CHURCH NOTES

RADIANT LIVING

His Ever Livingness

By Rev. C. M. Griffeth
Pastor Calvary M. E. Church
Sudlersville, Md.

What Christian is not fascinated with the experiences of those two disciples who trudged their weary way along the road to Emmaus?

Sad through the loss of Jesus, they were joined along the way by a stranger to whom they poured out their grief. Reaching their humble home in Emmaus they urged their unknown companion to accept the hospitality of the evening meal.

Sitting with them at their humble meal, as he was breaking bread with them, they became conscious of his identity.

It was the risen Christ!

How they must have rubbed their eyes in astonishment and looked again. But he was not there! At the moment they had recognized Him, He had vanished!

The two disciples hastened out into the night. Back to Jerusalem they flew, possessed of the glorious fact that Jesus was risen!

Bursting into the upper room like the gust of a whirlwind, they announced with uncontrolled joy that they had talked and eaten with the resurrected living Jesus!

Vitla Christianity always has a startling announcement. The living Christ gives a radiant life to every "whosoeverwill". "I am come", He declares, "I am come that ye might have life and that ye might have it more abundantly."

Blessed is that soul to whom Christ reveals His every livingness!

"Leftenant" for "Lieutenant"

The English were saying "leftenant" for "lieutenant" as early as the Fourteenth century.

Busby, Name of Fur Hat

Busby is the name of the tall, cylindrical fur hats worn by some English soldiers.

Forming Great Characters

No great characters are formed without suffering and self-denial.

The Line Islands

The Line or America islands in the Pacific north of the Equator, sometimes called Palmyra, Washington and Fanning, and Christmas islands, are low atolls which would hardly be distinguishable from a distance but for their tall coconut palms. Palmyra is uninhabited but is occasionally visited for the gathering of the coconut crop.

Mercy and Humanity

When a man cares not what suffering he causes others, and especially if he delights in other men's sufferings and makes them his sport, this is cruelty. And not to be affected with the sufferings of other people, though they proceed not from others, or from causes in which we are not concerned, is unmercifulness. Mercy and humanity are the reverse of these.

THOSE WHO REMAIN

When death visits a home, the first concern is to perform the last service to the loved one in a becoming manner. What ever is done must express all the reverance and affection that is felt at such a time. But in addition to this a further responsibility rests upon the funeral director. It is his privilege and duty to lessen as far as lies with in his power, the burdens laid upon those who remain. By countless little acts of thoughtfulness he can make the way easier for them.

We consider this part of our work as important as any other. Our highest aim is to have our patrons look upon us as trusted friends, ready and anxious to render sympathetic assistance to those who remain behind.
