THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

If you art not too busy with your Spring house cleaning, or tired of working on the boat, or getting the fishing tackle in trim, lend me an ear for a minute or two, for Spring is not only here but in the air. Spring breathes romance and romance oft leads to wedding bells, all of which may be interpreted that I have a wedding to tell you about. Now, now, wait a minute, don't get too excited and skip all around, losing your place.

The wedding of Dr. E. Clarke Fontaine of this town, Supervisor of High Schools of the Eastern Shore, and Mrs. Elba R. White, daughter of Mr. Ira P. Romberger and the late Mrs. Romberger, of Harrisburg, Pa., will take place at noon on Thursday, April 15, at the home of the bride in the Parkway Apartments, N. Front St., Harrisburg, Pa. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dorsey N. Miller, pastor of the First M. E. Church, Danville, Pennsylvania, in the presence of the immediate families and a few intimate friends. Following the wedding, Dr. and Mrs. Fontaine will go to Baltimore and there entertain at a bridal dinner party at the Emerson Hotel, that evening. After a wedding trip to New York they will be at home here after May 1st at Dr. Fontaine's residence on Front St.

The night before the wedding, the bride and groom will be guests of honor at a dinner party given by the bride's father at the Penn-Harris Hotel in Harrisburg.

Now! isn't that exciting to have another bride in our midst? I am sure she will receive as hearty a welcome as all our new brides and will be quite an addition to the community.

I am not a news commentator advertising gasoline, but really these are the days to go a -motoring, for at no season is this past-time so delightful. And if you are motoring, it's natural to have an end in view, and that means a visit. Many of us as possible are taking advantage of all invitations so you city readers need not be too surprised when you see us driving up in front. We have the fever, we want to go.

Last Sunday, Mrs. Frank B. Hines returned to Philadelphia with Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Tull, who had been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines over the week-end. Mrs. Hines has been the guest, all of this week, of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Cole and been much entertained during her visit. She will return to Chestertown, today, with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Decker, of Wayne, Pa., who will be week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Beck. Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown will be guests over the week-end of Mrs. H. Clay Brown.

Entertainments

Yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Morris K. Barroll invited a number of ladies to her home, Byford Court, to view the bloom and have a cup of tea. The trees are exquisite now, and a most delightful time was experienced by all who went.

To-night, Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Strong will entertain at a buffet supper and bridge in honor of the Deckers and the Browns.

On Wednesday, quite a number of ladies from here will go over to Sudlersville to attend the luncheon-bridge to be given by Mrs. H. G. Metcalfe at her home there. Sudlersville parties are always delightful affairs and much enjoyed by those of Chestertown.

On Monday evening, Dr. and Mrs. H. R. DuPuy entertained in honor of the visiting members of the State Department of Health.

Last Friday evening, Miss Dorothy Vickers entertained associates of the Kent County Public Health Association.

Guests In Baltimore

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton, III, left yesterday to be guests over the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Beck.

Mrs. Walter B. Strong has been the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Joseph M. Watkins at her home in Mount Washington, since last Sunday.

Miss Elizabeth Brown left yesterday to visit friends in Wilmington and Philadelphia until Monday.

Visiting Here

Mrs. Edward Hines, of Providence, R. I., came on Thursday to be the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Dorsey Hines. Yesterday, Miss Alice Stewart, of New York, arrived to be a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hines for the week-end.

Mrs. Robert E. Green and son of Magnolia, Del., have been guests of Mr. Geo. W. McWhorter, father of Mrs. Green.

Mrs. Miles Hanson, of Weston, Mass., has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davidson, in Queen Anne's.

Returned From Winter Visits

Misses Mary and Amelia Brooks returned to their home in Quaker Neck this week, having spent the winter months in Florida, where they motored to and fro.

Mrs. Lula Dukes reopened her home on Queen St., April 1st, having spent the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Ormand Andrew in Denton.

Mrs. Mamie Walters has returned to her home here after spending the winter months with her daughter, Mrs. Arnold O. Mauritson, in Malden, Mass.

Mrs. Thomas Massey returned Sunday after a ten days trip to Florida. She was accompanied here by Miss Dorothy Massey, of Washington.

Dr. Esther M. Dole also returned to her home in the Wickes Apts. on Sunday. Following a visit of ten dyas to Florida.

Garden Club To Meet

The monthly meeting of Our Garden Club of Chestertown will be held on Tuesday, April 13 at the home of Mrs. George H. Dana at 2 P. M. It will be in the nature of a daffodill show for members.

Mrs. Duncan Brent, of Baltimore, who recently served as a judge at the National Flower Show in New York, will judge the displays next Tuesday.

And so with birds singing, daffodils and trees blossoming, wedding bells chiming, and parties on your calendars once more, I'll sign off to let you go and enjoy

"The flowers that bloom in the Spring—tra—la."

Yours with a song,

THE WANDERER

The regular monthly meeting of the Chestertown Elementary School Parnet Teachers' Association will be held, Wednesday, April 14th, at 3.15 p. m. in the school building.

IN MEMORIUM

In loving memory of my dear son Joseph Clifton Everett, who passed away 7 years ago today, April 4, 1937.

I am sad within my memory,
Lonely is my heart today
For the one I loved so dearly
Has forever been called away.

I think of him in silence,
No eye may see me weep;
But many silent tears are shed
When others are asleep.

Gone is the face I loved so dear,
Silent is the voice I loved to hear;
Too far away for sight or speech
But not too far for thought to reach.

Sweet to remember him
Who once was here;
And who though absent,
Is just as dear.

(By his LOVING MOTHER)
