THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

Well, here I am, still among those present, but not by choice. The urge is growing stronger, day by day, to literally heed the call of my name. Too long now has THE WANDERER been quiet and in place, and the spirit of roaming is in her bones. Maybe it is a Lenten sacrifice that I remain on duty, and maybe it's else, but be it as it may, here goes this week's chatter, anyway.

Ah, me, the tone of the little chronicle is subdued to-day and will be for the next six weeks. Only a weekly basket-ball game on a Saturday night or an occasional movie offers the slightest diversion. At least, we have guests in and out of town, and some of us do go away, and for that we are thankful as some contribution to our letter.

Dr. Dole Honor Guest

On Tuesday of this week, Dr. Esther M. Dole was a guest of honor at the Southern Hotel, Baltimore, at a tea given by the Mordecai Gist Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Dr. Dole is a candidate for the office of State Historian for this society.

Last week-end, Charles Dole, of Drexel Institute was the guest of his mother, Dr. Dole, and was accompanied by a fraternity brother, Mr. Harold Chaub.

Garden Club Entertained

On Tuesday, also, Mrs. James G. Metcalfe was hostess at the February meeting of "Our Garden Club." One of the features of the afternoon was the judging of an arrangement for center of table, appropriate to February, which every one was asked to bring. Mrs. James G. Beck was awarded first prize, for exhibit in flower arrangements, while Mrs. Chas. E. Eshman was awarded 1st prize in exhibit of arrangement, in which no flowers were used. Mrs. Tilden Brice and Mrs. John Stokes, of Sudlersville were the judges.

The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. Clay Brown, at which time, Mr. H. J. Hohman, of the Kingsville Nursery, will talk on the care of shrubbery and trees.

Miss Wheatley Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. Tilghman H. Moyer, of Allentown, Pa., were hosts last week-end to Miss Mary Jo Wheatley who was their house guest. During her visit, Miss Wheatley and her fiance, Mr. Thomas Fretz Moyer were honor guests at a supper party given by Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Bary, at which time, their engagement was announced in Allentown.

Wedding Announced

The wedding of Mrs. Catherine Ahern, formerly of Galena, and Mr. B. Raymond Sutton, a native of Kennedyville, but now of Baltimore, took place last Friday in Hollywood, Florida. Mr. Sutton is connected with the Internal Revenue Department at the Custom House, in Baltimore, in which city they will make their home. Mrs. Sutton is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Vansant, of Galena.

Dinner Parties

On Friday night of last week, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Davis entertained at a dinner party in honor of Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Corrington, the former a member of the Washington College faculty.

On Thursday, of this week, Mrs. Howard B. Pyle was hostess at a dinner-bridge party at her home in Queen Anne's, on the river.

Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead and Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines were among those who attended the University of Maryland dinner at the Lord Baltimore Hotel, Baltimore, on Thursday evening. Dr. Hines is President of the U. of Md. Alumni Association.

Birthday Celebrated

Cute little Molly Hines, was six years old on Thursday, and to celebrate entertained a number of her little friends at a birthday supper party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Massey Hines, in Queen Anne's on the river.

Congratulations

The Reverend and Mrs. Paul E. Reynolds are receiving congratulations on the birth of their second daughter at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital. The little girl, born on Tuesday night, will be christened, Ruth Evelyn. Mr. Reynolds is the popular pastor of the Chestertown Methodist Episcopal Church.

Foursome In New York

Two couples of the younger married set, are having a gay week-end in New York; namely, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Usilton, III, and Mr. and Mrs. Browne M. Roe. While there, they will be among the audience at two national broadcasts on Sunday evening, and the rest? I'll leave for them to tell.

Guests Here

Mrs. Mason Wood, of Baltimore, has been spending this week as the guest fo Mrs. C. Beck Jones. Mr. and Mrs. Wood were among the summer colony here during July and August.

Mr. Elba White, of Harrisburg, Pa., was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Eben F. Perkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carvel, of Media, Pa., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Kratzer.

Mrs. Robert Loud, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. B. Usilton this week.

Mrs. Luther Gentry, the former Miss Elizabeth Barwick, and her son, George, of San Carlos, California, were the guests of Mrs. Harry F. Jefferson. They left Tuesday for Houston, Texas, for a visit before returning to their home in California.

Guests this week-end include, Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown, of Gynwyd ,Pa., and their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Decker, of Wayne, Pa. They will be nouse guests of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Beck.

Mrs. Ben Traylor, of Montclair, N. J., will be the guest of Miss Elizabeth Brown for the week-end.

Returned Home

Mrs. G. Frank Clark has returned after spending several days with her daughter, Mrs. Earle M. Gitt, in Baltimore.

Mr. Howard N. Baldwin, who has been sojourning in Florida for several weeks, returned to his home here, on Monday.

Miss Evelyn Brown has returned from a week-end visit in Baltimore where she was the guest of friends and relatives.

Little Folks In Hospital

Little Betty Kay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William White, is at the Kernan hospital, Hillsdale, Md., for treatment.

Young Jimmy Kreeger, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kreeger, Jr., is recovering from a tonsil operation, performed last week at the local hospital.

And so, here endeth, the recruited store of knowledge, of what has been, what is and what is to be. Next week, maybe there'll be more, maybe less, perhaps, none at all. Who can tell?

Yours for the present,

THE WANDERER

It's the tops in motor fuels!
GULF'S NEW KNOCKPROOF GAS

HIGHEST ANTI-KNOCK RATING in motoring history—that's the secret of Gulf's new No-Nox Ethyl!

Your motor won't, can't knock with this fuel. For it is literally knockproof . . . even in the high-compression 1937 cars.

It steps up any car's power, smoothness, and economy, too. And gives split-second starts . . . cuts down battery drain, crankcase dilution, wasteful choking.

Get Gulf's new No-Nox Ethyl at the Sign of the Orange Disc. Costs no more than other premium fuels. And we recommend —as a worthy running mate—the world's finest motor oil, Gulfpride.
