THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

Palm Sunday, in Chestertown and vicinity, finds itself surrounded by the return of youth—girls and boys from schools and colleges enjoying the envied Spring vacation. The radius is a large one, indeed, and welcome home do we say, most sincerely. Phil Brooks, Jr., and Jim Metcalfe from McDonogh came yesterday to spend the spring holiday with their respective parents, and although I haven't seen the others, I'm sure Fredrica Metcalfe, Scott Beck, Jr., "Beppy" Westcott, Mary Margaret Eliason, Chas. Dole, the Atwater boys and all the crowd will soon be filing in, if not already. Although this week will be quiet, due to being Holy Week, comes Eastertide, and with it, a bright sparkling dance at the Country Club on Easter Monday night. This promises to be a gay affair, the first big social event since the New Year's Eve Dance, and after such a long period of quietude, everyone is expected to step out in gala mood.

Urie Home To Be Occupied

All things come to those who wait, and the lovely old Urie home, silently watching out over the river, has been waiting, it seems sadly and almost hopelessly, for its walls to ring with merry laughter and gay voices once more. But not in vain! On April 1st, Mrs. Raymond Humphries her two young daughters, Mary Liz and Nancy, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kenly will move there. Mrs. Kenly returned to her home here on Wednesday night from a Baltimore hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Evans moved Thursday to their home at Rolph's Wharf from the Baldwin Apartments on Queen St., where they have been spending the winter.

Entertainments

Mrs. J. Thomas Kibler entertained at dinner, on Monday evening, the members of the Kappa Gamma Sororiety of Washington College of which she is a patroness.

Mrs. S. Holt Wright and Mrs. W. Ernest Griffith entertained on Wednesday at a St. Patrick's Day bridge-luncheon held at "The Sea-Cliff," Betterton, the winter tea room operated by Mrs. Howard Owens.

Visitors Here

Mr. and Mrs. George Brice, of Far Hills, New Jersey will spend awhile in this vicinity and enjoy some fox-hunting. A larger party was due at this time for this sport, but owing to the illness of Mr. J. P. Tappan who was to be the host for the guests at the Lotus Inn, the party was postponed.

Mrs. John Vickery, of Belfast, Maine will be the week-end guest of Mrs. Frank Simpers and Mrs. James Chapman, 3rd. Mrs. Vickery has visited here before, and everyone who enjoyed a party in her honor a few years ago, found her most charming.

Mr. Clarke Fontaine, Jr., was a guest in town overnight this week.

Miss Ruth Nichols, of Baltimore, was the week-end guest of her sister, Mrs. Rolph Townshend who is out again after several days' illness. Mr. Albert Nichols, has returned to his home in Howard County after a visit with his daughter.

Mr. James Johns, Jr., of New York City was the week-end guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Johns.

Miss Nancy Jean Usilton, a teacher at the Potomac School, in Washington, D. C., is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton, during spring vacation, which started a little earlier there.

Noted Columnist To Be Here

No other than the beloved Bentztown Bard, Mr. Folger McKinsey, will be a guest in Chestertown over Monday. Hardly breathes there a columnist whose work is more widely read and loved as that of Mr. McKinsey's and Chestertown is certainly honored to be host to one of such fame and personal popularity.

To Visit California

Mrs. Harry F. Jefferson left on Thursday for a six week's visit to relatives in California. During her absence, her daughter, Miss Margaret E. Jefferson wil stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rolph Townshend.

Mr. Scott Beck and Mr. James G. Metcalfe spent last week-end in Baltimore.

Mrs. Frank B. Hines and Mrs. C. Beck Jones visited Mrs. Roger Wilson, and Miss Mary Rogers Hynson at their home in Wilmington this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Beck will visit Mr. and Mrs. Gilpin Brown at their home in Cynwyd, Pa., over this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Brown left on Thursday for Edgewood, South Carolina, where htey will visit, Mrs. Brown's brother, Rev. Howard Engle. They were accompanied by their son, Mr. Maynard Brown who continued to Pasa Gril, Florida where he will join his family.

And now that I have run the gamut, with apologies to the gentleman who says "Good Morning", I'll say "Good Evening."

Yours on the way,

THE WANDERER

Miller—Plummer Wedding

A simple but impressive wedding took place at St. James parsonage, on the evening of March 11th, when Rev. J. L. Marker united in marriage Mary Virginia Miller, of Fairlee, and Carl Plummer of near Kennedyville. The bride wass becomingly attired in "thistle" brown with beige accessories, and carried a shower bouquet of Spring flowers. After the ceremony, the happy couple, amid the good wishes of friends who had gathered to witness the wedding, left for their future home, near Queenstown, where the groom in engaged in farming.

Maryland's Federal Road Fund Threatened

Maryland has become the first state in the Union to feel the teeth of the Hayden-Cartwright Act. Notice was given late last week to the State Roads Commission that Maryland's participation in Federal-aid for highway construction would be curtailed to the extent of $341,666.66.

The infliction of this penalty, which is one third of the amount of Federal funds allotted for the year, is merited punishment, according to Garrison P. Knox, Manager of the Keystone Automobile Club, which for years has conducted an extensive campaign against road fund diversion.

Mr. Knox also points out that this first penalty is not the last, as the Bureau of Public Roads clearly indicates in its letter to Dr. Tabler of the State Roads Commission that if diversion of road funds continues the Federal penalty will be materially boosted next year and each succeeding year that diversion continues.

"As matters stand today," continued Mr. Knox, "Maryland will undoubtedly be penalized to the extent of $1,431,000 during the period ending June 30th, 1939, solely through the fact that our Legislators cannot or will not recognize the fact that diversion of road funds is morally and economically unsound.
