THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

The only party of the week was a dance last night, Friday, and that was for members of the sub-Junior set of the Country Club. They had a perfectly glorious time tripping the light fantastic, and were just as cute as could be.

The rest of the news of the week simply concerns visitors in and out of town. I suppose we'll have to wait till after the 4th to have the usual summer gaiety. The Spring thus far has had so much sickness and sadness mingled with its beauty, it's hard to get worked up to any excitement.

Pidgin-English Expressive

Chinese pidgin-English can be most expressive and sometimes shocking to our ear, as is this description of a bishop: "No. 1 piecee joss-pidgin-man"; literally, "God's chief man of business."

Finding the Worthy

"Many may toil to make resplendent robes," said Hi Ho, the sage of Chinatown. "When the task is completed it seems small compared to that of finding one worthy to wear them."

Brooks' Mill Celebrates 25th Anniversary

We are this month celebrating our twenty-fifth anniversary of business in Chestertown. Having purchased the Thomas H. Topping Mill property June 12, 1912, we call the attention of the public to the various improvements and enlargements that have been made during the past twenty-five years:

1913—Brought first car load of DAIRY FEED and first carload of SEED OATS to Kent County.

1922—Changed from steam and water power to MODERN OIL ENGINE and enlarged mill from 50 barrels of flour a day capacity to 100 BARRELS CAPACITY.

1926—Constructed MODERN STORAGE ELEVATOR.

1928—Put into operation first machine to go from farm to farm CLEANING and TREATING SEED WHEAT. This machine was replaced in 1935 by new and more modern machine.

1930—Added modern feed and MIXING PLANT.

Remodeled and improved mill a number of times.

1937—Enlarging ELEVATOR CAPACITY to take care of increasing business.

These enlargements and improvements have been made possible by the cooperation of our customers whose business we have enjoyed and appreciated during these twenty-five years, and we take this means on our Twenty-fifth Anniversary to thank our many customers and friends for their patronage, assuring them that we will endeavor to continue our present courteous and fair dealing policy.
