THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

Just a bit of this and that again today, and you probably, will be as glad as I, to hear the Easter bells chiming on Mar. 28. Following that glad morning, I hope you will hear no apologies from me for awhile, for lack of news. In a nut shell, all I have to tell you, is who has come and who has gone, and so if you're not interested, turn right on over to the next page. I won't know! Sometimes I do know, though, for occasionally, some surprise friend of mine will say, "Is that so? I didn't know it." My heart sinks for those hours I had spent writing up the items, that my friends might KNOW. To save me future heart trouble, play safe and ramble through at least.

The party given last Saturday night by the Baltimore Chapter of the Washington College Alumni was evidently a huge success from all glowing accounts which were given in no uncertain terms.

Among those from this vicinity who attended were: Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead, Dr. and Mrs. J. S. William Jones, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Johns, Dr. Laurence Ford, Dr. Kenneth Buxton, Mr. Paul Solandt, Miss Louise B. Russell, Miss Betty Johns, Miss Ann Pippin, Mrs. Louise Dutcher, Mr. and Mrs. W. Vernon Kirby, Mr. and Mrs. James S. Kreeger, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kiefer, Miss Sue Smith, Miss Lois Baxter, Dr. Robert Farr, and Messrs. George Ekaitis, William S. Collins, Allan H. Stradley, Ridgley T. Brown, Richard Hall, Albert Nicholson, Harry Coleman, Jr., Louis Grodon and Irving Brown, of Chestertown; Mr. and Mrs. Browne M. Roe, Mr. and Mrs. John George and Miss Margaret Yarnall, of Sudlersville, and the latter's guest, Miss Virginia Hildreth, of Philadelphia; Miss Margaret Edwards and Mr. John Ahern, of Millington.

Others who have been to Baltimore recently for a visit include Miss Margaret E. Jefferson who spent the week-end there, Mrs. James S. Kreeger, Jr., who spent several days in that city as a guest of friends, and Mrs. Harry S. Russell and son who were guests of Mrs. Russell's sisters in Baltimore and Westminster.

Guests In Philadelphia

Philadelphia shares in week-end trips for our residents almost on a par with Baltimore.

Last week-end Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines were week ending at Rydal, Pa., a suburb, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Norris Harrison.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Strong and Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Collins, Jr., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gilpin Brown in Cynwyd, Pa.

Mrs. E. R. Anthony and Miss Betty Anthony were guests of relatives in Philadelphia.

This week-end, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Metcalfe will visit Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson at their home in Lansdowne, Pa.

Mrs. H. Clay Brown and Miss Elizabeth Brown spent several days in the Quaker City this week, as guests of relatives.

Mrs. C. Beck Jones returned on Wednesday from New York, where she was the guest of Mrs. Will Beck and Miss Ellen Beck for a few days.

On Thursday, Mrs. Holt Wright and little daughter, Rose Mary went to Baltimore where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Richard Norris. Joined by Dr. Wright to-day, they will then go to Washington to be guests of relatives until Monday afternoon.

Guests Here

Mrs. Guy M. Stone, of Pittsfield, Mass., came on Wednesday to spend a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Eben F. Perkins. Mrs. Stone's many friends here will be glad to know of her arrival in our midst and welcome her most heartily.

Mr. James W. Chapman, 3rd, of Belfast, Maine, on Wednesday. Mrs. Chapman will remain here with her mother, Mrs. Frank V. Simpers for sometime.

Mr. Charles Dole, of Drexel Institute, Philadelphia, was the guest of his mother, Dr. Esther M. Dole last week-end.

Mr. Allan Barnes, of Baltimore, was the week-end guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earle A. Barnes. Mrs. Virginia Seward, of Baltimore, was also the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Barnes.

Mr. Henry P. Hopkins, of Baltimore, was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead over Monday night.

Congratulations

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. G. Evans, of Baltimore, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, born on Tuesday, at the Union Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Evans, was the former Miss Ruth E. Riepe, who frequently visited here, before her marriage, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Collins, Jr.

Position In The City

Miss Evelyn Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, of Quaker Neck, is now living in Baltimore, where she has accepted a position as assistant dietician at the Y. W. C. A.

