Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy as the singing lovers of "Maytime"

Splendid in every sense of the meaning, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's first lavish musical offering of 1937, "Maytime" comes to the New Lyceum Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, April 19, 20 and 21, with Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy in the starring roles.

A description of the original theme would be superfluous to veterans of the theatre, but it may be written here without fear of contradiction that the studio has gone far and beyond any beauty which the stage attained. "Maytime" was a musical piece of gorgeous proportions when Rida Johnson Young's play was on the boards and it closely approaches the status of a musical masterpiece on the screen.

The skillful adaptation was made by Noel Langley. The songs were written by Sigmund Romberg, composer of the original Broadway score, and also by Herbert Stothart who has composed the first film operetta, "Czaritza," which provides a lovely sequence in the picture.

Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy have not been seen together on the screen for a year. They rose to a unique dual stardom in "Naughty Marietta" and then in "Rose Marie."

In the supporting cast of "Maytime," John Barrymore plays a picturesque role as the temperamental impresario, his first since the memorable "Romeo and Juliet," which was one of the sensational pictures of 1936. There is a newcomer in the cast, Lynne Carver, a delicately beautiful young singer from the Kentucky Blue Grass regions who sings and acts unusually well. She and Tom Brown provide the juvenile romance in the story.

In love with Nelson Eddy, a young singer, Jeanette MacDonald, an opera star, actuated by a mistaken sense of duty, marries John Barrymore, the impresario, to whom she owes her career. When circumstance brings her and the singer together again, they realize that their love is stronger than before. Mad with insane jealousy the husband kills the singer. The tragedy answers the problem of the young girl who is drawn between a choice of love and a career.

Miss MacDonald and Eddy sing the stage production hit tune, "Will You Remember?" so effectively that few who heard it will soon forget it. Miss MacDonald also sings two complete operatic arias and portions of others. Eddy has three novelty songs, "Students' Drinking Song," "Vive L'Opera" and "Virginia Ham and Eggs." In a touching duet the stars sing "Carry Me Back to Old Virginny."

The "Czaritza" opera is an artistic note new to the screen and the chorus and orchestration are remarkably excellent.

"Maytime" was produced by Hunt Stromberg and directed by Robert Z. Leonard, the same duo who last year guided the destiny of that memorable picture, "The Great Ziefield." Lavish sets, gorgeous costumes and technical perfection combine to produce a picture that launches hte new year offerings from Hollywood auspiciously.

Girl Scout News

Sudlersville Girl Scouts, Troop No. 1, have planned a busy April. On the 16th they are giving a "Blackface Minstrel Show." A committee from the Community Club headed by Mrs. Standley Atkinson is training them and the show promises to be most entertaining.

The captain, Mrs. Austin F. Roberts, will attend the regional conference in Wilmington on the 20th and 21st.

On the 24th of April with Miss Jeanne Christy of the National staff as leader, they will entertain the Scouts and leaders of the Eastern Shore of Maryland. At a conference for the furtherance of Scouting on the Shore.

This will be held from 3 to 8 at Old Dudley's Chapel yard, if clear, if wet in Cox Hall, Sudlersville.

There will be games, nature hunts and treasure hunts for the girls while the leaders are in conference.

At 5 o'clock a nose bag supper will be enjoyed with cocoa and coffee served by the local troop.

At 6 o'clock the Sudlersville Troop will hold its tenth annual court of awards followed by a campfire program to celebrate the 25th anniversary of scouting and the 10th of our troop.

There will be exhibits and further conferences in Cox Hall after the campfire.
