OLD CHESTERTOWN DAY A SUCCESS

500 People Visit Old Homes Here

Old Chestertown Day was a great success, both financially and due to the fact that the visitors were decidedly pleased with the exhibit.

Not only did the owners of the old homes and places of exhibit open their homes to the visitors but treasured old relics and heirlooms were donated by residents of the community to help make the day a success.

Visitors were received in the homes by ladies dressed in Colonial Costumes which gave one the impression of the glory of the old days in Chestertown.

Five hundred people purchased tickets for the tour and included among the visitors were a large number of people from Delaware and Pennsylvania as well as all parts of Maryland.

The net receipts of the day were approximatley $400 which will be used for the benefit of the Chestertown Public Library.

Old Chestertown Day was arranged and mangaed by the Ladies Literary Club to whom credit goes for its huge success although the cooperation of the community at large was a great factor in the accomplishment.

The Ladies Literary Club express their thanks to all those who assisted last Saturday.

BETTERTON READY FOR BIG SEASON

Philadelphian Rents Silver Slipper Pier

The town of Betterton is preparing for a busy summer season and cottages and hotels are in readiness for the Decoration Day opening this week-end.

The Silver Slipper beer garden and dance pavilion, owned and formerly operated by Mr. Henry Plant, has been leased to Mr. Alfred E. Green, of Philadelphia, who will operate it this summer.

Mr. L. M. Touchstone recent purchaser of the Betterton Casino, will continue the operation of that amusement center. Mr. Touchstone has operated the Casino for the past three years although this season will be his first season as owner-operator.

Mr. Henry Plant has sold the Charles R. Crew home on the bay to Mr. Edward B. Farrell, of Rye, New York, who with his family expect to spend the summer at Betterton. The sale was made by Mr. Charles Brice, local realtor.

Mr. David B. McCauley, of Chestertown, has rented a cottage at Betterton for the summer.

The Maryland Light and Power Co. is working on a $30,000 line extension in the western section of the county which will include power to the Wayne Johnson estate and Kentmore Park.

NEW FIRE HOUSE PROJECT APPROVED

Go Order Awaiting Final Set-Up

The Mayor and Council, of Chestertown received a letter from W. P. A. headquarters in Salisbury that the application for the construction of a new fire house on the Stafford property on Cross Street has been approved. It is understood that the go-order will be received as soon as necessary details are warked out.

A temporary hold-up is the ratification of the sale of the Stafford property which requires 60 days from the date of sale, May 11th, before the deed can be transferred. In the meantime efforts are being made to speed this procedure and a meeting will be held next week of the building committee and the Council to work out construction details.

The plans for a three story brick building which would adequately house the fire equipment, provide offices for the Town Council and Water Board, have a large banquet hall and lounge and game rooms for the use of the firemen as well as bunk rooms for the resident firemen.

The entire first floor would be used for housing the fire trucks, hose and other fire-fighting equipment and would provide two rooms for town offices with a separate entrance. The second floor would be used for a large banquet and meeting hall and would also include an ample kitchen. The third floor, which would extend only over part of the building is designed for lounge, game and bunk rooms.

The estimated cost of the building, including all plumbing and heating equipment, is approximately $30,000.

The advantages of a new fire house may be summed up as follows:

1. Provide more room for fire-fighting equipment thereby enabling this equipment to be kept in better condition and make for better fire-fighting efficiency as well as protect the men in answering alarms who now have to dodge in and out of moving fire trucks in order to get to their equipment.
2. Would provide equipment for the proper care of fire house.
3. Would provide offices for the Council and Water Board.
4. Would provide a large banquet hall and auditorium for community affairs, together with an adequate kitchen.
5. Would provide lounge and game rooms for the firemen keeping a crew in the fire house for early and late evening calls.
6. Would materially add to the morale of the fire fighting unit.

RAISE IN COUNTY TAX RATE FORSEEN

Roads and Assessment Increase County Expense

An increase in the County tax rate is forseen due to increase county expenses.

Additional expenses to be levied for when the tax rate is declared which must be before June 12th are:

$9,000 for new assessment.

$32,000 for maintenance of county roads. $10,000 was levied for this purpose last year.

$32,000 for payment of road bonds and interest, which represents the payment of $10,000 in slag road bonds and the balance being the difference between Kent's share of the gasoline tax and the $80,000 concrete road bonds due each year.

