THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

Here is the bad penny turning up again. I feel more like a rolling stone, having gathered no moss, which you may interpret, if you like, no news. I have been predicting a slack season for some weeks, but when it's time to sit down and write, the fact looms up larger than the carelessly spoken phrase, "there is no news". Even the last of the basket-ball games, at home, is tonight. So "thirty" to that amusement.

Junior Prom

But up at Washington College, things are different. All week, the students have been anticipating one of the high lights of the year. And this event is no longer than the Junior Prom, which took place last evening in the gymnasium, decorated in red and white for the grand occasion. Mr. Norman Shorb, president of the class and Miss Naomi Crown, senior of Western Maryland College will lead the grand march to the music of Bob Craig's orchestra. The list of patrons and patronesses included: President and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Corrington, Mr. and Mrs. Winton Tolles, Miss Amanda T. Bradley, Miss Doris T. Bell and Mr. George L. Ekatis.

Visiting Elsewhere

Mr. and Mrs. Rolph Townshend and son, Rolph, Jr., left Wednesday for Baltimore where they will attend the wedding to-day of Mrs. Townshend's brother, Mr. Hardy Nichols, to Miss Dorothy Smith, of Baltimore.

Mrs. Catherine Beck Jones, since last Sunday has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Higgins at their home in Wilmington.

Miss Elizabeth Brown motored to Philadelphia, on Tuesday, where she will visit friends there and in Bryn Mawr before returning to her home here to-day.

Mrs. A. E. Nicholson and son, Mr. Albert Nicholson, accompanied by Mrs. T. Hynson Beck spent last week-end in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Capel were guests of friends in Washington over the week-end.

Miss Dorothy Vickers was the week-end guest of friends in Germantown, Pa.

Mr. Charles Wilson spent the past weke-end as guest of friends in Philadelphia.

Mr. David R. McCauley and Mr. Belt Townshend left this week for South Bend, Ind., and will return by motor at the end of the week.

Miss Shakespeare Entertains

Miss Jean Sparger, of Vassar College, is the week-end guest of Miss Nancy Shakespeare, who entertained in honor of her guest at an "intermission party" last evening during the Junior Prom, at which they were among the guests. Today, Miss Shakespeare and Miss Sparger will go to Annapolis, where they will attend the hop at the Naval Academy this evening.

Other Guests Here

Last week-end, the town was full of out-of-town visitors, among whom were: Mr. Scott Beck, Jr., and two of his classmates, Mr. Louis Goldstein, formerly of Washington College and Mr. David Harkness, of Calvert Co.

Miss Harriette Welch, of Sag Harbor, L. ., and two friends, Miss Hester Stevens of Southampton, L. I., and Mr. Pancho Carral of Mexico City, of the class 1919, at Washington College, were guests of Miss Welch's aunts, Mrs. Etta M. Fountain and Mrs. H. Skipper.

Mr. Thos. Perkins, of Baltimore, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Eben F. Perkins.

Miss Elizabeth Richardson and Mr. Ted Clark, of Baltimore, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson R. Russell.

Miss Betty Thibodeau, of New York, with Miss Gladys Aldridge, of Baltimore, as her guest spent the week-end here.

Miss Kitty Anthony and Alday Clements, of Philadelphia, were guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Anthony.

Coming for the George Washington week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Tull, and Mr. Harvey Tull of Cynwyd, Pa., will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines at Riverside.

Attends Vassar Gaieties

Miss Betty Boericke, of Broad Neck, and Mr. Allan Stradley, attended a series of dinners and dances last week-end at Vassar College, of which school Miss Boericke is a graduate.

Dinner Bridge

Mrs. W. H. Payne will entertain at dinner and bridge on Monday evening at her home on Queen St.

Congratulations

Mr. and Mrs. Medford Capel are receiving congratulations on the birth of a fine son, to be christened Allan Franklin.

Native Son Returns In New Role

Mr. E. Clarke Fontaine, Jr., returned to the Elementary and High Schools of Chestertown this week, renewing acquaintances with many former teachers. To gather learning? Oh no, but to induce his erstwhile masters of the profession into selecting new material in text books for imparting their knowledge and acquiring thereof, by the present generation.

Maybe these books will tell us a new way in which George used his hatchet or chopped down his cherry tree, but as for me, I will accept the adage of the ages, and try to never tell a lie.

Yours for Truth and Verity.

THE WANDERER

Launch Test Boat

Messrs. Whaley and Moore have launched their first ocean fishing boat at their ship-yard on the Whaley estate. This boat was carefully designed to meet certain spcifications and the hull which is now in the water rates twenty percent above expectations. It will be powered by two motors which are yet to be installed and the entire craft is designed to be used for fishing off the various ocean resorts. The boat is strongly built and the twin motor arrangement will assure dependability.

Those Among The Honor Roll

Among those on the list of honor at Wilson College is Miss Mary Margaret Eliason daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. W. Eliason of Spring Ave.

Will Enlarge Brooks Mill

Announcement was made this week that work will start shortly on the enlargement of Brook's Mill which will increase the elevator storage capacity.

Buys Chestertown Home

Mr. J. M. Todd has purchased the Cannon home on High Street and will move from the Ringgold property to the newly purchased property shortly.

Herd Improvement Report

The January report of the Kent Dairy Herd Improvement Association shows that the herd W. P. Bloecher headed the list of five highest herds in butterfat production. His herd of nine grade and pure bred guernseys had an average of 499 lbs. of milk per cow yielding 26.5 butter fat. The other four dairymen, whose herds rated among the first five, showing average milk and butterfat production per cow were.

C. Harvey Freeman, 21 grade and pure bred holstein cows, average milk per cow 805 lbs; which yielded an average of 25.4 lbs. of fat.

W. Samuel Spray, 21 grade and pure bred guernsey cows, average milk per cow 507 lbs. which yielded an average of 25.2 lbs. of fat.

Howard S. Leaverton 50 grade and pure bred holstein cows, average milk per cow 611 lbs. which yielded 20.7 lbs. of fat.

L. A. Sutton, 21 guernsey and holstein cows, average milk per cow 447 lbs. yielding an average of 18.2 lbs. of fat.

Owners of the highest ten cows in the association for the month in the order in which they placed were W. Samuel Spray 2, Walter T. Morris, C. Harvey Freeman 3, W. P. Bloecher 2, Howard S. Leaverton, Walter L. Walbert.

Walter H. Morris is the local tester for rthe Association and makes the monthly report.
