THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

While aimlessly perusing a magazine this week, my roving eye lighted upon an ad which said, "Stretch your horizon." It went on to say in smaller type "all about there are miles of scenery waiting to be explored. Go farther, see more." Sounds good doesn't it? But alas, the possibility of such an endeavor does not always come knocking at our doors. However, listening to the accounts of the more fortunate gives us a glow of the world unseen and we at home can at least bask in that horizon of nature which appears not to be created for us. Interesting and varied are the tales which our friends bring home, so sit not green with envy as we listen, but drag that old imagination of yours out of its shell, and before you know it, you've been North, East, South and West, all free of charge.

Going Northward, by this time Mr. and Mrs. R. Hynson Rogers and Miss Harriett Louisa Rogers are in Boston, having sailed from Baltimore, Tuesday on the S. S. Chatham, of the Merchants and Miners Line.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Westcott, of Chestertown, and Mr. Oren B. Harrison and his mother of Whittman, Maryland, returned Sunday from a tour of New York, and Vermont States and the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec, Canada. On the homeward route Miss Helen Westcott, who had been spending some time in New York, Connecticut and New Jersey, joined the party.

Mrs. William T. Dixon, Mr. Bill Dixon and Miss Josie Dixon are spending two weeks at the Dixon camp in the Adirondacks. Miss Bessie Dixon is visiting in the meanwhile, a former classmate in Minneapolis, who is making her bow to society in that city this month.

Mrs. C. B. Quarles and her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Dick have returned from a visit to friends at West Point Military Academy, stopping a few days in New York on their way home.

Looking West, we remember that Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Jones, of Millington, Mrs. Howard Pennington and her brother, Mr. Owen Anderson, and Mrs. Levi Downey, of Chestertown, are on a motor trip to Seattle, Washington.

Mr. Louis Gordon is visiting his sisters, in Chicago, Illinois.

Mrs. Karl Leiber, who has spent several weeks as the guest of her uncle and aunts at Piney Grove the Emory estate, will join her husband at Ft. Leavenworth, where Captain Leiber is now stationed.

Going South, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Collins, Mr. James Collins and Mrs. Walter T. Bennett, left Wednesday for a sight seeing tour through the Shenandoah Valley and other points of interest.

Dr. Blackiston Wroth, Mrs. T. H. Wroth and Miss Anna Wroth have returned from a several weeks visit in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida.

Mr. Stanley B. Giraitis left for Florida last week after two weeks here.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Price left Thursday on a motor rtip for New Orleans, La., where Mr. Price will attend the annual meeting of the National Rural Carriers Association.

In The East. Little Peggy Truslow is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jackson R. Collins at Ocean City, N. J.

Mrs. Allan B. Harris and her two sons lfet on Thursday for the West, Mrs. Harris entraining from Baltimore to California, while the boys will visit their aunt in Lake Forest, Ill.

Mr. Jack Stneger and his two older sons have returned from a visit to Mr. Stenger's parents in Williamsport, Md.

Mrs. E. Bonwill Dukes and daughter, Margaret Ann, returned Friday after spending several weeks at Seaside Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Nichols, of Pittsburgh, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pickett and children of Howard county, were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rolph Townshend here.

Misses Erma and Helen Adams, are the guests of their aunt at Toms River, N. J.

And now getting very close to home we have had from Baltimore:

Miss Rebecca Wickes has been the guest of Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Rankin have returned to Baltimore after spending a week with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Baker. Mrs. Rankin has been employed by a social agency in Baltimore for the past year.

Miss Linda Ryland, of Baltimore, who had been night nurse for Senator S. Scott Beck, returned to her home Monday after spending a week at the Beck home.

Miss Lucille Parr, of Baltimore, was the guest over the week end of Miss Inez Russell.

Mrs. P. A. M. Brooks, Mrs. Lillie Hossinger and Miss Bessie Hepburn spent the week at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Muriel Hilderbrandt, at Rivera Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cooper, entertained over the week end James Marek, Hank McTavish, Jeff Parks and Frank Drexler, from Brooklyn, Md.

Masters Billy Wilmer and Lee Gill are among the sojourners at Camp Wright this month.

Mrs. James Chapman, III, now of Baltimore, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Frank Simpers.

