CROWDS AT ROCK HALL CELEBRATION

Threatening Weather Does Not Mar Program

Probably the largest crowd ever assembled at one time in Rock Hall attended the holiday celebration on Monday, July 5th.

The program was carried out in spite of the threatening weather and the day was declared a success by all who attended.

The festivities started at 10 A. M. with bicycle races under manager B. Trew Durding: The first one was won by Robert Crouch, Frank Hogans and Frank Puppe; 2nd by Rosella Crouch, Mary Ann Crouch; 3rd by Ella May Thompson, Mary Money, Virginia Carter; 4th by Waldon Joiner, Ben Durding, Kenneth Hood; th, a free for all, by William Orr, Bob Strong, Sprocko Thompson; 2nd, 5th, by Louis Joiner, Thomas Parsons and Forest Kendall.

The automobile parade was scheduled for 1 P. M. with Emory V. Hogans in charge. The vote for the best decorated car went to Mr. William Brinsfield, Hynson Carter was second, and Randolph Burgess third. The most comical car was Vaughn Hogans' and the oldest car in line was driven by up-to-date Joseph Williams.

The first prize for the best decorated business place was won fairly by the Rock Hall Volunteer Fire Company, 2nd by Williams Bros., third by William S. Brinsfield. The best decorated homes were those of Mrs. Edgar Strong; Joseph Gagalski and Harry Scoone.

At 2 P. M. there were races for everybody—dashes of different lengths from young to old: In the 1st the winners were Barkley Kircher, Ervin Kelley and Robert Urie, Jr.; 2nd race—Joseph Strong, William Smith, Harry Happersett; 3rd race—William S. Brinsfield, Reds Huck, Joseph Williams; 4th race—William Smith, Robert Shallcross, R. Loller; 5th race—Jean Mench, Betty Jacob, Jean Larrimore; 6th race—Betty Lussier, Ella May Thompson, Edith Shellenburger; 7th race—Ella May Thompson, Betty Lussier and Mrs. Richard Carter.

There were bag races for boys, girls and married women: 1st won by William Mench, Preston Joiner and Robert Tucker; 2nd by Frances Ferrick, Jean Mench and Mrs. Richard Carter; 3nd by Mrs. Richard Carter, Mrs. Marie Price and Mrs. Hattie Glenn.

There was a fifty yard dash for married women won by Mrs. Richard Carter and Mrs. Hattie Glenn. The rolling pin throw for distance had for winners Mrs. Richard Carter, Mrs. Marie Price, and Miss Virginia Willson. The potato race winners were Miss Helen Ashley, Mrs. Hattie Glenn and Mrs. Richard Carter.

Then men then came into their own again and began pitching horseshoes with the prize winners being Walter Kulley and Frank Puppe, Arthur Urie and Leonard Leary, Mr. Gosman and Junior White.

At 3:30 P. M. there was a big baseball game on the high school diamond the players being generally business men of the town. The leaders were Thomas Tucker and Joe Williams, the former's team being successful to the score of 2 to 0.

In the evening there was a comic dress parade at 7:30 o'clock and it was a pity that all the participants could not receive a prize. However, those selected were Mrs. Orin Downey, Leonard Stauffer and Mrs. Hattie Glenn.

At 8 P. M. there were again three prizes in an amateur contest in which there were many competitors with songs, dances and comic skits. The winners were Franklin Arnold, Parsons Brothers and Betty Mercer.

The prize winners were announced by Max Alexander at the conclusion of the amateur contest, the announcements of which were made by Martin Radtke over a microphone on the judges stand. Immediately after the conclusion of this the stand was occupied by the Rhythmaniacs of Chestertown and street dancing was indulged in by all who can trip the light fantastic toe. There were many couples, some still in their prize winning comic costumes, and many little girls who seemed to be enjoying themselves immensely while the boys only stood and looked on. Well, possibly they will do better next year.

River Pool-Stage

The Weather bureau says that pool-stage is a term applied to conditions effected by the dams, or by temporary blocking of a river by debris, behind which water is retained when the overflow ceases.

Birth Month of Julius Caesar

The birth month of Julius Caesar was called Quintilis by the Romans until he died, then it was renamed July.

Largest of All Birds

Largest of all birds is the ostrich, which grows to a height of nine feet and weighs as much as 300 pounds.

Substitute for Coffee

During the Civil war, Confederates used parsnips and sweet potatoes as substitutes for coffee.

Oranges Bigger Than of Yore

At one time the orange was a pear-shaped fruit about the size of a cherry.

Diamond Hardest of Minerals

The diamond is the hardest of all minerals.
