THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

At this moment, I have just returned from a visit to the Queen Anne's County Flower Show and it created much enthusaism among all in our party. Held in the Little Theatre, at Centreville, the setting and arrangements themselves were all that the artist could long for. I'm just hoping that our little show next Thursday, May 20th, will be as attractive. Of course, ours is open, as far as competitors are concerned, only to members of "Our Garden Club", but we urge the public to come and view our efforts, as well as hear the interesting talk to be given by Mrs. Duncan Brent on Topiary Work and Espalier Trees at 3 p. m. The show will be held in the Parish House of Emmanuel Church and the admission will be the small sum of ten cents.

Flower shows, garden tours, and flower marts, naturally at this time of the year are one of the uppermost topics among all of us. Several ladies from here treked to Baltimore on Wednesday to view the Flower Mart around Mt. Vernon Square. Among those who went over were: Miss Elizabeth Brown, Mrs. H. Clay Brown, Mrs. Samuel Emory, Mrs. Frank Hines, Mrs. Thomas Kibler, Mrs. Browne Metcalfe, Mrs. Eben Perkins, Mrs. Phil G. Wilmer.

But while we are flower minded, the bankers hied themselves away to Atlantic City for the Bankers Convention. Some of this assemblage included Mr. and Mrs. Allan A. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Westcott, Mr. Stephen R. Collins, and Mr. Robert Huey. They were all guests at the Traymore Hotel there. Would that I were a banker. One of these gentlemen had a birthday this week when he celebrated 78 years. Can you guess? Right, it was Mr. Harris. Mrs. Harris had a little group for dinner that night, and no one there was any younger than the honored guest, when it came to playing games.

On Wednesday evening, Mrs. Raymond Humphreys entertained a few friends at buffet supper, after which, Mr. Walter Merritt Kenly, who was a house guest, showed some motion pictures, taken with his movie camera on New Year's Day. The many friends of Mrs. Albert Kenly will be glad to learn of her great improvement in health.

To-day, Mrs. Dorsey Hines will entertain at luncheon at her home Riverside.

Mrs. William B. Usilton returned to-day from a week's visit in Baltimore where she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. William Gardner.

Dr. and Mrs. Clarke Fontaine spent part of this week in Pocomoke City. Last week-end they were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fitzgerald of Pocomoke.

Now that the Coronation is over, we utter a sigh. Incidentally, Commander and Mrs. Russell Wilson were among the six Americans admitted to the Abbey. Commander Wilson is the U. S. naval attache and Mrs. Wilson will be remembered here as Miss Eunice Westcott, daughter of the late Charles Westcott, of this town.

Speaking of honors and all that sort of thing, did you know that Scott Beck, Jr., had been elected President of the Senior Class of the University of Maryland Law School for next year?

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Perkins, of Philadelphia, were guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Perkins. Mrs. Perkins delivered a lecture here on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Blackiston Perkins was a guest of her sisters, Misses Grace and Jennie Wilkins at the Maples this week.

Mrs. Jeffrey Horsfield, of Westfield N. J., is the guest of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Julian Power.

Mrs. Lillian Gurley is visiting relatives in High Point, N. C., while Mrs. T. G. Wroth and Miss Anna Wroth have returned from Baltimore where they were guests of relatives.

Mrs. Charles E. Eshman and little son, were guests last Friday and Saturday of Mrs. Eshman's parents in Newark, Del.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Clendaniel, Jr., and sons, of Baltimore, were week-end guests of Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Brice, Jr., at Lankford near here.

Lieut. and Mrs. George H. Gerhart and daughter have been guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Simmons here. Lieut. Gerhart has been stationed in Texas and is preparing for a transfer to Honolulu.

Mrs. Grace Aldridge, of Baltimore, and Mr. Phil Brooks, of Towson, were week-end guests of Mrs. T. Hynson Beck.

Mrs. William Price, of Centreville, was the guest of Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Wright have moved from E. High St. to Campus Ave. on Tuesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Strong, Miss Helen Simpers and Mr. Fred Fetter, of Washington, D. C., are week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gilpin Brown at their home in Cynwyd, Pa.

Mr. W. Hepbron Gill and family, of Lansdowne, Pa., were the week-end guests of Mr. Gill's mother and brothers.

Miss Virginia Jones, of Baltimore, has returned there after a week's vacation at the home of her father, Dr. J. S. W. Jones. On Saturday evening, she and Mr. William Medders entertained a number of friends at a buffet supper.

Miss Elizabeth Starkey and Mrs. James B. Kirby delightfully entertained at a dinner and bridge party for a number of friends at Miss Starkey's home on Queen St., on Thursday evening.

Miss Elizabeth Brown is spending this week-end in Philadelphia. While there, she will attend the exhibition matches of the Davis Cup squad at the Merion Crichet Club before their matches at Forest Hills, L. I. with the Australians.

Mr. Horace Beck and his daughter, Mrs. Catherine Beck Jones, motored to Atlanta, Ga., this week where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Horace Beck, Jr., for several weeks.

I must stop now and go gather up all my old newspapers which I've been saving for the Hospital Auxiliary. Please get yours together too, for now the history of yesterday is to be turned into a profit for the future as a benefit for the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital. To know more about this, turn over and read the news of to-day before you cast this sheet into the outgoing pile.

Yours for items, past, present and future,

THE WANDERER

Amazing New Fuel for Modern Motors
Not GAS alone ... Not OIL alone ... BUT ...
GAS OIL INE
THE MODERN MOTOR FUEL
ORDINARY GAS can no longer do a complete job in your high-speed, high-compression motor. Parts are smaller. Heat is greater. Power alone is not enough! Constant protection is needed in the upper cylinders ... constant lubrication for the fast-flying, close-fitting valves and pistons.
You simply cannot get this constant protection from gas alone. You need oil in the gas. You need GAS OIL INE ... the modern motor fuel. The amazing motor fuel that protects as it powers the modern motor.
GAS OIL INE is the exclusive creation of the Tide Water Associated Oil Company and can be purchased only at Tydol stations.
GAS OIL INE is a scientific blend of hi-test Tydol gas and heat-proof, carbon-free oil. It takes the place of both old-fashioned gasoline and top-cylinder oil in any modern motor.
GAS OIL INE brings to your driving a new high in all-around motor performance. Instant power from smoother working parts. Longer mileage from cooler working parts. Real economy from protected working parts.
Get your first tankful of GAS OIL INE today. And get it at the identical price you have always paid for old-fashioned gas.
