THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

Hear ye, hear ye, one and all and let it be known that to-day is the inauguration of Old Chestertown Day. As it dawns, I wish it success to the nth degree, for it has meant work, and plenty, for a great number of people. Celebrated under the auspices of the Literary Club it behooves each citizen to patronize this endeavor to raise funds for the Chestertown Library. Not only those of our own county of Kent, do we hope to greet, but of our neighboring counties as well. Reading over the list of 30 places to visit, it fills one with eager anticipation to see the beautiful, rare treasurers to be displayed in such historic and colonial places.

But still another important event, in the life of Washington College, has occasion to befall this eve of and 22nd day of May. Namely, the installation of the first national sorority, there, the Kappa Gamma, having been granted a national charter in Alpha Chi Omega, the ceremony taking place last evening. To-day, however, there is to be a reception in the afternoon and a banquet to-night. Mrs. Wm. J. Donald, of Berkley, California flew by plane from there in order to take part in the program. While here, she is the guest at the home of Mayor and Mrs. Philip G. Wilmer.

To-morrow, there will be a chance to sit and chat over the day's activities at the Chester River Yacht and Country Club. The second of a series of Sunday afternoon teas will be held there from 4 until 6 p. m. Mrs. Brown Metcalfe will be hostess and all members of the club and their guests are cordially invited to be present. The last one on Easter Sunday afternoon was such a success and we hope you'll come and add to the sociability of these informal affairs again tomorrow.

The members of the Theta Kappa Nu fraternity at Washington College and their partners, were entertained on Thursday evening at a picnic supper by Col. Staunton Brown and his mother, Mrs. H. S. Brown in the picnic grounds of Godlington Manor. About 70 guests were present including President and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead, Dr. and Mrs. Julian Corrington, Prof. and Mrs. Frank Goodwin, Miss Amanda T. Bradley, dean of women, and Mrs. A. J. Donald, at 9.30. After supper, there was singing around the campfire, and at the end of the evening, the young folks pronounced it "their nicest day."

A week from to-day, Saturday, May 29th, there will be the ever popular Memorial Day dance at the Club. This is always one of the most popular dances of the year. Splendid music is promised, it's not too hot, it's not too cold, the moon is high, and above all 'tis Spring. So be getting your plans together for that date.

Next on the calendar before the June week activities, is a garden party or tea, if you like, to be held on the lawn of the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bacchus. The time is Wednesday, June 2nd at 4 p. m. This is sponsored by the Auxiliary of the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital and we hope to have a large crowd. One of the delightful features of the afternoon will be a style show by Miss Margaret E. Jefferson. Oh, do be sure to come. The attractive setting is an inducement in itself.

..... Visitors Here And There.....

Mr. and Mrs. William Walker, of Ottawa, Ill., are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines.

Mrs. Blackiston Perkins and her daughter, Miss Frances Perkins, of Germantown, Pa., are week-end guests of Misses Grace and Jennie Wilkins at the Maples.

Mr. Joseph Maxwell, of Detroit and Baltimore, was the week end guest at the home of his mother, Mrs. J. D. Maxwell, Worton Point.

Mrs. Merrick Clements has returned to Chestertown after spending the winter months in Wilmington, Del.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gale are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a fine daughter born at the Kent and Queen Anne Hospital on Sunday last.

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Simpson, of Washington, D. C, were week end guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cooper.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Bates Chaires, of Oakland, Md., were week end guests of relatives here.

Mrs. Florence Fowler, of Elkton, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Mamie Walters.

Miss Estelle Anthony, of Washington, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. James S. Kreeger, here.

Miss Elizabeth Hopkins, of Miami, Florida, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. L. Hopkins

As hard as I try, no more news can I induce into this gray matter, called the mind. What does one do then? Call it a day and sign off? I think so.

Yours still,

THE WANDERER

Washington College added two more games to its string of victories by defeating Delaware last Saturday and Mt. St. Mary's on Wednesday. A complete record to-date is marred by only one defeat by the University of Maryland.

Notorious Theives Escape At Catts Corner

Have Escaped Their Prisons Several Times This Year

Mr. and Mrs. Monk escaped from their prison at Catt's Corner last week and are believed to have taken refuge in a nearby woods. Efforts to find them have been fruitless. Both are known as notorious theives, stealing anything in the way of food.

They moved to Kent County about a year ago from New Jersey and to keep them out of trouble they were put into a cage at the College Hill Filling Station. Part of the winter they were at large but never wandered far from the house.

As the College Hill Filling Station is to be closed Mr. Max Crowding turned Mr. and Mrs. Monk over to his father, Mr. Charles Crowding who runs a store at Catt's Corner. From him they made the escape.

Since their escape nothing has been heard of them. It is believed they can get along all right until winter but it is doubtful they can take care of themselves during the winter. If you live in the vicinity of Catt's Corner keep your eye open for the monkeys.
