THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

Who said Summer was waning? The proverbial statement of the heat of the 4th of July is mild compared to the heat on Wednesday and some moments since.

Mrs. Henry Beck and her attractive daughter, Miss Margaret Beck are here from Texas, planning a six weeks abode in Chestertown. Their home in Texas may be hot, but if they've come for a change of climate this week is not a very encouraging sample of the temperature here. Let's hope for a variety soon.

Speaking of Texas, Mrs. C. B. Quarles who has been visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Dick, bid her good-byes to friends here yesterday, to return to her home in Houston, Texas. Mrs. Quarles's last week here has been one continuous round of luncheons, dinners and bridge parties, the largest being the bridge given on Monday evening by Mrs. H. Clay Brown. This Texas lady was a very popular guest, and we hope her visit to us again will be anon.

Another charming annual summer visitor is Mrs. Robert Wood, of Porto Rico, who came on Saturday last, to be the guest of her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kratzer, Mrs. Charles Shaunghessy, of Emmittsburg, Md., who is a more frequent visitor, is also a guest of her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson are entertaining a number of house guests from Lansdowne, Pa., and Philadelphia over this week-end.

Thursday of this week was a most popular day, having four parties chalked to its credit. One of these was a luncheon given by Miss Mabel Toulson, and the other was a supper bridge given by Mrs. G. Howard Dana.

Mr. George Debnam entertained a number of the younger set at a dinner party on Monday evening at his home on the Bay.

Mrs. Ives Leonard and Miss Fannie Hartman entertianed at the second of a series of teas on Tuesday afternoon to meet Mrs. J. B. Whitworth. The younger Whitworths, have become quite a part of the community already and are in much demand. Miss Genevieve Hachel, of Hollywood, is the guest of Miss Betty Whitworth at the home of her parents.

Miss Charlotte Russell entertained a number of young friends at a party Tuesday evening.

Now for the travel log. The migration to New England still continues. It seems this is the first year I've handled so much northern traffic. It's always been heretofore, Ocean City and Rehobeth that I've been loaded down with. Oh well, "times do change," saith grandma.

Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Fisher will leave Monday for a tour of the New England states, visiting Niagara Falls and Canada on their trip.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown, who have been spending part of their vacation here, left this week for a stay with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crosby at West Yarmouth, Mass.

Mrs. Thomas Massey returned last Saturday after touring in the New England States. Her son, David, is visiting in Baltimore and Tommy is the guest of friends in New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turner and daughters, are enjoying a motor tour in New England States.

However, a few are still faithful to the sea shore. Among these are: Misses Alice Smith and Sue W. Smith, Mrs. William B. Willis and daughter, Betty Lee, Mrs. Edward Robinson and Mrs. Clifton Rollison are among the list of Chestertown vistors at Ocean City, Md.

Mrs. Enna Lewis and Miss Harriett Skirven are spending the week at Atlantic City, N. J.

Mrs. Wilfred Payne and children returned home last Friday after spending a month at Ocean City.

And still other seek neither mountains nor sea shore.

Mr. Price Rolph and family are spending the month of August at Long Bar Harbor on Bush River.

Mrs. John C. Davis, and daughters, Misses Rebecca and Cornelia, are spending the week touring the Eastern Shore and Virginia.

Mrs. T. B. Kilbourne and Miss Mary Jean Strong are visiting with relatives in Howard county. They were joined by Mrs. Lawrence P. Strong on Friday.

Miss Helen B. Westcott is spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Lewis E. Daugherty, in North East, Maryland.

Mrs. Owen C. Smith and Spencer Smith and family, were guests last week of the former's daughter, in Canton, Ohio.

Mrs. John Speicher and daughters have returned from a week's visit to Summit, N. J., where they were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Ward Dishbrowor.

But just look how many other papers are writing about those who have gone to Chestertown for visits on vacatoins. Yes, you hardly think about the joy of a vacation here when it's home to you. The grass is always greener—you know the rest. All right—I'm happy here, wouldn't want to live anywhere else, but it's nice to get away sometimes, isn't it? Well, here's a register of our out-of-town guests:

Miss Comfort Vegley, of St. Louis, arrived Friday for a visit with Mrs. Catharine Beck Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Russell Wheatley and daughter, of Canada, are the guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Fannie Wheatley here. They will remain until shortly before Labor Day.

Miss Doris Nichols is spending sometime with her sister, Mrs. Rolph Townshend here.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Sparks, and daughter, of Baltimore, are the guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sparks.

Mrs. Charles Comegys is the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Chamberlain at Quaker Neck wharf.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Gray Wilkins, and son, of Baltimore, were week end guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Jesse Medders.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Brown and children, of Akron, O., were week end guests of Dr. and Mrs. Holt Wright here.

Prof. Louis J. Thibodeau, of Waterbury, Conn., is the guest of his daughter, Betty, at the home of her grandfather, Mr. L. Bates Russell, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Moyer, of Baltimore, were week end guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Wheatley.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar McGinnis, and son, of Philadlephia, have been the guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. Ralph Barnett.

Miss Mary Emma Chaires, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Bates Chaires, of Oakland, is the guest of Miss Jean Cooper here.

Mrs. Albert Bagley, little son and daughter, Mrs. Carl Miller and son, and Mrs. Phil C. deMeana, of Baltimore, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Cushing on High street the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wellham and Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Sennett and children, of Baltimore, were visitors this week of Mrs. Wellham's sister, Mrs. L. A. Sutton.

Mr. Wilmer Coleman, and daughter, of Philadelphia, visited his mother and brothers here last week.

Miss Rebecca McFeely and friend, of Baltimore, were guests of her mother, Mrs. Alice McFeely, last week.

Our best wishes are extended to all those of our community at this time who are ill and with hopes for constant improvement we wish Mr. S. Scott Beck, who returned to his home on Monday from the local hospital.

Also to Miss Phoebe Pyle who was operated on for appendicitis at the Kent and Queen Anne hospital on Monday.

And to Mrs. Alvin Coleman who was operated on at Easton hospital for appendicitis on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John George are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, born Thursday at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital. Mrs. George was formerly Lucy Cruikshank of Galena.

The radio is playing "The Star Spangled Banner" at this moment and as all my patriotic little friends tell me I must stand, even at home, I better keep right on going while I'm up.

Yours for patriotism,

THE WANDERER
