THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

They may say, "What is so rare as a day in June?" but July and its notoriety for heat, hasn't oft been a theme for song or poetry. More often merely a topic of conversation; generally something that offers another thing about which to complain. Therefore true to form, I've complained with the rest of the world, and to what avail? The more we dwell on it, the hotter we get and so what?

Certainly, no one has felt the ambition to do much entertaining and a gathering here or there for a swim, or a party off to Rehobeth for a dip has been the most appealing type of invitation received. Our Garden Club braved the heat of Tuesday, and toured various gardens, some on High St., then to the Lotus Inn, on to the new home and gardens of Mrs. Franc B. Jackson and finally to Worton Manor, the home of Mrs. Jesse B. Maxwell, where a picnic supper was held. It was a most enjoyable day, and the ladies all seemed to have a grand time.

This is the time of the year for guests from the city and from now on we'll probably be entertaining no end. Last week-end, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Springer, of Baltimore, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Emory. Miss Leonore Harris Springer is the guest of her uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines where she will remain for two weeks. Dr. Hines leaves to-day, in command of the members of the Chestertown Medical Detachment for Camp Ritchie.

The younger or sub-Juntor set have been gay this week in spite of the heat. In fact they've had so many small parties that I don't even pretend to keep up with them. Eleanor Beachley has been visiting here as I told you last week, but has returned home now and was accompanied by "Mary Liz" Humphreys who will remain as the Beachley's guest in Bristol, Va., for two weeks anyway. On Monday night, one of the largest parties was given for Eleanor by Sarah Speicher. This one was a Scavenger Hunt and oh such a chase as they had. Well, they are fun, and even we old folks have one once in awhile and get a lot of fun out of them.

Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead entertained informally at supper in the garden last Sunday evening in honor of their house guest, Miss Helen Looney, of Birmingham, Alabama.

Over this week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines will have as guests: Mr. and Mrs. Llewelyn Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Huptman and Mr. Edward Townsend, all of Baltimore.

Mrs. C. B. Quarles, of Houston, Texas, will come on Tuesday to spend a month here as guest of her son-in-law and daugher, Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Dick.

Several ladies sought diversion, if not relief from the heat, in a few days visit to Baltimore this week. Among them were: Mrs. James B. Metcalfe, Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton, Miss Nancy Jean Usilton, Mrs. Frank B. Hines and Mrs. Catherine B. Jones. Mrs. Karl Melamet who has been visiting in Baltimore for the past two weeks returned with some of them.

Mrs. Browne Metcalfe with her two daughters, Fredrica and Peggy, returned on Wednesday from Charleston, W. Va., where, while visiting Mrs. Metcalfe's sister, Mrs. Robt. Jefferds, they were much entertained.

Prof. David McMenamin, is attending summer school at Columbia University, New York.

Mrs. Rose Peregoy, formerly of Chestertown, at present living with her daughter, in Baltimore, celebrated her 86th birthday last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jenkins and daughter, Shirley, of Baltimore, were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Kirby.

Misses Ellen Bordley and Frances Kreeger, spent the week end at Rehoboth, Del.

Miss Noami Baxter, of Philadelphia, was the week end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Taylor Baxter.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Keifer and Mr. and Mrs. Denver Benton and daughter, Peggy, spent the week end at Atlantic City, N. J.

Miss Jean Harshaw, of Lansdowne, Pa., who was a recent graduate of Washington College where she made outstanding records as a member of the Men's Varsity Tennis Team, has accepted a position as instructor of English and physical education at Selbyville High School, Delaware, for the future school year. At present she is studying at Columbia University summer school.

Miss Mary Louisa Truslow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Truslow is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Marinor at Asbury Park.

Invitations were issued to-day, Saturday, to th marriage of Miss Mary Jo Wheatley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Whatley to Mr. Thomas Fretz Moyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tilghman H. Moyer, of Allentown, Pa., and "Beach and Vale" farm on Chester River, near Chestertown, which will take place Saturday, August 7 at Christ M. P. Church at 4 p. m. A reception will follow at the Chester River Yacht and Country Club from 4.30 to 6 p. m.

'tis evning, and it 'tis daylight as you

Dr. Blcakiston Wroth accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Thomas G. Wroth, his sister, Miss Anna Wroth and Mrs. Frank Gurley left on Friday for a trip to Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

I konw you are ready to move over by the fan, so put out your light, if tis evening, and if ti's daylight as you read, your swim suit is ready, so I'll be running along to hunt mine too.

Yours for comfort,

THE WANDERER
