THOSE WHO REMAIN

When death visits a home, the first concern is to perform the last service to the loved one in a becoming manner. What ever is done must express all the reverance and affection that is felt at such a time. But in addition to this a further responsibility rests upon the funeral director. It is his privilege and duty to lessen as far as lies with in his power, the burdens laid upon those who remain. By countless little acts of thoughtfulness he can make the way easier for them.

We consider this part of our work as important as any other. Our highest aim is to have our patrons look upon us as trusted friends, ready and anxious to render sympathetic assistance to those who remain behind.

Laws Are for Protection

Laws are for protection, says Hygeia, the Health Magazine, for ourselves and for other people: to be a success as a citizen, we must each one respect our fellow man's rights, and we should obey and keep the laws as long as they are laws.

Colors Affect Mood

The psychological effects of various colors are listed by the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer association. Red is "highly stimulating." Blue is quieting, yellow is cheery and green soothes, yet exhilarates.

CHEVROLET
OWNER LOYALTY

FOR ECONOMICAL CHEVROLET TRANSPORTATION

Mr. Dunn's 1937 Chevrolet parked in front of his ranch house near Colorado, Texas.

EXPRESSED BY THIS BUYER OF 21 CHEVROLETS

(Here is Mr. Dunn's own story of his experience with Chevrolet motor cars)

B. F. DUNN, TEXAS RANCHER, AND HIS 21st CHEVROLET —ALL BOUGHT FROM THE SAME CHEVROLET DEALER

"Buying another Chevrolet has become an unbreakable habit with my family and me—so much so, that we are now driving our twenty-first consecutive car of that make. Another part of the 'habit' is that we always buy from Joe Mills, owner of the Mills Chevrolet Company, our Chevrolet dealer in Colorado, Texas. As the big spaces of Texas test both cars and friendships, I think our long-time loyalty says much for the dependability of both the Chevrolet car and our local Chevrolet dealer. While we can get values like these, nothing but Chevrolet will satisfy us."

Mr. Dunn tells Joe Mills, Chevrolet dealer, "This is the best Chevrolet ever built!"
