PENINSULA NEWS

Activities In Other Shore Counties

Spurred by a petition signed by 118 residents of Berlin, the Berlin Mayor and Council have announced passage of Ordiance No. 73, which prohibits the erection or establishment of a gasoline filling station or automobile garage "within 200 feet of any church within the corporate limits of Berlin."

Mayor Covington D. Powell declared the new Ordinance was enacted in special session of the Berlin City Council following city-wide protest, led by the official Board of Stevenson Methodist Episcopal erection of a gasoline filling station on a lot located opposite Stevensson M. E. Church on North Main in Berlin.

The Ordinance provides the imposition of a fine ranging from $1 to $50 upon violators of the Ordinance, to be imposed for each and every day that construction of a filling station should take place. It also empowers the Berlin Mayor and Council to tear down or remove any such building placed in violation of the provisions of Ordinance 73.

Another provision prohibits the erection of any gasoline pump within ten feet of the sidewalk curb of any street in Berlin.

The Cecil County Board of Education in special meeting Monday opened the bids on the new high school building for Elkton and found four of the twelve bids from different contractors within $5,000 of each other. The bid was awarded to the Cogswell Construction Company of Baltimore, at $192,350.

The four lowest bids received on the proposed new school were as follows: Cogswell Construction Company, Baltimore, $192,350; Philip Lanf, Audubon, N. J., $192,371; Seymour Ruff & Sons Company, Baltimore, $197,763; Lacchi Construction Company, Baltimore, $193,428. The specifications call for the school to be erected out of Port Deposit granite. The federal government has made a grant of $80,000 for the school.

Accomodate 450 Pupils

The new school will consist of twenty classrooms and an auditorium with a seating capacity of 500. The building will be three stories faced with Port Deposit granite with some limestone trim, and will be approximately 200 by 100 feet. The school will have facilities for 450 pupils.

The auditorium will be 60 by 30 feet with modern equipment including a stage. Among the twenty classrooms are three science rooms, a library, three commercial rooms and an industrial arts shop.

E. William Martin and Ralph A. Jeffers are the architects for the building.

Bricklayers and stone cutters are finding work at Port Deposit where Donaldson Brown, recent purchaser of Mt. Ararat Farm the former home of Dr. Joseph I. France, is erecting a $500,000 mansion. It is said about eighty bricklayers have been put to work and 25 extra stonecutters have been hired at the granite quarry getting out stone that will be used in the construction work.

The new home of Mr. Brown is being constructed on Mt. Ararat Farm and the work is being done under the direction of New York contractors.

William Scott, 48-year old storekeeper of Anne Arundel county, who drifted ashore on Kent Island after a dramatic escape from Anne Arundel authorities after receiving a prison sentence and who rowed and drifted for twenty-four hours in an open boat, was arrested at Queenstown about 1 o'clock Wednesday morning of last week by State Patrolman Albert F. Anderson and Constable Wrightson Beecher and lodged in Centreville jail.

Scott convicted Monday evening of selling or giving obscene literature to minors and allowed to return home, seized a shotgun fired once and escaped to the woodsfl He said when interviewed that he contemplated suicide but was unable to remove the first shell from the gun.

He took a rowboat below Shadyside, rowed and drifted to the Bay and headed for Annapolis. Before reaching there he tossed the gun overboard the gun, shells and deeds to his property.

He was hailed by the Matapeake ferry two freighters and other craft but eventually made land ten miles below Stevensville where two men plowing with a tractor helped him ashore, gave him lunch and started him to Stevensville. From there he bought a ticket for Centreville, got off the train at Queenstown and put up for the night at Harry Bishop's Inn. It was here that the officers apprehended him.

The Easton Hospital in October had 181 patients. Only 34 of these were pay patients, 49 part pay and 96 free. There were 150 dispensary cases, 99 operations, 6 accidents and 23 births.

Talbot county, had 19 pay, 22 part pay and 45 free; Queen Anne 3 pay, 5 part pay, and 11 free; Caroline, 8 pay, 13 part pay and 27 free; Kent 3 pay, 6 part play and 12 free, and seven other cases from scattered points.

The office of the National Youth Adminstration in Easton, Max Chambers in charge, will be moved to Salisbury in about two weeks, thus depriving Easton of this office and what it implies, and making six counties of the Shore go way down the Shore to Salisbury. The saving may be a little but the expense to the public will be great by this move.

Final preparations are being made to open Denton's new industry, a button factory, built this summer.

B. Schwanda & Sons, of New York, owners of the plant, advertised for experienced cutters to apply for positions. They stated in the advertisement that work in the cutting department would start this week. Operators for the splitting, backing turning and polishing departments will be considered later.

The town has opened two new streets leading to the button factory.

When Dr. Ira N. Gabrielson, chief of the United States Biological Survey and guardion of the migratory wild-fowl population in the United States, lately announced new regulations to govern the shooting of ducks and geese and their kind, he came close to blotting out the glory of the famous Susquehanna flats, supreme for generations as a playground for the elite of the ducking fraternity.

As a rendezvous for the lordly canvasback, the redhead, blackhead and lesser varieties by the thousands, the mouth of the Susquehanna, affectionately known as "the Flats," will continue as long as its unsurpassed wild-celery beds offer their bounteous food.

The board of Town Commissioners of Elkton will carry its suit against the State Roads Commission to the Maryland Court of Appeals. The suit was instituted to restrain the roads commission from discontinuing the lighting of two bridges here.

An injunction was granted in the early spring against the commission. Later the Circuit Court here heard argument in the case and the past week a decree was handed down by Associate Judge J. Owen Knotts dissolving the injunction and dismissing the bill of complaint with the costs of the case placed on the town of Elkton.

The commissioners of Elkton claim that when permission was granted the State Roads Commission to close certain streets and erect bridges an agreement was reached whereby the commission was to keep the bridges illuminated at night.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Entirely vegetable, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else. 65c.
