Mickey Rooney, Freddie Bartholomew, Jackie Cooper in "The Devil Is A Sissy"

Three new songs and a revival of several perennial favorites will feature the musical side of the Cosmopolitan production, "Cain and Mabel," co-starring Marion Davies and Clark Gable, which comes to the New Lyceum Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, November 2, 3 and 4, as a Warner Bros.. release

The new songs, all written by the team of Harry Warren and Al Dubin, are "I'll Sing You a Thousand Love Songs," "Coney Island," and "Here Comes Chiquita."

The old favorites that will be revived as part of the "Thousand Love Songs" production number are "L'-Amour Toujour," "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms," "The Shadow Waltz," "Who?" and "A Rose in Her Hair."

"Here Comes Chiquita" is sung by David Carlyle and a male chorus while "Coney Island," theme song for the production number of the same name, is sung by Miss Davies and Sammy White, the eccentric dancing-singing comedian.

"I'll Sing You a Thousand Love Songs" is sung by Carlyle and the solosits for the other numbers are Lawrence King, who sings "L'Amour Toujour"; Larry Burke, the "street singer" of "The Informer," who sings "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms"; Dick Dennis, who sings the "Shadow Waltz"; Charles Teske, who sings "Who?" with a male chorus; and Enrico Ricardi, who sings "A Rose in Her Hair" in Italian.

The old favorites all form a part of the "Thousand Love Songs" number and as each soloist is heard the number is interpreted in dance by one hundred and sixty chorines. There are different settings, too, for each song with the exception of "A Rose In Her Hair," "Shadow Waltz" and "Who?" all of which are combined on the same set.

For the first time, three of the most famous boys in motion pictures are teamed in the same screen story. They are Freddie Bartholomew, Jackie Cooper and Mickey Rooney.

The new picture, "The Devil Is A Sissy," based upon an original story by Rowland Brown comes to the New Lyceum on Thursday and Friday, November 5 and 6.

fff"The Devil Is a Sissy" is the story of three boys who become inseparable pals and, strangley enough, features three boys who are boon companions in real life.

Freddie Bartholomew plays a rich English lad who meets his unusual companions by visiting his father's studio on New York's East Side.

Jackie Cooper's role is that of the son of an executed convict, while Mickey Rooney portrays another juvenile product of the sidewalks of New York.

Despite the wide chasm of society that usually separates wealthy children from those of the slums, "The Devil Is A Sissy" emphasizes that neither creed nor race can keep apart boys of different social strata when their lives and friendships are so closely woven together.

The story shows that these three boys, raised in totally different environments, are brothers under the skin; that life must be faced down on the streets, where the battles are fought; that parental mismanagement can wreck a life unless better influences, such as the schools and the courts, save it.

Not only is there action in every scene, the sort of action to appeal to children audiences, but there is a tender, romantic love story which will appeal to adults.

Fast-moving scenes include the street-football episodes, the fight between Freddie and Jackie, Freddie's first day in school, his meeting with the "gang," the house-breaking, and such sympathetic episodes as Freddie's scenes with his father, Mickey's attempt to buy the tombstone, scenes between the judge and the boys, and the hospital sequence.

The additional supporting cast includes such well-known names as Etienne Girardot, the school principal; Mary Doran, the school-teacher; Jonathan Hale, the judge; Andy Tobs, the policeman; and Christian Rub, the stone-cutter.

The picture bears the distinguishing touches of that director of directors, W. S. Van Dyke, and comes on top of such of his recent successes as "San Francisco" and "His Brother's Wife."

Drumhead Court Martial

Any summary trial is sometimes called a drumhead court-martial. Originally the name was given only to a summary and hasty court-martial called to try an offense committed on the battlefield or during a march. Most of the forms and ceremonies are dispensed with. The name comes from the fact that formerly such court-martials were often conducted around a drum used as a table.

The astonishing story of GULFPRIDE
THE WORLD'S FINEST MOTOR OIL

THE results you get from GULFPRIDE OIL can be obtained from no other motor oil in the world!

For only GULFPRIDE is made from choice Pennsylvania crude . . . refined to equal the best motor oils on the market . . . and then further refined by Gulf's exclusive Alchlor process.

This process was developed by Gulf after 15 years of scientific research—the kind of painstaking research that is behind every Gulf product.

Read the facts below. Then replace your summer-worn oil with WINTER GULFPRIDE now. At all Gulf dealers.

(Left) BEATING THE BEST. No other process refines oil so thoroughly as Gulf's Alchlor process. When a blend of 6 of the finest Pennsylvania motor oils—already highly refined—was put through this process, 20% waste came out. Proof that the Alchlor process makes GULFPRIDE finer than the finest other Pennsylvania oils.

EASTERN AIR LINES' Great Silver Fleet uses GULFPRIDE only in every one of its 21 mighty planes. No other oil will do, because no other oil can match GULFPRIDE—the world's finest motor oil—for safety, stamina, and low cost per mile. That's just as true in your car, too.

A GULFPRIDE USER drove from Bennington, Vt. to Portland, Ore., averaging 400 miles a day. He did not add a single drop of oil. An unusual record, yes. But expect GULFPRIDE to take you farther before you need a quart than any other oil you ever used.

People Of Maryland
Vote Against Roosevelt!

He is influenced by European minded advisors who are trying to centralize all power in Washington.

Do you know what that means practically to the farmer? It means, according to the President's Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, that no farmer can plow his land without a permit from Washington.

When the AAA was set aside by the Supreme Court, President Roosevelt predicted chaos and spoke contemptuously of the farmer being permitted to be "a lord on his own land".

To the storekeeper and business man it is the same. There is to be control from Washington of production, prices, hours and wages.

Our local and State governments will practically cease to exist, and we will be under the domination of strangers operating from some office in Washington.

The New Deal Is Not The Democratic Party
YOU NAME IT!

At the Dubinsky meeting for Roosevelt in Baltimore last week George L. Berry, the President's labor advisor, said:

"The old parties are being dismantled."

In Nebraska—The President endorsed the Independent Republican Norris for the Senate, thereby causing the duly nominated Democrat to withdraw.

In Wisconsin—The President endorsed the hybrid Republican LaFollette party and left the Democratic candidates to their fate.

In Minnesota—The Farmer-Labor Party was endorsed by the New Deal, causing the regular Democratic candidates to withdraw.

From the Principles of the Farmer-Labor Party of Minnesota (1924):

"We declare that * * * immediate steps must be taken by the people to abolish capitalism * * *".

AS BROWDER SAID, "The Farmer-Labor Party is the proclaimed goal of the Communist Party of the United States."
