THE SOCIAL WANDERER

Dear Roamer:

Christmas and the gay holiday following is upon us almost, and already the girls are wondering what to wear to all the many parties being arranged. The Chester River Yacht and Country Club has announced the dates for two dances during the holidays, one to be given the night after Christmas, December 26th, and the other New Year's Eve. Naturally, they will be big affairs and so, save your prettiest frocks for them, girls. In the meantime, if I seem to be chasing ahead too much, on Tuesday, December 1 the Club is giving a turkey supper for adult members. This will be followed by cards, bridge, Rum or any game you choose to play. So, don't say you haven't anything to look forward to.

To-day, there's much excitement astir around the Washington College campus for this afternoon, there will be the exciting foot-ball game with the University of Delaware. Of course everyone in the community will turn out to see this battle, whether a fan or nay, for this is the game of the season as far as our boys are concerned even to the point of being broadcasted over W D E L. At this time, the Alumni will return and a program for their entertainment after the game has been arranged. A stag dinner will be held at the Voshell House at 7 P. M., followed by a dance at the Country Club at 9 P. M.

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Dick are now residing in the Baldwin Apartments having returned from their wedding trip on Tuesday. Parties and entertainments in their honor are starting almost at once. On Monday, Mrs. H. Clay Brown will be hostess at a luncheon given for Mrs. Dick and on Tuesday evening Mrs. Brown and Miss Elizabeth Brown will entertain at dinner and bridge in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Dick. Other parties are brewing, I hear, but more anon.

While still talking of parties, Mr. and Mrs. Rolph Townshend and Mr. and Mrs. Browne Metcalfe will entertain at a buffett supper to-night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Townshend prior to the dance.

On Monday evening Mrs. Frank Simpers and her daughter, Mrs. James Chapman will entertain members of Mrs. Chapman's sorority at Washington College, at their home on Queen St.

This week, numerous ones of the younger set will return for Thanksgiving, as well as those who are making their home elsewhere. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Cooke, and little daughter, Anne Washington, of Elizabeth, N. J., and Mr. Thos. Perkins of Baltimore, will be guests of Mrs. A. T. H. Harper over the holiday.

Mrs. Wm. T. Dixon who spent last week-end in Baltimore will return to the county on Monday and be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Collins, Jr., until Thanksgiving when she will reopen her home, Green Point Farm, and have her son, Bill Dixon, a student at Gilman Country School, spend the remainder of the week with her, before leaving for Savannah, Ga.

The Southern Medical Association held in Baltimore this week was attended by Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines. They were accompanied by Mrs. Catherine Beck Jones, who with her father, Mr. Horace Beck returned on Friday. Mr. Beck has been a guest in Baltimore since Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hynson Rogers, have returned from a two weeks visit to the home of the latter's sister in Indiana.

Mrs. A. V. Golt, of Urbana, Va., is the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Owen Selby on Mt. Vernon Ave.

Edmund Derringer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Derringer left on Friday for Florida, where he will spend the winter.

Mrs. Fannie Wheatley has been the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. F. Russell Sr., in Salisbury, all of this week.

The wedding of Miss Eugenia Hooper Klinefelter, daughter of Mrs. B. H. Klinefelter, of Roland Park, Baltimore, and Dr. Frederick Allen Holden will take place Wednesday, Nov. 25 at 5 P. M. at the home of the bride's mother. The bride, who will be given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Harcourt Klinefelter, of New York, will wear a gown of white satin with a veille of tulle caught by orange blossoms, and will carry a bouquet of white gardenias. Miss Dorothy Noble, of Easton, niece of the bride, will act as bridesmaid and will be Miss Klinefleter's only attendant. She will wear a gown of blue crepe with a picture hat to match. Dr. Fred Smith, of Baltimore, will be Dr. Holden's best man.

A reception will immediately follow the ceremony after which the bride and groom will leave for a wedding trip and upon their return live on Charles St. Ave., in Baltimore.

Mrs. Herbert Stewart, of Dallas, Texas, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Kirby and Mrs. May M. Beck at intervals for the past few weeks, although Mrs. Stewart has made her headquarters in Greensboro with her mother. Mrs. Stewart, formerly Miss Fannie Beckam, County Health Nurse, has been extensively entertained during her visits to Kent County.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton spent last week-end in Baltimore. Mrs. Usilton remaining over until Thursday. They were guests while in the city of Dr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Gardner.

Mrs. W. D. Hines, of Baltimore, came yesterday and will remain until Monday as the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines, at Riverside.

Mr. O. B. Locklear, National Executive Secretary of Theta Kappa Nu, a native of Birmingham, Ala., and now residing in Cleveland, has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead since Thursday and will remain over the week-end. On Friday night, Dr. and Mrs. Mead attended the meeting and banquet of the Philadelphia Chapter of the Washington College Alumni in that city. They will return to-day in time for the game this afternoon.

Mrs. Charles Atwater will have as her guests over the week-end and part of next week, her sister, Miss Mary Wilson and two friends, of Philadelphia. On Monday evening, Mrs. Atwater will entertain at a bridge party in their honor.

Mrs. Simon Westcott and Mrs. Edwin Valiant, of Centreville, have returned from a visit to Baltimore, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Shure, formerly of Chestertown.

Miss Harriett Welch, of Long Island will be the guest over Thanksgiving and the week-end of her aunts, Mrs. Etta Fountain, and Mrs. Herbert Skipper. Mrs. Fountain and Mrs. Skipper have been guests for the past ten days of Mrs. Roger Wilson of Wilmington.

Dr. Berta Whaland and her mother, of Bridgeton, N. J., will spend Thanksgiving with the Misses Anna and Helen Welch, who will close their home after the holiday and return with their guests to Bridgeton for the remainder of the fall and winter.

Mrs. Vernon Corey, of Baltimore, will join her husband here for the week-end, and be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Corey during that time.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilpin Brown, of Overbrook, Pa., will be guests of Mrs. H. Clay Brown over the week-end.

Mrs. Eva M. Price, of Owings Mills, has been the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Bringman.

Miss Inez Russell visited Miss Betty Thibodeau over last week-end and attended the Army-Notre Dame foot-ball game.

Mrs. Merrick Clements who for the last 15 years has been the leader of the M. E. choir has resigned due to the fact that she will move to Wilmington for the winter months where she will join her daughter who has a position there.

But if I don't resign right at this point, my resignation will probably be asked for, so

Yours for diplomacy,
The Wanderer.