$2,500 increase in the donation to the three fire companies of the county.

Due to the fact that one half cent in the rate means tax receipts it is evident that the present tax rate of $1.20 may have to be raised to $1.50.

The road items which represents a large portion of the increased levy were provided for during the past two years by bond issues as at the time the levies were struck there were no definite assurance of the amount of these items.

Kent County, during the Ritchie administration received as high as $110,000 is its share of the gasoline tax but during the past two years it has been reduced to approximately $61,000 inspite of the fact that the total State receipts from the gasoline tax have increased since that time.

WASHINGTON ENDS BASE BALL SEASON

Scores 13 Wins In 14 Games Played

Washington College ended a very successful base ball season last Saturday by defeating George Washington University 5 to 2. Evans, pitching his last game for the college kept the game well in hand for six innings, allowing only three hits and one run. At the beginning of the seventh he was relieved by Copple, who although a little wild, succeeded in pulling himself out of trouble allowing only one run to cross the plate. Evans and Salter did the scoring for Washington the former getting 3 and the latter 2 of their team's five runs.

The Washington College team won thirteen of the fourteen games played this season. Coach J. T. Kibler faced the season without any one in sight to take the place of the heavy sluggers lost last season by graduation but developed a winning team by trainnig the youngsters to fill the vacant places.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS TO CONVENE TODAY

Montgomery County Delegation Plans Fight On Representation

No. 1: Weeklies and bi-weeklies during week of May 24th.

No. 2: Dailies May 26th or 27th.

The United Young Men's Democratic Clubs of Montgomery County plan ot carry their fight for changes in the representation of the Counties in the governing bodies of the Young Democrats of Maryland to the Floor of the Convention of the State Organization to be held in Salisbury on the 29th of May.

At the last State convention, held in Baltimore last year, the resolution of the Montgomery County delegation to place all representation on the basis of that of the Maryland Legislature was not reported from the resolutions committee, but the committee controlled by the Present Governing Body from Baltimore City did sign a promise to use their influence in the State body to call a constitutional convention to take up this matter of a more equal distribution of the governing power, comparable to the Democratic form of representation in this State.

The Montgomery County delegation now points out that this promise has never been kept and that their club has instructed them to find out why the unfair discrimination against the Counties cannot be halted. They point out that the present allotment of power is undemocratic and is a serious drawback to the effective work of the State Organization and reflects back to the Counties and hampers local effectiveness.

Mrs. Virgil Kendall Breaks Wrist

Rev. C. L. Atwater Hurt In Auto Accident

Rev. Charles L. Atwater, Rector of Emmanuel and Shrewsbury Churches, is suffering from a dislocated shoulder suffered in an automobile accident in Baltimore City Monday morning

His automobile was in a collision with a truck at an intersection in that city and he was thrown against the side of the car. His automobile was wrecked.

His wife nad sister, who were with him at the time, were uninjured.

TO OPEN NEW BALL PARK HERE SUNDAY

Chestertown And Church Hill To Play Sunday

The new Chestertown base ball park will be opened Sunday when the first home game of the season will be with Church Hill.

The new diamond is located on the farm of Mr. Leon Brown on the east side of the Quaker Neck road opposite the gate to Mr. Brown's home.

The Chestertown team opened their ball season last Sunday when they played St. Michaels at that town. The locals were no match for the crabbers and lost 5 to 10. Wheat started on the mound for Chestertown and was relieved by Cornell. Mangaer Oliffe was behind the plate for the locals.

The game this Sunday with Church Hill promisse to be a hard one as that team has a record of two wins from St. Michaels.

The Joseph Wilson farm on Still Pond Creek was sold this week to a Philadelphian.

HIGH SPOTS FROM THE HIGH SCHOOL

By EMORY M. HINES, JR.

Chestertown High walked away with another victory in the recent county field meet that was held at both Washington College and Chestertown High School last Tuesday, May 25. The local athletes rolled up a score of 169 points to easily top the closest high school runner-up with 97 points. The majority of the events were won by the boys although the girls did also make a few points for the local alma mater.

During the meet, two records were established—one of them being by C. H. S. Bill McGregor, Jessie Smith, John Watkins, and Bill Miller, a team in the Junior unlimited 660-yard relay, lowered the time for it down to 1 minute and 20 seconds. Congratulations!

