THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

Old Man Winter in his declining days seems to be taking a few stabs to show us that he is a Winter after all, but the two little puffs of snow have amounted to naught, and now that Valentines have been sent, Georgie has had his birthday and the green of St. Patrick takes form in the color scheme of things, the Easter bunnies and rabbits are following not far behind. Easter? Well, one always thinks of it and Spring, so there you are, very soon.

Although there was but a small amount of entertaining done over last week's holiday, many were those who took advantage of the extra day on Monday to make a longer week-end and returned to ther homes here, as well as out-of-town guests who found it a seasonable time for a visit to our little community.

Guests In Town

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilkinson, of Baltimore, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Metcalfe, over the wek-end.

Still others over this holiday time included many New York guests among whom were:

Mr. James W. Johns, Jr., of New York, guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Johns.

Mr. James L. Bacchus, of New York, guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bacchus.

Mrs .Henry Barroll, of New York, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Morris K. Barroll, while Misses Louise and Alice Duffy, of Baltimore, were their guests later in the week.

Mr. Ned Houston, of New York, guest of Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines.

Miss Janet Briggs, of Wilmington, guest of her mother, here.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Turner, of Washington, guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Lewis.

Messrs. Ward and Elbert Sullivan and their sister, Miss Asa Sullivan, of Philadelphia, guests of Mr. Charles Wilson at the Voshel House.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Startt, of Baltimore, guests of relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Chaires, the latter's sister, Miss Thelma Fields, and Mr. Reese Metcalfe, of Clarendon, Va., guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chaires.

Miss Alice Dole, who teaches in Laurel, Del., guest of her mother, Dr. Esther M. Dole.

So you see, we had quite a few visitors to help celebrate the 205th birthday of our first President.

Dr. Dole Guest Speaker

Dr. Esther M. Dole returned to Laurel, Del., with her daughter, Sunday evening, and on Monday, spoke in Salisbury, Md., to the Samuel Chase Chapter of the D. A. R. on "Washington First in Peace." On Tuesday, Dr. Dole addressed the assembly at the Salisbury State Teachers' College, having as her topic, "Washington As An Educator." She returned to her home here on Tuesday evening.

Illness

All around us, in the middle of Winter, illness and much sadness seems to prevail.

Mrs. Arthur Simpson of Washington, D. C., has been called home due to the illness of both parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Cooper.

Miss Hannah Bell is at the Easton Hospital recovering from an operation performed on Tuesday. Miss Bell has been ill for the past three weeks.

Hugh Gibbons Young, "Gibby" to everyone is confined at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital with a leg infection.

Mr. William Newnam, was a patient at the local hospital this week where he underwent a tonsil operation.

Another patient, at the hospital here, is Mrs. Tilden Brice, recovering from a major operation performed last week.

Little Leonard Needles after an attack of pneumonia is now able to be down stairs.

Mrs. T. Hynson Beck has been confined to her home at the Riverside Apts. for the past week with a severe cold.

Entertainments

The dinner-bridge given on Monday evening by Mrs. William H. Payne and Mrs. Isabelle Newnam was a George Washington party and quite colorful and artistic in arrangement. The party was held at the home of Mrs. Payne.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Pyle entertained at dinner at their home on Mt. Vernon Place in honor of Mr. Pyle's birthday, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Baurice Fox entertained members of their family from other parts of the Shore at dinner on Sunday evening.

This week-end a large number from here will attend the Washington-Loyola basket-ball game in Baltimore and later attend the cabaret-dance at the Southern Hotel sponsored by the Baltimore Chapter of the Washington College Alumni Association.

Congratulations

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram S. Brown, 3rd, of New York, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, born last Saturday. Mrs. Brown was formerly Miss Ada McCarthy and Mr. Brown is the son of Col. and Mrs. H. Staunton Brown now vacationing in Florida.

The Green Light

Says, Go—and many have been heeding its message. On Saturday, to-day, Mrs. R. N. Whaley and Mrs. Clarke Grieb will leave on a cruise with Porto Rico as their destination.

On Sunday last, Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Walbert, Mrs. Whittier Copper, and Mrs. Minnie Newsome left on a motor trip for Florida, where they will visit for two weeks.

Mrs. Francis Young returned this week from a West Indies cruise.

Dr. E. Clarke Fontaine, has been attending the National Education Association in New Orleans, La. He is expected home this week-end.

Many of our residents spent last week-end away. Among whom were:

Mrs. Belt Townshend who visited her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Skirven in Salisbury.

The Misses Betty and Theresa Boericke, of Cacaway, spent the week end in Philadelphia.

The Misses Sue and Mabel Smith visited in Baltimore over the holiday.

Mrs. Charles N. Satterfield spent this week in Philadelphia, while Mr. Satterfield attended the National Convention of Hardware dealers in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mayor and Mrs. Philip G. Wilmer and Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Dick were guests this week of Dr. and Mrs. John Finney in Baltimore and while there attended the performance of "Dead End" at Ford's.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Dorsey Hines left yesterday for Philadelphia, where they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norris Harrison for the week-end.

Writing about all these people going away is not so easy if you "stay put" yourself and so if a blizgard doesn't sprng up, I might pack my bag and go tripping off myself, for some brighter lights. But you never can tell, so—

Yours for blue skies,

THE WANDERER
