CHURCH NOTES

RADIANT LIVING

Triumphal People

By Rev. C. M. Griffeth
Pastor Calvary M. E. Church
Sudlersville, Md.

And so there comes to us the encouraging exhortation: "Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed; for the Lord thy God is with thee, whithersoever thou goest!"

The secret of our triumph is the presence of the Conqueror within to which St. Paul refers when he writes: "The Peace of God which passeth all understanding shall guard your hearts and thoughts in Christ Jesus."

We shall therefore refuse to acknowledge defeat. For it is God's will that we be always triumphant!

Real Christians are radiant people because they are triumphant. They are called to a triumphant life. They are supplied with triumphal powers.

It is because of their triumph that there is spiritually placed upon their heads an invisible crown. St. Paul terms it "an incorruptible crown". St. Peter delights to speak of it as the "crown of Glory that fadeth not away." St. James declares it to be a "crown of Life."

The Crown of Glory of Christianity is indeed her heroic Over-comers,—men who like St. Paul, in the hour of his martyrdom could say: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith!" Think of these men—"saints, apostles, prophets, martyrs." Are they not the gems of God?

And we too, beset by temptation and by trial, are to be no less Overcomers than they.