The Girls' Touchdown Pass Team captured first place over Rock Hall girls, its members being mostly Sophomore and Junior girls. Charles Crowding, in the 95 pound class, copped the 60 Yard dash doing it in 8 seconds, and Charles Harper, in the 115 pound class, took the 70 yard dash in 8 2-5 seconds.

Others in the 115 Pound class that were victorious were W. Morris, (Runnnig Broad Jump, distance 16 ft., 3 in.); Thomas Bowers, (Baseball Throw for Accurancy, making 12 points); and W. Morris, L. Bowers, H. Redman, and E. Newsome, (660 Yard Relay, time 1 min., 28 4-5 seconds).

In the Junior Unlimited class, the 80 yard dash was won by J. Gears with a time of 10 1-5 sec.; the target pitch, by C. Rollison; and the 660 yard relay by the boys I mentioned heretofore.

All but two of the Senior Boys' events were taken by the Cherry and White. The 100 yard dash, won by W. Hogan in 11 2-5 sec.; the 880 yard run, won by P. Schauber in 2 min. 22 1-5 sec.; the running broad jump, won by H. Everett by 17 ft.; the 1640 Medley relay, won by I. Davis, O. Wright, H. Joiner, D. Groves, in 4 min. 1 2-5 sec.; the 440 yard run, won by D Moore in 59 sec.; and the shot put, won by R. Harris by a distance of 34 ft. 7 in. all were elemental in securing the winning points.

A hearty handshake might also be extended to Chestertown Elementary School who did so well that they took their division of the meet with 110 points. The annual rally day seems to have grown since 59 more students participated this year, thus bringing the number up to 1714. But whether the added number adds or detracts to the fun of the day, the meet was anyway a delightful success, from winner or loser's standpoint.

Miss Mamie Carroll's Reading Club held its last meeting of the year last Thursday, May 27, and received an unexpected dixie treat from the faculty advisor. The book organization has indeed been active this year, being helpful in securing books for the school. It will probably be continued next fall.

The Drama Class presented the culmination of their half year's work last Thursday and Friday mornings in the auditorium by giving three one-act plays and several speeches. On the former day Neal Truslow gave an excellent interpetation of Poe's The Raven, and Wayne Pote retaliated by reciting the well-known "The Perfect Tribute". A skit, entitled "The Brink of Silence", telling of life in hte antarctic, with Emory Hines, Gerson Bonnett, Joe Weer, and Wayne Pote in the roles, completed the first day's offerings. Friday dawned and we were entertained with "The Will of the Wisp", with Virginia Foley, Nellie Bexley, Helen Westcott, and Josephine Hastings. It was followed by a light comedy, "The Unseen", Lawrence Brice, Charlotte Russell, and Kitty Bringman causing all the furor.

The dramatic selections have been the climax of the second part of English V, a newly inaugurated course in 1936-37. It has indeed succeeded in making numerous accomplishments, and judging from the number of students enrolled for next year, it will continue as such.

Seen from the corner of my eye; "have been the Sophomore girls who are making de-lovely dresses, "has been" the heat of the days, the cramming for finals, and relief of the Seniors who have completed their essays, and "will be" the multitude of events that will tkae unp the graduates' time June Week.

Fustrated and nervous already are Nellie Bexley and Theodore Redman, two Seniors that will speak at the graduation exercises on June ninth. Nellie will tell her audience the value of extra curricula work and Teddy will tell how Chestertown High helps boys who are preparing to become farmers. The two were selected because of the oratorical abilities.

The Junior Class, tho a little late, has held its election for officers for the next year. Anna Lucht has been placed at the helm as President, and Frances Kreeger will take over first mate, vice-presidency. Calvin Robinson records the meetings in the capacity of secretary; while the treasurer is Robert Wiltbanks. Miss Lucht will receive the class mantel from the 1937 Senior president on Class Night at William Smith Hall.

An excursion of good itme was the ticket of the day for all those connected with high school publications style at Captain Sam's beach near Tolchester last Friday.

Swimming was foremost as an activity although the devouring of hot-dogs and marshmellows came thru to a close sceond. The trip marks the finale of all the journalistically minded ones, and made a fitting climax to their activities of the past year.

"The Hunchback of Notre Dame", famed film of the silent days, will be shown at the school on June 4. The "engineering" necessary to secure the melodrama was promarily sponsered by Kemp Bordley, who has shown unending interest in unusual and grotesque make-up of the foce for the past few seasons.
