Traditional Belief

It is the Jewish traditional belief that on Rosh Hashanah, Jewish New Year, God inscribes the names of his believers in the Book of Life, and on Yom Kippur, which follows a ten-day period, known as "Teshuva," seals the names of all those judged worthy. Yom Kippur is the day for the searching of the heart to find peace with God. The doctrine of sins and repentance is brought home with great emphasis on this holy day.
