THE SOCIAL WANDERER

Dear Roamer:

The week has been an uneventful one socially speaking, and most of us have enjoyed our firesides and radios to no end, with a decidedly eventful week across the water, whose high lights are transmitted to us over the air as we sit by.

There always seems to be a hush before the storm breaks, and so we go about, doing all those chores I spoke about last week, before the glad season bursts and our date books become filled for about two weeks straight.

It seems for about the last five weeks I have been writing about a wedding, either here or there, mostly there. Well, these out-of-town weddings all hold some connecting bond and we are interested in how they link up with us. Yesterday, a beautiful wedding took place in Bronxville at St. James Church when Miss Katherine Herendeen, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Rolph Herendeen, and Mr. John Perry Skinner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Skinner were married. The bride was attended by six bridesmaids, among whom, was Miss Ellen Skinner, sister of the groom, who spends her summers here as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. James G. Metcalfe. Mr. Skinner, will have as his best man, his brother, Mr. Louis Skinner, and among the ushers will be Mr. Scott Beck, Jr., from here. Richard Crooks, noted tenor, will sing at the wedding. Following the ceremony, a reception will be held at Sherry's in New York City.

Among those who will attend from here include, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Beck, Miss Betty Beck, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Metcalfe, Mrs. Phil Wilmer, Mrs. H. Clay Brown and Miss Elizabeth Brown. Mrs. Brown and Miss Elizabeth Brown left on Thursday for a several days' visit in New York where they will be guests of Mrs. Ella H. Maxwell. The rest of the party will return to Chestertown after the week-end, with the exception of Mrs. Metcalfe and Mrs. Wilmer, who will visit friends in Rutledge, N. J., before returning the middle of next week to their homes here.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gould, of New York City, are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of an 8½ lb. son born December 5. Mrs. Gould was the former Miss Kathryn Lambert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kent Lambert, of this county.

Mrs. J. Frank Connelly is still in Westfield, N. J., with her sister, Mrs. Thos. G. Horsfield, who has been quite ill with the flu for the past six weeks. Mrs. Horsfield has just returned from the hospital following a mastoid operation. The last report states her condition as being very favorable.

Mrs. James G. Beck accompanied her aunt, Mrs. H. B. Slaughter, of Washington, who was her house guest last week, as far as Baltimore last Sunday, and remained there until Tuesday as the guest of Miss Margaret Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Perkins, of Baltimore, spent last week-end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eben Perkins.

Those from here attending the Bachelors' Cotillion in Baltimore last Monday were: Mr. Wilbur Ross Hubbard and Mr. John W. Barroll.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Weaver in Baltimore this week.

Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes has returned from a week's visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Atherton, outside of Philadelphia.

Let me thank those who were kind enough to heed my plea last week and sent me their notes. Please more follow suit.

Yours shopping,
The Wanderer.

CONGRATULATIONS

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Van der Goes, of New York are receiving congratulations on the birth of a baby girl. Mrs. Van der Goes is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Branham, of Sunny Brook Farm on Morgan Creek. Mr. and Mrs. Van der Goes will shortly moved to Kent County where they have purchased a farm near Rock Hall.

LEGISLATURE TO PASS PENSIONS ACT

Provisions Of Governor's Bill Brings Protest

The Maryland Legislature were all set on Friday to pass an Unemployment Insurance Bill which was worked out as a compromise between those who favored maximum requirements and those who insisted on the minimum.

The rewritten unemployment insurance bill came down from the State Law Department's Baltimore offices Thursday night to a Legislature agreed almost to a man to pass it as it stands.

While actual meetings of the two houses were confined only to routine assemblies and recesses, leaders of the Senate Finance and House Ways and Means committees, who last night agreed to virtual scrapping of the original Sobeloff measure, had circulated about the State House and reduced last-ditch opposition to the rewritten bill to an irreducable minimum.

The Governor said that, in the interests of expediency, he was not attempting to rally the G. O. P. forces and that as far as he was concerned, the votes of the Republican Senators were on their own consciences.

Added to this stand was a telegram from William P. Lawson, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, conforming to the Governor's position and recommending no fight on the measure put into form today by Herbert R. O'Conor, Attorney-General, and his aides.

Thus went any last hopes Republicans might have held that they could, by virtue of their eleven upper chamber votes, block by counter-attack a Democratic move that took the administrative appointments created by the new act out of G. O. P. hands and placed them under Democratic control.

The bill as brought down says only employes working for an employer with eight or more persons in his hire will be covered. The original Sobeloff measure would have covered eight or more employes this year, four or more in 1937 and one or more in 1938 and thereafter.
