On The Movie Screen

Ted Healy, Una Merkel, Wallace Beery in "Good Old Soak"

"GOOD OLD SOAK" . . . .

On the screen at the New Lyceum Theatre, on Monday and Tuesday, May 17 and 18, there will come to life that unforgettable character, the Old Soak, immortalized by Don Marquis in his original novel. Wallace Beery now finds his greatest role in this characterization.

The picture, "Good Old Soak," from Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, draws a cross-section of the America that was —the almost United States in the era of prohibition.

Beery portrays the character of a small-town philosopher who retires from active business in order to locate the local speakeasies.

The complications of the plot revolve around a family nestegg that is stolen. Of course the Old Soak is blamed. The manner in which he restores the money and reunites the clan makes a story that provided many laughs for the audience.

Beery, in the leading role, utilizes all of his innate knowledge of human nature and virtually lives the character conceived by Marquis during those confusing years of the dry era in America.

In the supporting cast Una Merkel contributes another of her delightfully funny portrayals as Nellie. Eric Linden gives a sensitive warmth to the role of Beery's son, Clemmie, Judith Barrett enliven the drama with her singing of "You've Got a Certain Something," and Betty Furness scores in the part of Beery's daughter.

Also not to be overlooked is the work of Ted Healy, Janet Beecher, George Sidney, Robert McWade and James Bush. J. Walter Ruben has directed the picture with a keen understanding of small-town characters.

When the picture was finished it was Beery who saw to it that a print of the film was sent as his personal gift to Don Marquis, an invalid now recovering from a lingering illness.

"WE HAVE OUR MOMENTS" . . . .

Sally Eilers and James Dunn, one of the screen's popular combinations, have teamed together again in a sparkling comedy drama, Universal's "We Have Our Moments," which comes to the New Lyceum Theatre on Friday, May 21st.

The story concerns a girl who becomes tired of being a schol teacher in a small town. She leaves for Europe for one grand good time before she settles down to what promises to be a dull marriage. She finds herself involved in an adventure that is as exciting as it is humorous. A group of slick robbers make her the unwitting means through which they smuggle money into Europe. She finds herself facing long years in prison.

Treated in a light vein, developed with humorous situations and keen dialogue, the picture has been photographed against the gaiety and glamor of a trans-Atlantic luxury liner and adventurous, romantic Monte Carlo. The cast includes such talent as Mischa Auer, of "My Man Godfrey," "Three Smart Girls" and "The Gay Desperado" fame; David Niven, Warren Hymer, Marjorie Gateson, Thurston Hall, Virginia Sale, Franklyn Pangborn and Grady Sutton.

It was directed by Alfred Werker, the man who made such successes as "The House of Rothschild."

A McCORMICK-DEERING SPREADER MAKES MANURE MORE VALUABLE

Fresh manure does more to build up soil fertility than manure that has stood in a pile for a long time. A McCormick-Deering All-Steel Spreader provides the easy way to get manure onto the land frequently, before it loses valuable soil-building properties.

The McCormick-Deering is an all-steel spreader, sturdy and strong in every detail. The box is made of heavy-gauge galvanized steel containing copper. It is rust-resisting and non-warping. Capacity is 60 to 70 bushels. It is built low to the ground to make loading easy.

Eight roller bearings, steel sides at the rear, five spreading speeds, pressure lubrication, the upper saw-tooth non-wrapping beater, the lower spike-tooth beater, and the wide-spread spiral are other quality features that make the McCormick-Deering the best buy in a manure spreader. Come in and look it over.
