RADIANT LIVING

The Matterhorn of Love

By Rev. C. M. Griffeth
Pastor Calvary M. E. Church
Sudlersville

I often wonder if we ever realize as we should the supreme importance of love? Is not love God's highest will for man?

When we speak of love we are, indeed, in the mountain country of God.

Many tourists often wait for days in the Alpine villages, hoping that the mists that hover about the stupendous heights might break away sufficiently to afford them a glimpse of the glory of the sunkissed peaks.

But no less sublime are those spiritual heights of faith and hope which reach higher toward heaven than all other altitudes of goodness and of virtue, with the exception, however, of that stupendous height which pierces heaven itself, the lofty Matterhorn of Love.

As a certain writer beautifully says: "To love Jesus and to be conscious that He loves us is to experience the holiest and the happiest emotion of the human heart. And naturally, the highest ideal of heavenly bliss is an eternal union with Him—to be where He is and to be like Him."

Who can read the Scriptures and not read of love?

When we turn to Romans we read: "Love one another with brotherly love." We turn to Galatians and read: "By love serve one another." We open Ephesians and read: "Walk in love, as Christ." We loaf over to Colossians and read: "Being knit together in love." And to the Thessalonians and read: "Abound in love one to another." We turn to the beloved Apostle John and read: "God is love, and he that abideth in love abideth in God and God in him."
