THE SOCIAL WANDERER

Dear Roamer:

It's real foot-ball weather now, and as the days grow colder, our thoughts turn to Thanksgiving, which if you are not aware of the fact, in less than two weeks off. Then, all the college and prep school crowd will be pouring home, some wtih guests, and the old turkey will be but a thing of bones in no time. It seems but yesterday, that I was getting all these young, happy people off to school, and now, next week, I'll be bringing them home. Yes, and in a very few more weeks, it will be home again for Christmas and the big goings on. So it goes!

Mrs. Frank Simpers is one up on the other mothers, and Thursday welcomed her daughter, Mrs. James Chapman of Belfast, Maine for a visit of two weeks.

Miss Elizabeth Brown, who returned on Monday from Houston, Texas, will spend this week-end in Philadelphia, with relatives and friends, and while there attend the Penn-Penn State foot-ball game, Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Walter Henson, of St. Louis, who is the guest of Mrs. Simon Westcott, will spend this week-end in Washington, returning to Mrs. Westcott's on Monday. Mrs. Henson has been much entertained during her visit here, and on Tuesday evening was the guest of honor at a delightful bridge party, given by Mrs. Roland Corey.

All of last week-end was taken up with the Country Fair, at which both old and young were present. You have heard by this time that it was a huge success not only financially, but in affording two very pleasant days for all who attended. Much credit is due to Mrs. Grace Maxwell and the many other ladies who assisted.

"Our Garden Club" was entertained on Tuesday by Mrs. James G. Beck. The meeting, of a business nature, elected officers for the coming year. Mrs. Jesse Maxwell was re-elected presdent, Mrs. Jas. Beck succeeded Mrs. H. Clay Brown as vice-president, Mrs. Morris K. Barroll, succeeded Mrs. Richard H. Collins, Jr., as secretary, and Mrs. Harold Baker was elected treasurer, succeeding Mrs. Dorsey Hines. On Friday, yesterday, the Garden Club met at the Country Club, where Mrs. Charles F. Peace, of Severna Park, and Chairman of the State Conservation Committee, gave a most interesting lecture on the conservation of certain native planting materials, and also a demonstration on the making of Christmas decorations from common native plants. The meeting was open to the public.

Mrs. Wm. T. Dixon, yesterday, closed her home, Green Point Farm, and will spend the next two weeks, prior to going to Savannah, Ga., visiting in Baltimore with her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. Ridgely Simpson, in Ruxton, and in Philadelphia, where she will attend the Army-Navy game. Miss Jane Wright, who has been Mrs. Dixon's houseguest for the past month, returned to Savannah, yesterday. Both Mrs. Dixon and Miss Wright have been guests of honor at several informal luncheons the past week, among which, was one given by Mr. Wilbur Ross Hubbard last Sunday, at Wide Hall, the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hubbard.

Lieut. Harry Derringer, has returned from a hunting trip to Spangler, Pa. He and Mrs. Deringer and their little son, will occupy the home of Mrs. Lula B. Dukes, December 1 for the winter months, while Mrs. Dukes visits her daughter in Denton.

Mrs. J. Hydie Thompson, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. William H. Robertson on Queen St. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hammell, of Haddon Heights, N. J., were week-end guests of Mrs. Robertson also.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Clark, of the Baldwin Apartments, have been spending a week in New York with friends and relatives.

Miss Rebecca Kendall, of Ancon, Panama, has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Kendall, during the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carvel, of Media, Pa., come on Thursday and will be guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kratzer until after the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Beck, of Baltimore, will be week-end guests of the former's father and sister, Mr. Horace Beck and Mrs. C. Beck Jones.

Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead were among those from Chestertown who attended the Navy-Notre Dame game in Baltimore last Saturday. Dr. and Mrs. Mead were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hopkins at their home in Roland Park.

By the time you read this, Friday the 13th will be over, but I still say beware of the JINX! It seems to be following, particularly the ladies, around Chestertown.

Mrs. Harry B. Nicholson was painfully burned about the hands and chest when a chemical which her son, Harry B. Nicholson, Jr., had brought in her kitchen, exploded. Mrs. Thomas Massey, executive secretary of the Kent County Welfare Board, was severely burned about the body when a quantity of tomato juice from tomatoes which she was canning boiled over. Then on Sunday last, Mrs. Harry S. Russell fell at her home on Front St. and suffered a cut on her chin that required ten stitches to close. On Tuesday Mrs. E. R. Anthony was slightly injured when the automobile she was driving collided with a truck which had stopped near Jarrell's Corner on the Chestertown-Kennedyville highway.

So keep your fingers crossed and look both ways.

Yours for safety,
The Wanderer.
