The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer:

Last week-end seemed to be a Home-coming one, a little in advance of the one due next week. But this was not for alumni of Washington College, but rather of students elsewhere, returning to parental doors, and perhaps yearning for a piece of Mother's pumpkin pie or other home-made goodies, for which, in a brief three or four weeks they have been starving. Columbus discovering America on Monday, this year, was very helpful, for it made the week-end a day longer, and every day of freedom is a pearl so rare. Among those I chanced to see were, Jimmy Metcalfe from McDonogh, who, by the way, simply loves it there; Lewin Wickes and Charles Chester Atwater from St. John's. Miss Janet Atwater, now living in New York, was also home, making the Atwater family complete in its reunion, with an additional guest, at the rectory, the Rev. Harry Paff, also of New York.

Dr. Esther M. Dole, who is First Congressional District Dircetor of the League of Women Voters attended the Sixteenth Annual Convention held at the Southern Hotel in Baltimore, Thursday and Friday. Last week-end, both her son, Charles, from Drexel University, and her daughter, Miss Alice Dole, who is teaching in Laurel, Del., were guests of their mother.

Miss Virginia Jones, of Baltimore, Mr. Scott Beck, Jr., and Mr. Frank Beck were among the home-comers, as well as Miss Harriette Welch of New York. Miss Welch was accompanied on her visit by Miss Hester Stevens, Miss Catherine Weer and Mr. Walter Minesing all of Long Island.

Miss Betty Thibodeau, who is attending the Catherine Gibbs School in New York, was the week-end guest of relatives here.

Mrs. Rudolph Tull, of Philadelphia was the guest over last week-end of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Beck.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilpin Brown were guests of Mrs. H. Clay Brown. Miss ElizabethBrown left on Tuesday for Houston, Texas, where she will be the guest of Miss Dorothy Quarles. En route, Miss Brown stayed with Mrs. A. W. Hamilton in St. Louis, overnight. Mrs. Hamilton is the daughter of Mr. Horace Beck.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Usilton, III, are spending this week-end in Baltimore and while there attended the Washington-Hopkins foot-ball game last night.

Mr. Carl LeCates left on Tuesday for Tuscon, Arizona to join his wife there.

Mrs. Mary V. Lane, of Wilmington, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McLaughlin.

Belated, but very sincere congratulations do we extend to Dr. Charles W. Whaland who celebrated his 87th birthday on Wednesday.

Congratulations were also in order on Monday last when Mr. and Mrs. J. Francis Connelly celebrated the seventh anniversary of their wedding. All three of Mrs. Connelly's sisters, Mrs. Henry Zeitlinger of New York, Mrs. Thomas Horsfield, Westfield, N. J., and Miss Julia Power of Baltimore were week-end guests of their parents, Dr. and Mrs. Julian Power and remained over Monday to participate in the celebration.

Speaking of weddings, to-day, marks the wedding day of Mr. Edward Hines and Miss Elizabeth Johnson which will take place at Mattapoisette, Mass., the home of the bride. On Wednesday, Mr. Horace W. Beck, Jr., of Atlanta, Ga., will come to be the best man at the wedding of his brother, Mr. Frank Beck and Miss Trilla Goheen which will take place at noon on Thursday, October 22nd.

Miss Jane Wright, of Savannah, Ga., came yesterday to be the house guest for a month, at the home of Mrs. William T. Dixon, Green Point Farm.

So now wishing you a pleasant week-end.

Yours at home,
THE WANDERER

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

QUAKER NECK ITEMS

Pomona seemed to be quite a busy place on Tuesday especially in the polls room, there being so much more work thanin former years. Owing to quite a large crowd moving in Quaker Neck and the seventh district, "We welcome them."

Mr. and Mrs. John Hilyard, of Millington, were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm.E. Dickerson on Sunday.

Quite a few of the members of "Our Garden Club" attended the meeting at Mrs. Samuel Emory's from Quaker Neck on Tuesday.

Mr. Frank Whiteley and son, of Trappe, Md., a brother-in-law of the ex-sheriff William Goodman, visited his relatives in Quaker Neck on Sunday. Mr. Whiteley was a resident of Cliffs good many years ago, and relatives and friends were very much pleased to see them.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson, of Baltimore, spent the week-end at Quaker Neck Wharf.

Quite a large crowd attended and enjoyed the services held at Bond Church on Sunday the beginning of the revival services there and have for this week a blind evangelist, Rev. Cantwell, of Delaware. Come out and hear him.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Elburn, of Piney Neck, and Mr. Elburn's sister, of Baltimore, visited with relatives and friends at Cliffs on Sunday.

Mr. W. R. Startt, Mr. R. R. Walbert and Mr. Frank Cranor motored to Cambridge on Saturday.

We are glad to hear little Billy Stoops son of Mr. and Mrs. William Stoops, of Fairlee, is at home and much improved after an operation at Easton Hospital.

Rev. and Mrs. F. H. Truitt had as their guest Mrs. Truitt, sister and brother and friend, from Cheswold, Del., last week, is now entertaining the evangelist for the week.

Mr. Gilbert Ingersol, a student at the University of Maryland, was home to visit his mother, over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Roemer, of Wilmington, Del., and Miss Nancy Shakespeare, of Centreville, was home for the week-end at the Lanchester farm.

Miss Flora Dickerson is spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Spencer Simmons in Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchel Shorter, of Cambridge, Md., spent Saturday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Dickerson, of Cliffs.

Mr. Nelson Boone, of Betterton, was Saturday night and Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goodman. Mrs. Boone accompanied her husband to their home after Mrs. Boone spending a week at Cliffs.

Mr. Marion VanSant, of Galena, visited friends at Cliffs on Sunday.

Little Miss Ann Comegys Brown is lots better after being quite sick a few days last week.

While working on the roof at the home of Mrs. Harold Baker on Monday Edgar Walbert caught a pigeon on the third story window and had 2 bands on its legs, the metal band had the numbers N. Y. C. 36, 849, the green rubber band had T19. The pigeon was very tame, tired and hungry and seemed very contented after a full meal.

Mr. and Mrs. Mawell Smith, of Chestertown, were overnight guests of Mrs. Smith's parents, at Cliffs, the past week-end.

Mrs. Edward Greenwood returned to her home on Friday after spending a few days in Baltimore.

Mr. William E. Dickerson is night watchman over at the John J. Raskob estate Pioneer Point Farm, Centreville, Md.

Precious Sentiment EXPRESSED by GENUINE Orange Blossom Rings
Every year a significantly larger proportion of nuptials are centered around genuine Orange Blossom Rings by Traub. Why? Because their prestige, quality and enduring design cost no more than ordinary rings.