Mrs. John Waters and two children, of Washington, D. C., have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vernor Barnett, for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smythe Wallis, recent guests in Chestertown, have been spending the week with their nephew, Mr. F. Wallis Jarman, near Centreville. With Mr. Wallis's brothers, Messrs. F. A. Wallis and John Charles Wallis, they motored on Tuesday to Wilmington, to be luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hendal Wallis, returning to their home at Arlington, Va., next Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. S. Holt Wright will occupy the Wickes house corner High and Front streets, formerly occupied by Dr. R. G. Beachley and family, next week.

Mrs. Hiram Brown, who has been ill for several weeks, has been taken to the Kent and Queen Anne's General Hospital here, where her condition is said to be improved.

Entertaining has slackened to a low pace in comparison with the past two weeks. However, yesterday, Miss Virginia Jones entertained at a beautifully appointed luncheon in honor of Mrs. Stanley Geraitis, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Jones. Mrs. Geraitis has recuperated from her recent operation and will join her husband in Florida in the near future.

To-night, Misses Patsy and Peggy Branham will entertain at a buffet supper in honor of Miss Frances Metcalfe and Mr. Bud Harrison whose engagement was recently announced.

And now that we've travelled, to the four corners and are back home, the next best to say, when the arms of Morpheus are extended, is: And so to bed.

Yours with sweet dreams,

THE WANDERER

DONKEYS GET LOOSE AT TOLCHESTER

Arouse Hotel Tolchester Guests In Wee Hours Of Morning

When folks think of "Donkey Base Ball" it is with amusement but not so with Mr. J. N. Clemons, Supt. Tolchester Beach, The reason, Mr. Clemons has had a strenuous week, with handling one of the largest crowds of the season, Tuesday (Jackson Day) and a large Sunday School Excursion on Wednesday; Mr. Clemons was much perturbed when one of the Tolchester Lines Boats was disabled Wednesday afternoon and he was obliged to phone Baltimore Rapid Transit Company to send six buses to Tolchestker to take the 210 excursionists back to their homes in Baltimore. He was already for bed at 2 a. m. when the busses arrived and were soon loaded and on their way to Baltimore. Then along came Horace Werne, old Southern League Base Ball Player and His Trained Donkey Ball Players for a two night's engagement. This is the same outfit that played to large crowds at Griffith Stadium, Washington, three times in the past two years. Mr. Clemons smiled, he was tickled to have this big laugh show as an attraction for his Park as folks have been talking about their coming for a week now. The Old Race Track at the Beach has been put in shape to play Donkey Base Ball inside the oval—A wire Fence has been put up to keep back the crowds, arrangements have been made to park cars around the playing field so all can see the game. 500 Park Benches will be put around the diamond and sold as reserved seats. Ticket Booths have been put up. Arrangements have been made for Park, County and State Police to be on hand to handle the crowds. A large area has been provided to park autos. Why shouldn't the man smile? But he was sleepy, so after greeting Horace Werne and his staff and instructing his assistants to see that the Donkeys were properly housed for the night he retired. Sometime in the wee hours of the morning he was aroused by strange noises—half asleep he could not make out what it was—He! Haw! He! Haw!! He was awake now. Those Donkeys were loose! Doors popped open in the Hotel Tolchester, the watchman of the park made his appearance at Mr. Clemons door——Mr. Clemons knew it—The Donkeys were out of their corrall. But he did not know they were running amuck in the Park, flower beds being trampled, benches being turned over, who knows, they might be in the new building that houses the new Ten Thousand Dollar Roller Coasters. These thoughs flew through Mr. Clemons mind and he got into his clothes faster than a Chestertown fireman. He aroused Horace Werne and his business manager, they in turn aroused the two men they carry to work the Donkeys on the field, James "Bull" Montana) Hanson and "Buck" Gardner. The hunt was on. Those Donkeys cut capers, as they had a good lead. But they were soon cornered, put back in their quarters and this time tied up—Seven tired men went bcak to bed, but not before one of them remarked, "General Sherman said," War is H—— "I say Donkeys are H—— and that goes double." Mr. Clemons had to smile—But he said to Horace Werne "Mister those Donkeys better be good when they play to-night and Saturday night." "Mr. Werne replied," don't worry Mister, they are always good, Get ready to laugh out loud."

Illumination of the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition will extend from its Treasure Island site to the buildings that form San Francisco's skyline.
