
We loved him and perhaps to well
For soon he slept and died

All is dark within our dwelling
Lonely are our hearts today
For the one we loved so dearly
Has forever past away.

His Mother.

IN MEMORIAM

From the James Alfred Perkins Sunday School clcass of the M. E. Church in memory of Mrs. Eva Hendershott.

She has taken her beautiful journey
To the land that is fairer than day;
Where the waters flow clear, and no shadows appear.
And His loved ones never astray.

She has taken her beautiful journey
Where His presence makes bright as the sun,
Where the tree of life grows and no weakness she knows,
Where her weariness ever is done.

She has taken her beautiful journey
Where 'tis music and fragrance and light,
Where the loved gone before, will the long years restore,
And where faith giveth place unto sight.

She has taken her beautiful journey
And she needeth not minist'ring hands,
But some wonderful day, we shall travel her way
And with her explore those fair lands.

She has taken her beautiful journey
And the quiet encloses like gloom,
But her spirit so rare, in the morning land fair,
Soars triumphant o'er grave clothes and tomb.

She has taken her beautiful journey
And the earth ties so sweet are now broken;
But a faith that is clear, feels her presence so dear
Like communion when no word is spoken.