Returning To Wide Hall

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard who have been spending the winter at the Mayflower Hotel, Washington, D. C., will reopen their home, Wide Hall, the first of next month.

5th Birthday

"Little Russ," son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Russell, celebrated his 5th birthday on Thursday afternoon by a party for his little friends in the afternoon.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Comegys, of Millington, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Pauline Spear Comegys to Mr. Edward Lawrence Kaufman, of Westminster, Md., son of the late Edward L. Kaufman.

The wedding will take place Monday, March 29, at 12 o'clock in the Chapel of the Holy Cross in Millington, Md.

Illness Continues

Sorry to say, the social column hardly seems complete without a word of comment on prevailing illness. But after all, the health of our friends is as important to our happiness as what they are doing. My only regret is, to have to mention it, for if I said naught about it, you'd know we were all well.

Mrs. W. T. Brice, who is recovering from a recent operation, left the local hospital on Wednesday and is now with her sister, Mrs. Raymond Humphreys, at her home in the Riverside Apartments.

Mrs. Albert Kenly, mother of Mrs. Brice and Mrs. Humphreys, was taken to a Baltimore hospital on Sunday for observation and tests.

Mrs. Baurice Fox is recuperating from a recent operation at the Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore.

Miss Hannah Bell, is fast recovering from a recent operation at the Easton Hospital and is expected to return to her home on Tuesday.

Mrs. Hynson Beck continues ill with an attack of grippe at her home in the Riverside Apartments.

Mrs. A. T. H. Harper Returns

Mrs. A. T. H. Harper who has spent the winter away from Chestertown will reopen her home here on Monday.

Our Garden Club

An open meeting, on Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, for all who might be interested, will be held at the Chester River Yacht and Country Club by Our Garden Club. At that time, a talk will be given by Mr. H. J. Homan of the Kingsville Nurseries on "Care of Trees and Shrubbery." Clubs from Queen Anne's county, as well as Kent, have been invited to attend.

Now, what excuse shall I give for signing off? Shall I say my pen is dry, or I must catch the mail, or stick to that honesty policy and simply say that's all?

Yours in few words,

THE WANDERER

Triangle Club Banquets

Dr. Jesse J. Coop, of Washington College was the principal speaker at the sixteenth annual banquet of the Triangle Club. Greetings were extended by Miss Francis Hodgson, president of the club and Mrs. Vickers Bowers acted as toastmistress. Mrs. Oscar Hanson delivered an address on the subject "The Youth of today."

William Cook Dies At Thomas Fowler's

William Cook, 88 a native of Virginia, died Tuesday at the home of Thomas Fowler, near Hopewell. He had lived with the Fowler family for the past 50 years.

Funeral services were held at 10.30 A. M. Thursday mornnig at the Fowler home with the Rev. J. L. Marker in charge. Interment will be at Chester Cemetery. Ralph Usilton, undertakr in charge.

The bearers were: Messrs. Elwood, Clarence, Walter, Edward and Thomas Fowler and Samuel Jefferson.

Will Sponsor French Movie Here

Le Cercle Francais, an organization of Washington College will sponsor a matinee in the New Lyceum Theatre Monday, March 22nd at 3.30. The main feature is entitled "Dr. Knock." This is a full length comedy entirely in French. However, a knowledge of French is not necessary in order to enjoy thi sfilm. A printed synopsis of the play in English will be presented at the door on the receipt of a ticket. "Dr. Knock" ran in one theatre in Paris alone for three years. This fact should prove that it is certainly worth seeing.

The short film to be presented is one entitled "Jerusalem". This should also be of particular interest especially during the Lenten season.

This is the first time in the history of the Eastern Shore that the people will be able to see a French imported film at half the price it is offered in the city theatres. This is not a commercial project, but rather a cultural one. It is presented for the enjoyment of the public.

INTRODUCTORY REMARKS BY

FREDERICK PHILIP STIEFF

(Benediction To Follow Recital)

Silver Offering

The Hammond Organ is the outstanding musical invention of over a century. It has the possibility of 253 million different tone colors. It cannot play off pitch, is unaffected by any extremes of temperature or humidity, and is far simpler to play than the average pipe organ. There are no pipes, reeds, nor bellows.
