HI SPOTS FROM THE HI SCHOOL

By EMORY M. HINES, JR.

At the last meeting of the Debate Club an interesting and timely topic was debated upon; Resolved: That the present size of the REFLECTOR is better than the size used last year. Those who were on the victorious affirmative side were Charlotte Russell and Emory Hines; while Neal Truslow and Joe Weer attempted to disprove the statement by acting as the negative side. Several main and strong points were given by both sides, but the affirmative presented the most and won.

Held last Wednesday, October 21, the Sophomore Class as a whole met in the auditorium during the activities period to elect their first semester officers. Harry Everett holds the position of President now, and Robert Gibson, the position of Vice-President. Doris Dulin received by far the most votes for the secretarial job. The remainder of the meeting was devoted to discussion of a program committee which consists of Betty Beck, Helen Marie Culver, and Harold Boericke. The date of the next meeting has not been announced as yet.

Perhaps it would be well to make a correction here concerning the announcement of the DRAGON staff made in last week's edition of the TRANSCRIPT. The class editors are Nellie Bexley and Harry Hendricikson, and Joe Weer is in charge of humor. Art editors, which I also failed to mention are Kemp Bordley and Howard Strong, Jr. The assistant business manager that was unchosen when we went to press last time is Catherine Lusby.

Almost seventeen people from the Senior Class had paid money to secure tickets to see Leslie Howard in "Hamlet" in Philadelphia on October twenty-seventh, going with Miss Riches, and with the transportation arrangements complete. However, even at the early date which the tickets were requested, the house was sold out. Consequently, the trip was called off. Perhaps the play will come to Baltimore, though, and we will secure a group to go there then.

If you like to laugh, if you want to forget your troubles, if you have a good sense of humor, then you are bound to be tickled pink over the delightfully mad play, "Campus Quarantine," as produced by the Footlights and Francie Club at William Smith Hall on November 23. Robert Ray, author of this exceptionally clever comedy, is well known for his many stage successes and unusual plots. In "Campus Quarantine" he has taken an incident that really happened and has woven a play that is so packed with funny lines, humorous situations and witty dialog, that an audience never experiences a dull moment. Much time expended in work and careful attention to detail and characterization by the local high school group will result in a performance that is sure to be hailed with acclaim by those who see the play. Every character is a distinctive type, drawn from life, and the predicaments they become embroiled in will keep an audience at the fever pitch of hilarity for an entire evening. Don't forget the dat,e November 23, and the play "Campus Quarantine." You will long remember it as one of the most enjoyable evenings you have experienced in years.

Another meeting of importance that was held last Wednesday was that of the Freshmen class. They also elected officers. Calvin Lynch represents the group as President; Alan Eliason, as Vice-President; Joyce Pote, as Secretary; and Mary Louisa Truslow, as Treasurer. Those who have charge of the entertainment for the following meeting are Elmer Thomas, Charles Crowding, Hope Marie Jones, Arthur Newsome, and Eleanor Jones.

The concrete walks that surround the building have been completed by the PWA workers and their remaining time has centered on the pouring of concrete to form the curbs of the driveway.

The Honor Roll for the month of September follows below:

Freshmen: Louise Baxter, James Bringman, Hazel Ford, Rosalie Bonnett, Ella Coleman, Katherine Magrogan, Lena Geary, Eleanor Jones, Betty Groves, Natalie Goodman, Billy Payne, Elmer Thomas, Mary Louisa Truslow, Dorothy Hillyard, Joyce Pote, Madeline Thrift, and Wickes Westcott.

Juniors: Ruth McVean, Mary Liz Humphreys, Miriam Sewell, Catherine Newton, Ellen Bordley, Frances Kreeger, Laura Greewood, Lannie Russell, Anna Lucht.

Seniors: Virginia Foley, Kitty Bringman, Harry Hendrickson, Helen Strong, Wayne Pote, Anne Turner, Joseph Weer, Jeanette Sutton, Neal Truslow, Mina Brown, Eloise Jervis, Francis Mead, Marie Miller, Harriett Coleman, Helen Westcott, Ruth Adams, Gerson Bonnett, Nellie Bexley, Charlotte Russell, Estelle Beaver, and Emory Hines. (Note: Those people on the roll from Miss Peacock's home room will receive recognition next week.)

And last but not least, the fact should surely be mentioned that yesterday, Friday, the twenty-third was the first holiday for this school year. The reason the leave of absence was granted was because of the State Teachers' Meeting in Baltimore that is held on both Friday and Saturday. Another holiday that is coming up in the near future is that of the following week. The national election is the cause of this one.

Before I close this week's chat let me tell you that I will have a complete resume next week of the soccer games played up to October 28th. And perhaps the rema[in]

Sacred Foot Print

A simple impression in a rock on Adam's Peak in Ceylon—five feet by two feet and shaped like a human foot—is sacred to a third of the world's population. The 175,000,000 Buddhists claim it was made by Buddha, the 250,000,000 Hindus maintained it was made by their god Siva and the 250,000,000 Mohammedans assert that it was made by Adam when he stood there, on one foot for 200 years, to expiate his crime in the Garden of Eden. —Collier's Weekly.

How "Wewanta" Was Named

Many curious stories are told about how places got their names, none more odd than a postoffice in Lincoln county, West Virginia. Inhabitants made the usual petition for mail service and after determining to grant the request it is said that the Post Office Department asked what the office should be called. "Call it what you please," was the reply, "only we want a post office." And "Wewanta" it was and it is.—Pathfinder Magazine.
