Washington College Students In The News

Miss Eleanor Stevens, recent graduate, has been appointed teacher of English at Elk Ridge High School, Howard County, Maryland. Miss Stevens graduated with honors and won the Washington Chapter Medal, which is awarded annually to the member of the Senior Class who attains the highest average in English of four years.—Jim Salter, '38, is planning to return to Washington next year, contradicting former reports that he would enter United States Military Academy at West Point. He is a three sport athlete, which means considerable support to the football, basketball, and baseball teams.—Marty Cain, of Baltimore, a freshman last year, is not coming back to Washington this fall. His skill and service as a regular of the football squad will be missed. He is now employed with the Bethlehem Steel Company, Sparrows Point, Baltimore.—Joe McLain, '37, of Baltimore, President of the recent graduating class at College, has been named as a teaching assistant as Johns Hopkins University where he will do graduate work.—Robert Swain, also of the class of '37, and winner of the Historical Essay Prize and the D. A. R. Essay Medal is doing work for the Maryland Historical Society in Baltimore at present. He is planning a trip to California in August.—A number of Old Washington's sons are employed at a boy's camp in Warrensburg, New York, of which Professor Winton Tolles is the director. This list includes Gilbert Mead, Jr., Bill Smith and Harry Hickes, of Baltimore, "Gibby" Young, of Virginia, Larry Yourtee of New Brunswick, Md., and John Stack, of Crumpton, Md.

Rock Hall Cannery Opens

The Rock Hall Cannery, recently purchased by the Tilghman Packing Company, started packing early tomatoes this week. The price paid at the opening of the cannery was 25 cents a basket.

BETTERTON

Betterton is having its usual good season. Altho the fire destroyed a number of the amusement places, othres have taken their places. Mr. James Wilmer has rented the Turner warehouse and has converted it into a lunch room and also an added room for concessions. Tables are ready for picnic parties at both the shore end and the end over the water of Turners Pier the old Tolchester Wharf. Mrs. James T. Crew has enlarged her restaurant. Miss Iona Stone has opened a most attractive Gift Shop at her home on Bayside. Mr. Touchstone Dance Hall is drawing large crowds each evening, especially Tuesday nights for the "Bank Night" and Thursday evening for the floor show.

The community was saddened when it was learned that Ernest, Jr., the baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brisco had passed away. The funeral service was held on Sunday afternoon and the interment in Still Pond Cemetery.

Three new electric fans have been installed in the Methodist Church this week. The progressive supper held early in the summre was for the fund.

Miss Evelyn Crew, of Baltimore, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crew. Miss Crew has been made the assistant superintendent in surgery at the Maryland General Hospital for the summer months.

Mrs. Anthony Nasella and daughters, Kathleen and Jane of Philadelphia are spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clare Turner.

Captain and Mrs. James Curry have as their guests for the week, Captain and Mrs. Noah Ireland and Mr. and Mrs. Cole of Baltimore.

Miss Mary Taylor, of Philadelphia, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clark, of Chester, Pa., spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Harry Clark.

The Corinthian Yacht Club held its annual regatta here last Saturday and Sunday. The members of the club were entertained at the Rigbie Hotel while they were here.

Four Coast Guard Cutters have been anchored here for several days.

Services are being held each Sunday morning at the Catholic Church at seven htirty A. M., and at the Episcopal Chapel at seven thirty P. M.

Mrs. Edward Young, of Wilmington, is spending some time with Mrs. Horace Brice.

Dr. and Mrs. Earl Moritz, of Baltimore, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell Crew.

Order of Publication

In the Circuit Court for Kent County In Equity No. 3065

Jessie C. Clayton vs.
Albert R. Clayton

The object of the Bill filed in the above entitled case is to procure a Decree for divorce a vinculo matrimonii.

The Bill states:

1. That on the 26th day of December, 1925, Jessie C. Clayton was married to Albert R. Clayton by Reverend Hanby of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Fairlee, Kent County, Maryland, said marriage ceremony was performed at Fairlee, Kent County, Maryland.

2. That she and the said Albert R. Clayton resided together as man and wife in Kent County, Maryland, until the month of April, 1931.

3. That during that period, there was born to the said Jessie C. Clayton and Albert R. Clayton three children who are, Samuel T. Clayton, now aged ten years; Leta R. Clayton, now nine years of age; and Rachel E. Clayton, now seven years of age.

4. That although the conduct of your Oratrix toward her husband, the said Albert R. Clayton, has always been kind, affectionate and beyond reproach, the said Albert R. Clayton in the month of April, 1931, without any just cause or reason, abandoned and deserted her and the three children aforesaid and declared his intention to live with her no longer, and that such abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for at least three years and is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties is beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation.

5. That since that time the three aforesaid children have resided with and have been under the custody of your Oratrix.

6. That in the month of March, 1935, the said Albert R. Clayton was convicted of criminal offense in the United States District Court for the District of Maryland and since that time has been confined in the Federal Penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, where he has resided since that time. The said Albert R. Clayton having deserted your Oratrix for at least three years before he was sent to the Lewisburg Penitentiary.

It is thereupon, this 14th day of July, 1937, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 9th day of August next, give notice to the said Albert R. Clayton, non-resident defendant, warning him to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 24th day of August next, to show cause, if any he has, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
